

The Compiler.

GETTYSBURG, PA.

Monday Evening, Feb. 12, 1887.

A GLEANER OF HOPE.

For nearly two years the radicals have kept the country in a state of doubt and uncertainty by hindering the judicious policy...

The power of Stevens and his fellow agitators is evidently breaking. This will be hailed as good news by all the true friends of liberty in this country.

WHAT THE ARMY THINKS.

Gen. Halpine, "Private Miles O'Reilly," who delivered the poem at the laying of the cornerstone of the National Monument here, writes from Washington...

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

The Reading Democracy, on the 8th instant, elected their Mayor by 328 majority; Treasurer by 605; Auditor by 340; the two Legislators by 490 and 417...

The Judiciary Committee of the Rump have already asked for ten thousand dollars ($10,000) to pay expenses in the preliminary examination of witnesses...

Radical newspapers being now engaged in sorping together accounts of all the crimes committed in the South...

Radical newspapers being now engaged in sorping together accounts of all the crimes committed in the South, and in manufacturing stories when truth fails...

A correspondent of Forney's Press says that three appointments in the city of Philadelphia, which are in the gift of Governor Geary, have not yet been filled...

Massachusetts wants the Rump to put a tariff on ice. Last year Boston alone exported to northern New England...

A woman in Detroit sold her ragged one-dollar bill, and after ward remembered she had deposited $100 in it for safe keeping.

PROTECTING AMERICAN INDUSTRY.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial (a Radical sheet) shows how the tariff bill now pending in the Rump House was gotten up...

Another illustration. There is one place in the United States where the stone used for grindstones is found and dressed. It is near Cleveland, Ohio.

Take another illustration. There is one place in the United States where the stone used for grindstones is found and dressed. It is near Cleveland, Ohio.

Private Miles O'Reilly, General Halpine, of New York, writing to his paper from Washington City, says: "The Senate in its eagerness to slaughter Mr. Johnson's protegee, is making a mistake."

Private Miles O'Reilly, General Halpine, of New York, writing to his paper from Washington City, says: "The Senate in its eagerness to slaughter Mr. Johnson's protegee, is making a mistake."

The Senate in its eagerness to slaughter Mr. Johnson's protegee, is making a mistake. The House of Representatives, in its eagerness to protect the tariff...

THE EXTRAVAGANCE OF CONGRESS. The New York Tribune says: "Congress has a Retrenchment Committee, but what expenses are retrenched?"

It is fortunate that Democratic newspapers are saved from all tribulation by the majority of Congress which is now arrogantly setting itself up as "the government."

THE BELL. This tariff bill has gone to the House. It is as we have given by exact figures, one of the most oppressive and unequal revenue bills ever devised.

Beware. This tariff bill has gone to the House. It is as we have given by exact figures, one of the most oppressive and unequal revenue bills ever devised.

On the 12th inst. at the house of Mr. Joseph Hoff, in the town of Hartburg, a young man named Mr. James H. H. was killed by a bullet from a revolver...

TOWN AND COUNTY AFFAIRS.

A Good Cow.—Mr. Robert M. Dick, the accommodating hotel-keeper at Hampton, informs us that he has a cow which recently yielded seventy pounds of milk...

Fire.—The house and barn on the farm belonging to the estate of Samuel Gilliland, deceased, and recently acquired by Dr. C. E. Goldborough, situated about five miles north of this place...

SALES.—Simon Coleri has purchased the property of John Martin, in York street, at $1,100. Mr. C. talks of improving the house...

S. B. Rowe, of Clearfield, has purchased of C. J. Tyson the property now occupied by the latter, in Chambersburg street, at $3,000 cash.

C. J. Tyson has purchased the property of Rev. Dr. Hay, in the western suburb of town, at $3,000. It is Mr. T.'s intention to improve it, and we may look for something very tasteful.

Philip Bedding, Esq., has purchased the half lot of ground belonging to Catherine Nainstadt, on High street, with a view to the immediate erection of a fine residence thereon.

Daniel Bener, Sr., has sold 9 acres of land, with improvements, on the Bonington road, one and a half miles east of Gettysburg, to Lewis Krichen, at $1,900 cash.

BUILDING ASSOCIATION.—The contemplated Building Association promises to be a thorough success. That class of persons for whose special benefit these organizations are generally gotten up, are manifesting a lively concern in this movement...

RESIGNATIONS.—Mr. T. D. Farson, on Tuesday last, resigned the Cashiership of the Gettysburg National Bank, the resignation to take effect on the 1st of May next, when he intends to remove to Philadelphia, where his superior qualifications will doubtless command more for his services than the Gettysburg National bank can afford to pay.

Col. John H. McClellan, for upwards of thirty years the Teller of this old bank, has also resigned, the condition of his health rendering such a post-employment. He, too, made a good offering, discharging the duties of his post faithfully and to the satisfaction of the management and the public.

A TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—A heart-rending casualty occurred in Dallastown, seven miles from York, on Monday week. Smith Ayers went down an old well, fifty-nine feet deep, the walls of which were most dilapidated, for the purpose of bringing up the bucket, which had accidentally fallen in. Whilst ascending the well, a large portion of the wall suddenly caved in, and he was buried beneath its ruins.

On Saturday week the bill granting the territory of Nebraska into a State, which has been vetoed by the President, was passed over the veto, in both Houses of Congress, by more than a two-thirds vote.

On Tuesday, the 12th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, in Cumberland township, by Rev. Dr. H. B. HANNAH, of Gettysburg, was MRS. SARAH J. A. SOCKS.
