977 TOWN, PA.
Monday Morning, April 8, 1867.

CROW, CHAPMAN! CROW!

CONNECTICUT REDEEMED!!!
A MAGNIFICENT VICTORY!

Reaction of the Whole Democratic State!

Reaction of Three Democratic Congressmen!

The Tide Turned! White Men, rejoice!

Competent is redeemed! On Monday just the Democrats and Conservatives met the Radical Destructionists at the polls, and vanquished them, "horse, foot and dragon!" This glorious news must thrill the heart of every patriotic citizen in the land. It proves that a turn in the political tide has set in—that the "sober second thought" has taken hold even in a New England State, and gives promise of a healthy reaction everywhere. Fanaticism has reached its highest point. From this time on its course will be downward, until it reaches a more ignominious end than ever before followed a political organization in this country.

In 1866, Gen. Hawley, Radical, was elected Governor of Connecticut, by 54 majority. On Monday last, James E. English, Democrat, was elected over Hawley, by ONE THOUSAND AND TWENTY-FIVE!!! The whole Democratic State titter! also successful!!!

In 1865 the Radicals elected all of the four members of Congress to which the State is entitled. On Monday last the Democrats elected three of the four Congressmen—defeating, among others, the great "showman," Phineas T. Barnum. The net Democratic majority on Congressmen is about sixteen hundred!

Each House of the State Legislature will be pretty closely balanced. The Senate stands eleven Radicals and ten Democrats. The House stands one hundred and twenty Radicals and one hundred and sixteen Democrats. Last year they stood—Senate, thirteen Radicals and eight Democrats; House, one hundred and forty-one Radicals and ninety-five Democrats.

Friends of the Union, the Constitution, a white Man's Government and Civil Liberty, rejoice!

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

Connecticut Redeemed!
(From the N. Y. World.)
This result is in the highest degree gratifying, as indicating a turn in the tide, and the beginning of the great reaction which is to sweep the Republican party out of power. No attempt which the Republicans can make to explain away this insignificant and foreboding defeat can be of any avail. They have no leader to any lack of effort to ward off the blow, for never did they conduct a campaign with greater spirit, energy and perseverance, or with a more lavish expenditure of money than they did in vain to pretend that the success of the Democrats is owing to their introduction of side issues, like the labor question; for the fact that the inundating flood of fanaticism has sufficient force to sweep the Republicans out of power, is the most trustworthy proof of reaction.

This good beginning will presently be followed by other proofs of a reaction. In about three weeks, we shall see an opportunity to test new the comparative strength of parties in the State of New York. The vote for the delegates at large to the Constitutional Convention will show whether the Republican party has gained or lost since last fall's election, and we are confident, from the signs of the times, that the reaction will be found more powerful here than it has been in Connecticut. The passions of the last six years will be revived by the exhaustion of their fuel and the near prospect of a final settlement in the South. The Republican party, whether for good or for evil, has accomplished its purpose. It has given birth and kept it in power. The nineteen months which intervene between now and the Presidential election will witness the decline and fall of a party which has done more to injure the Union than any other party in its history, and kindled more diabolical passions, and inflicted deeper wounds on constitutional government, than any other political party that ever existed in the world.

What is Breaking?
(From the Hartford Patriot & Union.)
We have returned to the State, and this is all we promised. It is enough. It is glorious, for it is a blow for the Union of our fathers, a protest against military despotism and arrogant usurpation of power by Congress.

Friends, throughout the country! Let us calmly consider this great result—this victory which is to sweep over many of the Northern and Western States, and to beat down the people's liberty and respect civil government. It has been achieved against vast odds. The whole force of the Republican party of the country was brought to bear against us. Their money and their men were here to defeat us. We had little aid from abroad, while our opponents, charging the Democracy with using money to corrupt the Republican party, and the floods of money which they brought to bear against us, had all they wanted. The result is peculiarly gratifying, because it is achieved on principle and the hold and startling issues upon us by Congress. There is a noble people who are emerging men, the Conservatives, the Democrats, who have conserved this work. Thank God for the kind Providence which has smiled upon a just cause, and favored those who have struggled for civil law and free government. The light is breaking. The people are aroused.

The Connecticut Victory!
(From the Hartford Patriot & Union.)
This important victory, occurring in a section of the Union where the Conservative have been for long years the dominant States in other sections where party lines are not so strictly drawn as they are in New England. We may safely count upon the result of the election in Connecticut as a turning point in the history of the nation—the commencement of a return to constitutional law as the guiding star of government. The Radical leaders have

HOW THEY LOVE THE SOLDIER.

The liquid protestations of love for the soldier which emanate from the lips of the Radicals have been repeatedly shown to be mere lying pretences. Where they think they cannot succeed except through clap-net, the leaders consent to put forward some soldier for office, generally taking good care that he is one whom they can use as they see fit; such a humbug as Geary, for instance.

Within a few weeks past the "infit patriots" in Congress have given abundant evidence of their appreciation of the services of the soldiers of the war. One after another some of the most worthy officers have been rejected by the Senate.

It is noted how faithfully they have served the country. All their services were of no account in the eyes of such men as Sumner and his followers.

Speaking of the recent rejection of Gen. Slocum as Naval Officer at New York, the New York Herald says:

Major General Henry W. Slocum was named by the President for the position of naval officer of the port of New York, and the United States Senate has refused to confirm this admirable nomination. General Slocum was ejected at West Point. He went to sea as Colonel of the Twenty-seventh regiment of New York Volunteers, and served in the battle of Bull Run. Promptly to be present in the first possible battle, there was scarcely a day when he was not in the field on which the national cause was to be upheld from which he was absent. He went to the Peninsula with the Army of the Potomac and did heroic service through all that terribly destructive campaign, and during the memorable seven days' fight around Richmond. At Crampton's Pass on the South Mountain he stormed and carried by assault a rebel position on a hill side, and was the first to reach the top of the mountain who voted against him would probably refuse to climb it in even these peaceful, pastoral days. He was at the battle of Antietam. He was at the Chancellorsville fight, commanding the Twelfth corps, and when the Eleventh corps broke Slocum's lines, these were what the enemy found in their way, and what kept them from sweeping like a deluge down the river valley. He was at the battle of Gettysburg, and when the Eleventh corps broke Slocum's lines, these were what the enemy found in their way, and what kept them from sweeping like a deluge down the river valley.

From that case let soldiers learn how they are appreciated by the leaders of the Republican party.

DEMOCRATIC GAINS IN THE WEST.
The gains for the Democratic party at the elections held within the past fortnight, in the West, are of a nature to give confidence to the friends of the Union. In the West the same gratifying evidences of a change in public sentiment are to be seen. The Democracy of Ohio have made a most gallant and satisfactory record. In the election for Governor, the Michigan local elections have resulted in a loss to the Radicals. In Columbus, Ohio, the Democrats exceeded their most sanguine expectations. They elected the Mayor, the State Senator, the six out of the nine Councilmen, and six out of the nine Commissioners, and secured a trace of Radicalism in that city. This glorious result, the Democratic journals of that section declare, resulted from the fact that the Radicals, by usurpation; its striking out of existence ten State governments; from the legislation of the Ohio Legislature, whereby Columbus is denied the management of its own police, and the passage through the Senate of the resolution abolishing the political distinction between the whites and blacks. The majority in this city at the next election is confidently estimated at from one hundred and twenty to one hundred and fifty. In Newark, Ohio, was well organized, and the result showed a gain of five hundred and fifty-one, since the fall election of last year. Officially aided one hundred and thirty-two, and the Democratic gains in a twelve-month, and Zanewille seventy-five. Other towns in like manner increase the Democratic vote, thus showing that the people of Ohio are becoming more and more united, which is preventing a union of the States, and thus impeding the movements of all the business interests of the nation.

The result of the election in Detroit, Michigan, is also a most gratifying one, as indicating the drift of public sentiment in the Northwest. The Democratic vote is largely increased, while that of the Radicals falls off. The Democrats elected one Senator, and the Radicals only one. The Democratic candidate for County Superintendent was chosen, and also the entire list of delegates to the Constitutional Convention. This is a substantial gain, and one which will produce good results in the future. In the interior of Michigan the Democratic gains have been of such a character as to warrant a belief that the change taking place in the State is also operating here, and that at the next general election this fact will be demonstrated in a manner still more available. In all parts of the Union there are signs of a revolution in public sentiment, and the Democratic party must prepare to meet the States to their old places in the Union.

Conservative Victory at Annapolis.
ANNAPOLIS, Md., April 3.—The municipal election on Monday last resulted in the success of the whole Conservative party. Dr. Abram Clarke was elected Mayor over Richard Swann, the present Radical incumbent. James R. Hewson was chosen Recorder, and John E. Magruder, William Black, John H. Thompson, and A. Thompson, and John R. Walton, Aldermen—all Conservatives.

Democratic Gain in Rhode Island.
The election in Rhode Island took place on Wednesday. Gen. A. E. Burnside is re-elected Governor, but loses 1,197 of his last year's majority. Two Radicals are elected to Congress, but one of them loses 300. The Democrats gain one State Senator and several members of the House. It is a promising sign when Radicalism shows a downward tendency in so benighted a spot as "Sprague's farm."

Radical Republicanism!
The Philadelphia Quill, in speaking of the result in Connecticut, expresses deep "regret" over the defeat of Hawley—more especially because "he fought out the recent campaign upon the broadest principles of Radical Republicanism."

"Radical Republicanism" had a good deal to do with Hawley's defeat. Based upon meanness and malignant fanaticism as "Radical Republicanism" is, it is calculated to sink the strongest candidate. No heavier political mill-stone was ever tied to the neck of an office-seeker.
