WAR THREATENED IN EUROPE.

The news from Europe is of a very warlike character. The state of feeling in France and Prussia leads to the apprehension that peace cannot be much longer maintained between them, and quite a panic has been caused throughout Europe in consequence.

Count Bismark, of Prussia, is using all with a view to hurling it against France -whilst the latter is negotiating with which is a Radical gain of about 1,000; True, every word of it. With a gigantic war raging across the water, duty and interest should prompt this country to an immediate settlement of all national difficulties-to the encouragement of kindly feelings, with restored industry and progress, everywhere -so that we may escape with trifling damage from a calamity which must necessarily involve all Europe.
