THERE'S WORK EXOUGH TO DO.

The blackbird early leaves its nest, To meet the smiling morn.

And gathering fragments for its nest From upland, wood, and lawn; The busy bee that wings its way 'Mid sweets of varied hue, At every flower would seem to say-

"There's work enough to do."

The cowslip and the spreading vine. The snow-drop and the eglantine.

Preach sermons as we pass; The ant within its cavern deep, Would bid us labor too, And smiles upon its tiny heap "There's work enough to do.

To have a heart for those who weep, The sothish drunkard win; To rescue all the children, deep In ignorance and sin:

To help the poor, the hungry feed, To give him cost and shoe, To see that all can write and read. "There's work enough to do." The time is short—the world is wide

And much has to be done; This wond'rous earth, and all its pride, Will vanish with the sun! The moments fly on lightning wings, And life's uncertain too; We've none to waste on foolish things—

"There's work enough to do." The planets to their Maker's will, Move onward in their cars, For nature's wheel is never still— Progressive as the stars!

The leaves that flutter in the air. One solemn truth to man declare-Who then can sleep when all around Shall man-creation's lord be found Less busy than the bee?

Our courts and alleys are the field, If men would search them through, The best the sweets of labor yield, And "work enough to do."

Fgricultural & Pomestic.

Nothing improves the lawn, or the front yard to a house in the country, more than a judicious selection of ornamore than a judicious selection of orna-mental trees. They are not only an adornment, but a permanent improve-ment to the rural homestead. Even the cheap house, the plain cottage, rough unpainted and constructed without ar-chitectural taste, are improved by con-tiguity of shade trees. The landscape is ideal and nicturescue only by fruit and ideal and picturesque only by fruit and forest trees; and the chief charm to country houses, in our estimation, is the or-namental trees which stand grandly namental trees which stand grandly around them.

Evergreens, among other varieties, should not be overlooked; and as they thrive in nearly all descriptions of soils, are not liable to failure. Among these we would recommend the Norway Spruce; Austrian Pine, White Pine and Laubert Spruce. April 29, 1867.

Since the removal of Dr. Thomas H. Burroughs from the position of Superind tendent of Orphan Schools and the appointment of George F. M'Farland, several Radical newspapers—among them the Cameron organ of Harrisburg—have taken especial pleasure in traducing and misrepresenting the Doctor. This seems strange to uninitiated readers, taken in connection with the fact that whilst in office, those same newspapers were his connection with the fact that whilst in office, those same newspapers were his most strenuous supporters. To us, however, it does not appear strange at all. The Radical lenders in this state, fluding their power waning by the decrease of their party strength, resolved, some time ago, that a bold stroke should be made to keep up the supply of Radical voters. Two ways appeared open to them—one. Two ways appeared open to them—one, the enfranchisement of the colored males of the State; the other, the moulding of or the State; the other, the moulding of the soldiers' orphans into Radical voters through the political manipulations of intense Radicals at the head of the Or-phan Schools. The first was soon found to be impracticable, on account of popu-lar prejudices; the latter they had in their own hands energy, and they de-termined to make the most of the Sectermined to make the most of it. To carry out the design, Dr. Burroughs, who, we understand, does not sympathize with that or any other project designed to make political proselytes of the rising generation, had to be put out of the way. His removal, therefore, is evidently the direct result of his worth as an impartial educator, and of his determination to have nothing to do with introducing political dectrines, dogmas or prejudices into either the Common or the Sadders, Common Educate of the State. And here we would say that the striking out of that ar propriation is generally understood to have been at the instance understood to have been at the instance of Superindent Wickersham, of the Cothmon School Papartment, an individual raised and educated by Dr. Burroughs from the ordinary level of a common Yankee "schoolmaster," and fostered into a position for which his narrow views of education and his political projudices, it is said, entirely unfit him.

In saying this much of Dr. Burroughs we are entirely uninfluenced by personal considerations. He is unknown to us, except through his official acts. He might magnanimously, dely what we might magnanimously, deny what we have cald of Superintendent Wickersham, but his disclaimer would not convince us to the contrary.

The removal of Dr. Burroughs leaves the way clearforsubsidizing the Soldiers' Orphan schools to political purposes; and, unless we greatly mistake the temper of the present incumbent, (in the design of the Radical lenders we cannot be mistak-en,) they will be so prostituted. But there is also plunder in the matter. By the action of the late Legislature $55,950 were appropriated for the maintenance of such schools for the ensuing year—a sum lacking only $22,025 of the total isthirty minutes; if not, ask God to give his blessing, and—close.

Here we have an increase, in three years, of $389,528 of expenditures for educational purposes—viz: of $64,739 for 1865 over 1864: of 160,572 for 1866 over 1865; and of $164,217 for 1867 over 1866. Can anybody believe that an appropriation, greater in increase by $40,631 than the ENTIRE appropriation for 1864, is really required for 1807? No! We regard it as a plunder fund, and the figures justify the opinion.

Under this appropriation a separate department, with its expensive salaries, offices and machinery, is established, and provision made for the support of a dis-tinct class of schools and teachers. The department and its employees (all intense Radicals, of cour 2) are to have entire control of the children—mornly, religiously, physically and politically—to the entire exclusion of the claims of maternal or other consanguineous relationship. The result can easily be foreseen, with Be You are a coward if afraid to tell mere politicians from the head of the de-he truth when you should do so. You partment down to its lowest extremity. Finitede.-The Rev. Thos. Eddy, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, publishes an article several columns in length in which he makes some umns in length in which he makes some startling developments in regard to the rapidly extending crime of footicide, or murder of unborn children—otherwise abortion. That this terrible crime is rapidly increasing, and that many professed christians are guilty of it, Dr. Eddy says cannot admit of a doubt. In this connection, he exonerates the Cath-olics from the practice, the "terrors of the confessional" preventing women of that faith from descroying their incipient offspring. The subject is a ratner delicate one for a religious faully journal, but the Rev. Doctor undertakes the task, whe says, from a sense of duty. He quotes efficial documents to show that the reason why so few children are born to native parents, compared with foreign, in Massachusetts, is that the former destroy their empring before birth. This is certainly a terrible state of things, if true; and it is evident Dr. Eddy does not speak at random.
