SCHENCK'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Schenck, in behalf of his party announces that "the present (Republican party) campaign is but a continuation of the war." This is the declaration of the party that declares it wants peace and union. The surrender and dispersion of the Confederate army; the treaty between Lee and Grant: the proclamation of peace by the President; the perfect submission of the South to the general government, and obedience occasion. That it will become a crack to its Constitution and laws, are all ignoted by Mr. Schenek and his politic associates, and the continuation of the war proclaimed. This is the theory of the party generally, and hence the "conquered territory" is not to enjoy peace as long as Radicalism can gain by actual or quasi war. To be sure, there is no re sistance; the Radical war is one entirely of aggression; yet we are told it is to be prosecuted at the pleasure of the dominant party in Congress just so long as that party may consider it for its inter est to continue the work of tumult and national disintegration. Thus the people are to be taxed to continue a war for party ends-to gratify personal vanity, power and pecuniary advantage; the business of the country is to be sacrificed. its political interests ignored, and doubt and confusion allowed to distract it to continue a war for the personal advantage of Schenck, Stevens, Boutwell, Sumner, Butler & Co. How long will the American people endure the control of such unscrupulous statesmen? On Saturday night week, a most destructive fire occurred in Buchanau Valley, his county, involving the entire loss of Miltenberger & Brady's Steam Saw Mill, with probably a thousand dollars' worth of manufactured lumber and logs. The fire is supposed to have been the work of some devilish incendiary. The total loss, we are told, is between four and five thousand dollars, on which there was unfortunately no insurance.

Messrs. Miltenberger & Brady are enerprising, industrious young men, to hom this loss is very serious. By close application and hard work, they were s to be hoped that they will soon beable to rebuild. They furnished work to quite number of hands about the mill, with a large amount of hauling to the farmers in the neighborhood. Viewed in all aspects, the destruction of this property is one which is deeply regreted.

We have since been told that on the night of the fire, nearly all the spring houses in the Valley were entered, and their most valuable contents carried off. Truly, it was an unfortunate night for that region.

Mr. Shorb is generally sympathized with in this severe loss.

Another .- On the same night, the barn of Peter Myers, in the neighborhood of Hampton, this county, was also struck and consumed, with all his hav and grain. We have not learned the extent of the loss, nor whether insured.

Court is still in session as we go to press. Josiah H. Ryland has been convicted of stealing Dr. Gochenour's horse and Dr. l'effer's saddle and bridle, and sentenced to the penitentiary for three years. Isaac Kane found guilty of stealing Jacob R. Witmor's horse. Motion for a new trial. Joseph Snow convicted of disfiguring a horse belonging to Elizabeth Shunk, and sent to the House of Refuge. Thompson convicted of attempt to commit a rape on Miss Pitzer, and sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.. Full proceedings next week. Advertising .- The business character of a town is indicated in its newspapers. Show us a newspaper with plenty of home advertisements, and we will show you an enterprising people. Gettysburg is doing tolerably well in this line, but to wipe out the "one-horse" impression which some outsiders have, our bu men must all show their go-ahead-ativeness by their cards in the papers. It will pay them as a business transaction, and show well for the town. So mote it be. The Zouaves .- We neglected to men-

The uniform consists of a dark blue jacket, faced and trimmed with red, and wide red pants, trimmed with blue; red cap. with blue band: linen leggings complet ing the dress. Altogether, it is a splen-did Zouave make-up. The company marched and drilled excellently on the affair nobody doubts.
