NATIONAL THANKAGIVING.

President Johnson has issued a proclamation recommending Thursday, the 28th day of November inst., as a day of "national thanksgiving and praise to the Almighty Ruler of Nations." The people of the United States have abun. popular names, were added to the lists, dant reasons for thankfulness to the "giver of every good and perfect gift" their clothes changed to be voted twice down upon them. Let all join in praise and thanksgiving.

The following is the President's proclamation:

THE BURDEN OF TAXATION.

That the enormous taxation under which the people groan had much to do of all parties begin to see that very clearwith the results of the recent elections, ly. is not doubted by reflecting men. Even fuir-minded Republicans admit it. In a recent number of the New York Times, Republican, appeared an able article, reviewing the political situation, and pointing out some of the causes which press heavily upon business at sent time, and will continue to do the preso until removed by wise and prudent legislation. The Times says : legislation. The Times says: The taration of the country is begin-ing to be a subject of the gravest impor-taure, and of the deepest interest to all classes of the people. It comes home to everyhody's hearth-stone. It effects more directly and more seriously the dai-by conflort of every man, woman and child in the land, than all other politi-cal questions put together. Taxation now falls with heavier weight upon us than-upon any other people on the world. now falls with heavier weight upon us than-upon any other people in the world. And another necessity quice as imper-alive upon the party in possession of power, is a more equitable distribution of taxation among the industries that are
