IMPEACHMENT.

The Trial Course The trial of the President, at the in stance of the Radicals of the House, was commenced in the Senate on Monday. The case was opened on the part of the House managers by Mr. B. F. Butler, who read a prosy address, which occupled three hours in its delivery, review ing the constitutional provisions which alleged to make it the duty of the House to imprach and the Senate to try a President charged with high crime and misdemeanors, reciting English and American precedents in cases of impeachment, and considering the matters of fact and law which would be developed in supporting the statements of each of the impeachment articles. A very wide range of inquiry will be opened, both as to the facts and the law of the case, if the points raised by Mr. Butler in his opening speech are to be fully and fairly considered and discussed. Mr. Wilson, of the impeachment managers, commenced the introduction of documentary evidence—the President's official oath-the nomination of Stanton as Secretary of War by Mr. Lincoln -the confirmation by the Serats-with a copy of the President's message to the Senate, Dec. 14, 1867, giving his reasons for suspending Stanton. These documents are familiar to the public, but Mr. Stanbery desired to have them read. which was accordingly done. Thus the forms at least are complied with, and unless the President is to be deprived of the common privileges of defence accorded to the humblest criminal, it is difficult to see how there can be that swift solution which is demanded by the more hot headed partisons of impeachment.

menced by the impeachers calling wit-Mr. Burt Van Horn, member of Congress from New York, was put on the stand to detail the incidents of the interview between Gen. Thomas and Mr. Stanton, when the former demunpossession of the War Office. Mr Van Horn was subjected to a searching gross examination by Mr. Stanbery which caused him to stammer and hesitate before answering. During this exaugination it came out that Mr. Van libra and other Radical members of Congress were at the War Office for the express purpose of spying on fien. Mr. Burliegh, a delegate in the House from Dakotah Territory, was next called, and was proceeding to state a conversation which occurred between him and Gen, Thomas on Friday night, Feb. 21, 1868, relative to the latter's intention to take possession of the War Office the next morning, when Mr. Stanbery objected to the reception of the testimony on the ground that it was irrelevant.

. The Chief Justice decided that the objection was not well taken and the evidence was admissible.

Mr. Prake immediately rose in the most excited, manner and insultingly shouted out that the Chief Justice had no right to make any decision whatever on any question. So violent did he be come that he was called to order by other Senators and rapped to order by the Chief Justice several times before he would take his reat.

After an argument from Mesers, Bingham, Butler and Boutwell against the right of the Chief Justice to rule on any question, the Senate, on motion of Mr. Wilson, settred for consultation, the motion being carried by the castles vote of the Chief Justice. It was three o'clock

The decision is taken as a bad sign by the more savage of the Radicals. - The proceedings on Wadnesday exhibited no special point of interest, exceps an abortive attempt of Mr. Sumner to recover from the discomfiture which the impeachers had suffered in the vote of the court in secret session, sustaining by a vote of thirty to nineteen that a right to deelds, in the first instance, questions of haw and evidence. With this view to recover from the discomfiture which of law and evidence. With this view Mr. Summer submitted an order that in giving the casting vote on Monday upon the motion to go into secret consultation upon the appeal taken by Mr. Drake against the roling above-mentioned the Chief Justice had done that for which there was no constitutional warrant .-The order was rejected by a vote of yeas 21, nays 27. This is the second failure of those extremists whose programme is to make the Chief Justice a mere ornamental figure in the court of impeachment. The case of the impeachers is growing Weaker as the trial progressee.

NARY SPEECH.—We picked up the Gettysburg Compiler yesterday to giance over its ever well-filted columns and uright pages. A paragraph stated that on the eabslide would be found the speech of Hos. A. THE impeachment of the President be ing a thing wholly new in our history. it is not surprising that some people mi anurchend what has been done. The House has impeached the President; but this is of no force in itself. The impeachment must be tried by the Senate, the Chief Justice presiding, and if two thirds of the Senate shall find the President guilty as charged, he will be removed from office.

We have yet to learn, however, of the first failure of Wodar's Balsam of Wild therry, to cure coughs, colds, and pulmonary disease.

AN ACT OF CRUELTY. Mr. Bonner, of the New York Ledger

s certainly excusable for turning an onest penny by setting Mr. Grant, the father of the General of that name, at work, to puff into eminence his son. But Bonner has much to answer for, in beguiling from a respectable obscurity been established between York Springs and Wenk's, in Menallen township, via Idaville. The establishment of a post office at Wenk's would accommodate a great man out of a very ordinary looy defective mail facilities, and we hope it will be done.

Lectures.—Prof. Kidd's elecutionary entertainment, in Agricultural Hall, on Tuesday evening, was one of the treats of the course. A master of the art of speaking, he gave us almost every conceivable style—and all with a naturalness that took the house by storm.

Rev. Dr. Talmage will deliver the last ing enough to support himself and family at least comfortable circumstance. Why, then, did he not, out of that abundance, give to the great and brilliant Ulysses the small sum of three brundred dollars, to enable him to purchase an outfit, when he was offered the commission of a lieutenant-colonel? Why was it that it was left to a former partner of years of scientific research and experiment. For the elder Grant, D. A. Collins, Esq., to furnish the means for procuring that outfit, after the positive refusal of the father and brother to advance him a dollar for that purpose? We would respectfully suggest that the least said on subject like this by the relatives of General Grant, with a view to improve his chances for the Presidency, will be the most easily mended. A judicious "reticence" is a very good thing in its pince. - Cleveland Plaindealer.

DISTRESSING ACCIDENT-ELEVEN MEN KILLED.-Scranton, Pa., March 31.-By the breaking of a chain connected with the hoisting machinery at the Diamond coal mines in this city, this morning, a platform containing seventeen men was precipitated to the bottom of the shaft, April, was a busy day here. A large 185 feet. Eleven men were instantly quarters—whilst many thousands in it is thought, cannot live. They leave 'greenbacks' changed pockets. eleven widows and twenty-eight orphans. This is the most disastrous accident that everybody was accommodated; and has occurred in the Lackawana Valley

PROVIDENCE, March 25, 1868.

Last night four men bired a carriage in this city, drove to North Scittate, ten miles distant, went to the house of Albert Hubbard, cashier of the Scituate. National Hank, entered the bed chamber, and after binding and gagging the cashier and his wife took the keys of the bank and went away. It appears, hower, that they were unable to open the bank and went away. It appears, hower, that they were unable to open the bank and went away. It appears, hower, that they were unable to open the bank and compelled him to open the vault, which they robbed of about $25,000 in bills and bonds, besides valuable papers desposited with the bank. The robbers then returned to Providence and soon disappeared, taking the train for Boston about half-past four o'clook A. M.

NEW TEXAS, Allegheny county, became Democratic, list week, for the dirst time, by majorities ranging from terr to fifty.

LATROBE, Westmoreland county, went, Democratic on the 20th uit., for the first time in many years.

GLORIOUS.—The Democratic victories in different parts of Pennsylvania. The impeachers¹³ are being impeached by the people.

The Harrisburg Patrot and Union says, good old Jacob Ziegler, now in his ninety seventh year, walked to the Second ward polls on Friday and voted the ward polls on Friday and voted the polls on Friday and voted the gentleman who suffered now ward polls on Friday and voted the polls of Friday and voted the The Next Wheat Crop.—From present indications, the next wheat crop will be a good one in this county. Farmers in different sections agree in stating that it stood the winter very well; that the large amount of snow which fell and remained for a long time on the ground protected the young plants, and prevented them from freezing out. The wheat crop in Adams county has become a big thing, and its promising appearance now will be accepted as real good news by the community generally.

seventh year, walked to the Second ward polis on Friday and voted the straight Democratic ticket Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, Mr. Ziegler refused a carriage, but preferred walking and appeared remarkably active for a man of his years.
