PREMIUMS: PREMIUMS: Let-it be borne in mind that any one of our present subscribers sending in the names of four new subscribers, with the cash in advance ($8 for the four,) will receive a credit of our year's subscription on his own account-in other words, for each new subscriber sent in, accomprovided by the cash, a PREMIUM OF FIFT'S CENTS is allowed as a credit on present subscriptions. A number of subscribers have already paid themselves ahead in this way, and many others and his stock of Segars among the most sh could do the same with very little effort. Remember, that the most important Presidential contest in our history is approaching, and that a proper enlightenment of the masses as to Badical negroism, corruption and tyranny, will surely defeat that party at the polls. The Democratic newspapers will do this, if properly circulated. The Compiler, always in the front line of duty; will be found as carnest and faithful as ever. A Choice Library of Music.—THE UNITED STATES MUSICAL REVIEW, published by J. L. Peters, 200 Broadway, New York, is before us, and merits the attention of all lovers of music. It is a mammoth monthly magazine, sheet-music size, containing over seventeen pages of musical news, recieve, and choice art items, every line of which is readable, and we should say, invaluable to all masicians. This 'alone is well worth year's subscription, which is only $2. The publishers, however, do not stop here, for, in addition to the above, each number contains four pieces of choice new music by the best writers in America thus giving a select library of new music at such a low rate that even the poorest may indulge in what has hitherto been considered a luxury.
The music in the REVIEW is of the best, the following select list will testify, all of which has appeared within its pa ges during the last six months: "Nora O'Neal," "Katy McFerran," "You've been a friend to me," and "Kiss me good-flye, darling," all by Will. S. Hays; "Good-bye, but come again," and "Do you think the moon could have seen us?" by J. R. Thomes; "Ally Ray," and "Little Brown Church," by William S. Pitts; "Maribell," by Danks; "Let the dead and the beautiful rest," "Break, O Sea," etc.

Also Kinkel's "Heavenly Thoughts" and "Maiden's Blush Schottische," Mack's "Damask Rose" and "White Rose March," and several other choice pieces, amounting in all to $2 at retail

The U. S. MUSICAL REVIEW Is published at $2 per year; single copies, 25 cents. No musical family should be without it.

Spade and Shade Trees .- As it is now near the season for ordering trees and shrubbery, we would once more call the attention of our readers to the subject, in the hope that all will give more attention to it than has been given heretofore, and set out some trees. If you do not got them at a nursery, go in the spring to the woods and procure some fine varie-ties and put them out in front of your dwellings, or alongside of the street in front of your places. Get good currant, raspberry and blackberry slips, take pains in setting them out, and in take pains in setting them out, and in a lew years they will repay you ten times for your trouble. If you can't get them from dealers, get them of your neighbors, plant them and have them growing.—
Trees or shrubs need but little care, and are not only an ornament to a place, but are yearly returning a large income for the amount invested.
