THE IMPERCULARY THIRL

The impeachment trial was resumed yesterday week, Mr. Curtis opened with an elaborate argument in favor of tions of the impeachers. His speech eccupled Thursday's and a part of Friday's | Your county. ions. Adjutant General Thomas was then called to the witness stand, and he detailed the conversations between the åd interim appointment. He testifled that the President did not advise him to take possession of the office by force-but that it was the President's préme Court. It will be remembered that Gen. Thomas was arrested by order of Stanton After giving ball for his appearance Thomas again, called at the War Office and this is what transpired, as detailed by Thomas: Witness—Mr. Stanton turned to me, and got talking in a very familiar manner with me; I said, "The next time you have ne arrested please don't do it before I get something to eat." [Laughter.] I have had nothing to eat or drink to-day. [Continued laughter.] He put his arm around my neck, as he used to do, in a familiar manner, and ran his hand through my hair, and turned around to General Schriver and said: "Schriver, have you got a bottle here? Bring it out." [Roars of laughter.] Schriver unlocked his deak and took out a small vial; the Secretary then proposed we should have a spoonful of whisky; I said I would like a little; General Schriver poured it out into a tumbler and divided it equally. He took the glass up this way (indicating) and measured them with his eye; presently a Witness-Mr. Stanton turned to me glass up this way (indicating) and measured them with his eye; presently a messenger came in with a full bottle of whisky, and the cork was drawn and he and I took a drink together.

people whom they will affect, can tell better than I. They were all introby a vote of the Senate.

On Monday morning, a debate sprung up on the question to allow all the managers to speak, Stevens and Logan wanting a chance to vent their spite against the President before the Court. After a warm debate, it was tabled, by a vote of 38 to 10, much to the disappiontment of the impeachers. Gen. Sherman continued opposition of the managers, a portion of the conversation between the President and himself in regard to the removal of Stanton was admitted, either through the changed form in The Democrats of Jersey City, N. J., or because the Senate had come to see the inequitable character of its rulings on Saturday, and feared an unfavorable impression on the public mind in conse quence. The General (by a vote of 26 to 25) was allowed to proceed—and he testi-

This medicine has been before the public for many years. It has withstood all tests to which patent medicines are exposed, and instead of being driven out of the market as most of them are, it has continued to gain favor with the people, until it has become the most popular medicine in the country. Our observations as to the merits of this Bitters, warrant us in recommending it to all. It will strengthen and invigorate the whole system, giving tone and healthy action to all its parts.
