PRIDAY, MAY 20, 1868. MORE BRIDGEY.

A little matter has leaked out in Chicago that will give some idea of Radical faction and mora ity. The Chicago correspondent of the Chicanati Commercial vouches for the truthfulness of the report that the Mississippi delegates have sold out to the New Yorkers for twenty-five thous-and delians, provided they can get into the Convention. He thus reports the transmiller.

the Convention. He thus reports the transaction:

New York is in earnest for Fenton, and there is a well authenticated report that there have been in his behalf offers of from twenty to twenty five thousand dollars for the vote of each of the seven delegations from the Southern States if admitted to the Convention. It is said that the Mississippi delegation offered itself for sais, with the excuse of being poor, and that New York closed the contract for the lot at twenty-five thousand dollars.

Two hundred thousand dollars to se-Two hundred thousand dollars to secure the nomination of the Vice-Presidency seems to be a large investment, but the "whisky rings" that control this Radical Congress would not feel this sum, in fact it would be only a drop in the bucket of their immense stealings, if they can seconaplish their ends. And perhaps they are calculating that the second man on the telekt, if the Radicals should carry tha Presidential election, may succeed to the Presidency at an early day. Money is power, and the Radicals are using it to perpetuate their party rule. They hope to triumph through their bribery, corruption and fraud in the future as they have in the past.—Indianapolis Sentinet.

"RECONSTRUCTION" IN VIRGINIA. The Lynchburg (Vs.) Republican, of the 12th inst., says: On Friday night last, Mr. Francis Henry Brockenbrough, son of the Hon John W. Brockenbrough, and brother of our highly esteemed townsman, Major J. B. Brockenbrough, was walking home, in Lexington, with his mother and another lady, when they were methy a negro man and some negro women, who refused to give them any way on the pavement. Young Brockenbrough, on account of the ladies under his charge, did not call the negro to account at the time; but after he had exerted his companions home, he returncount at the time; but after he had escorted his companions home, he returned and called on the negro, more to demand why the insult had been offered him and the ladies, than with any definite purpose of punishment. The black scoundrel, however, drew a pistolat once, shot Mr. Brockenbrough in the breast, inflicting a dangerous if not a fatal would. The negro was arrested at 2 o'clock next morning and placed in jail. When the circumstances of the outrage became generally known, there was an Intense excitement in the community, in which young Brockenbrough is much beloved, and a rowd started for the jail with the purpose of lynching the negro. General Lee, however, very properly interposed, and prevented the execution of this purpose. The excited crowd dispersed, and the law will be suffered to take its course.

take its course. A Speech Made by Dirty John Logan. John A. Logan made the following little speech to the Illinois delegation: (JENTLEMEN: I went to know what is to be done with these damned traitors who have gone back on us in the Senate. I would not care so much about their votes if they had voted from honest conviction, but I happen to know they did

Now I tell you one thing, no party can exist and allow traitors in their ranks. What are you going to do with Trumbull, Fessenden, Ross, and that like, and so with those papers of yours in your city that published Grimes' speech, and Trumbull's speech, and by U——d wouldn't publish, one of our speeches?

I tell you that if you tolerate things like this you won't have any party but a danned short time.

dammed short time.

Now, I am in favor of reading every one of these seven traitors who voted against impeachment out of the party, and if you don't do it soon you won't get a chance, tor I predict that in a month's time they will have joined the Democratic party of their own accord.

SENATOR WADE.—The New York Post, Radical as it is, cannot swallow Wade's voting for himself in the impeachment case. It says:
"The only diagraceful vote cast on Saturday was that of Mr. Wade, who, with a reckless abandonment of decency and propriety, voted for conviction, and with a reckless abandonment of decency and propriety, voted for conviction, and for his own elevation to the Presidency, when it was believed by himself and the other supporters of impeachment that conviction would be obtained by only a single vote. We shall be surprised if Mr. Wado's course in this matter does not drive him out of public life; it has certainly lost him the respect and confidence of all impartial minds."

THE bloodshed which it is said Grant predicted would follow the acquittal of the President, has turned out to be nothbut the tear-shed office seekers.—Patriot & Union.

An exchange says there were seven impeachment managers and there are seven recussint Radical Senators, which it accounts for by anyling that each manager disgusted one decent Senator. THE Radical manager of elections at Rome, Georgia, stands indicted for hog
