NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The New York World, in an article headed "Republican and Democratic Presidential-Talk," says that there have been no recent "startling developments" in the canvass-that the Radicals are tugging away to arouse some enthusiasm for Grant-and that they find the task up-hill work. The rank and file decline to be stirred, and the leaders even begin to hesitate. They have in some way, continues the World, ascertained that the reticence of Grant is not exertions of his Chief of Staff, General

But mark to the cause of the delay in the payment of soldiers' bounties. The committee rethe city are making arrangements to ported that it was "on account of a lack. of clerical force in the Pay Department." So Grant's retrenchment was only a temporary suspension of payment of soldiers' bounties. Why did not the financial britliante (?) withhold his own pay for a few months, and call that "retrenchment?" He could have endured the delay much better than the private soldiers, and the widows and orphans of their fallen comrades. His $20,000 a year is more than sufficient to keep him, then why not have waited until the soldiers were paid? very pertinently inquires the Reading Ga-

> Delicacies.-One of the special delica-Detection.—One of the special delica-cies of modern times may be accounted Speer's Port Grape Wine, which com-bines with rare purity and nicety of flavor the good qualities of port and claret; it is neither insipid nor bitter, but hits the happy medium most to be desired in a constant beverage or in a drink for the sick. For invalids it is invaluable by virtue of its tonic qualities, and particularly its absolute freedom from all adulterations. Actual trial will show that Speer's port grape wine has show that Speer's port grape wine has excellence of its own unrivalled by any other wine in the market.—New Yorker. III. According to the act of 1839, any naturalized citizen whose vote is challenged must produce his naturalization certificate, unless he has voted for ten years in that election district. All naturalized citizens if they have not becuvoters in their district for ten years, would save themselves much inconwould save themselves much incon-venience by taking their certificate to the election with them. If lost it would be well to procure copies from the court by which they were granted.

Under the partisan Registry bill just passed by the Rads and signed by Geary, to secure the disfranchisment of the poor naturalized foreigners and working classes, the election expenses of the State will be at least tripled—three times as great as under the old law. And for what? Simply to ensele the mongreis to keep poor white men away from the polls by putting them to unnecessary trouble, vexation and loss of time and money. money.

COLFAX was first elected to Congress by the Know-Nothings. From the character of his supporters South, it seems likely that he will now get most of his votes from those who know nothing.
