GETTYSBURG SPRING, June 23, 1868. MR. EDITOR:-By a recent decision of the Gettysburg Spring Company, no more Demijohns or Jugs will be fillno more Demijohns or Jugs will be fill-cd with the Gettysburg Water for trans-portation to any outside market, and have just received from the city a large as-formation to any outside more sentily occupied by Soper & McCarney. Though Demijohns and Jugs, not conportation to any outside market. Though Demijohns and Jugs, not containing more than 3 gallons, will be fill- BOOTS & SHOES, ed to supply the people of Gettysburg for Gentlemen's, Ladies' and Childrens Wear, and immediate vicinity, as usual.

But any abuse of Chis privilege, by BALMORAL GATTERS, sending away the water thus supplied, will forfeit the party's right so concerned, and subject them to legal responsi-bility in addition. This action on the part of the Company has become necesary to the protection of the trade and the protection of its own trade marks, so essential to commercial success, as well as for the invalid public. Such has become the demand for this water in all parts of the country, that any trick, however unfair, is resorted to procure it at a reduction of current rates by persons in no way entitled to special favors and the generous and humane in the vicinity of the Spring are made the unconscious instruments of this species of smuggling.

To accommodate all classes of consu mers of this water, the Company has decided to place in the market one as well as two dozen cases of quart bottles, at a corresponding reduction of rates. Yours respectfully,

G. D. Shith, Supt. O. K. Spring Co.

A LETTLE DIALOGUE.-Gen. Grant's supporters are fond of quoting certain of his sayings; such as "unconditional surreider," "niova on Jour works," "light it out on this line all summer," etc., and of applying them to the present political campaign. Well, now, let us make the application to the first battle of the canvass, and put it in the form of a dialogue :

Grant to the Democracy of Oregon: "Unconditional surrender, or I will move on your works" Democracy of Oregon to Grant:
"Move and be hanged to you."

General Grant "moved" on the Democratle works, and the Democratic works moved on him, and the first shock sent him reeling and sprawling and powerless to the earth. And he can fight it out on that line all summer-if he likes that line. THE President has mominated Mr. Evants as Attorney General, in place of Mr. Stanbery, whom the Senate meanly refused to confirm.

DELEGATES to the Denjocratic Nationul Convention are already arriving in New York.
