GERMAN BITTERS. Hoofland's German Tonic. THE GREAT REMEDIES

BY H. J. STAHLE.

FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGES-TIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are nearlessly termed, Entracky of Roots, Herbs, and larks, making a preparation, lighly concentra-ed, and entirely free from alcoholic admixtures of use trad.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Amata Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleas-sait and agreeable remedies ever offered to the

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcohol-admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use Hoofland's German Tonic. They are both equally good, and contain the same medical virtues, the choice between the two being a more matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsis, Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as It does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:
