HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, Hoofland's German Tonic. THE GREAT REMEDIES

FOR ALL DIREASPROF THE LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGES-TIVE ORGANS. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medically termed, Estructs) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentra-ed, and entirely free from alterholic adjustances of HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC combination of all the ingredients of the s, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz prange, &c., making one of the most pleas-ad agreeable remedies ever offered to the public,

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcohol-ic admixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters. Those who have no objection to the combina ion of the Bitters, as stated, will use Hoofland's German Tonic. They are both equally good, and contain the same medical virtues, the choice between the two beings a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable. The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigorition, by spepela, Nervous Isbility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient saffers from several or more of the following diseases:

the patient suffers from sectral or more of the fributing diseason;

The forces of nature take his part and act with him.—Promptness is not rashness. It never acts blindly. It does not waste its strength in random blows. It strikes at the right moment, and in the right place. It is a wide awake faculty. It sees clearly, and acts a wise decision. -It does not put off till to-morrow what ought to be done to-day.

How HE : FELT .- Job Norton, who lately lost his wife, was not a man of very deep emotions, and what he did feel and think he kept pretty much to himself. Some of his neighbors had remarked that he took his bereavement quite coolly, and one even ventured to say to him. one day, that he took his affliction little wardly I'm just as mad as any of ye!"

A QUAKERESS at Bloomington, Indimovements, and one morning actually discovered the truant kissing and hugging his servant girl. Broadrim was not long in discovering the face of his wife, as she peoped through the half opened door, and rising with all the coolness of general officer, thus addressed her: "Betsy, thee had better quit peeping, or thee will cause a distarbance in the fam-115'."

AN OLD MAN'S ADVICE.

Some disappointed old man, in the following advice, seeks to make men young suspicious of the girls:

"Young men, keep your eyes open when you are after the women. If you bite at the naked hook, you are green. Is a pretty dress or form so attractive? of creety face even? Flounces, boys, are place of the lovely goddess who smiles

Mr. Colfax would be glad to have the public forget at this time, just as Radically that beautiful passage of Scripture: "A faint heart never won fair lade,"
"Are you near-sighted, Miss?" said impudent fellow to a young lady who did not choose to notice him. "Yes, at this distance I can hardly tell whether you are a pig of a puppy."

If you are selzed with a fit of despondency of the modern trains, but set them at work thinking, how many others are worked them yourself.

The medical papers are writing against the modern fashlon bringth-heed boots. They say it causes corns, cramp, lameness, at an early age, and it lessens the size of the calf and makes the leg lose its symmetry.
