ARMY EXPENDITURES.

Greeley says: The Army expenditures, which were over Fifty millions last year, will this year fall below Forty millions. The Treasury Department estimates the cost of the Army this year at one hundred and thirty millions, and there is no reason why it will not go up to that. The Army expenses for september, independent of pensions, were $9.671,375.03. Here in one month in the long run.

The choice before the people, in the Presidential canvass, is a very plain one. The Democratic party is the party of free government-the government of the Constitution and the laws
