HOOFLAND'S GERMAN_BITTERS. Hoofland's German Tonic

THE GREAT REMEDIES

THE LIVER, STOMACH, OR DI-GESTIVE ORGANS. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they re medically termed, Litracis; of Roots, forts, and Earks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcodic admixtness of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC s a combination of all the ingredients of Bitters, with the purest quality of Burid ne Bitters, with the purest quality of sonders Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the sost pleasant and agreeable remedies ever level to the public.
Those preforing a Medicine free from Alcoic adhmixture, will use

Hoofland's German Bitters. Those who have no objection to the com-ation of the Bitters, as states, will use Hoofland's German Tonic.

HOODANDS WETHIND TOMES

They are both equally good, and contain the same medical virtues, the choice between the two being u mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most paintable.

The atomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc., is very rapt to lave its functions dierranged. The List, they have the function after the transport of the following affected, the resistant of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

DEFINESSION OF STRITS.

The sufferer from these discusses hould exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for ince, purchasing only that which he is asked from his investigations and inquiries measures truemerit, is skillfully compouned, is free from injurious ingredision for the cure of these discusses. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND . HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. HOOFILAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefied suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies whom to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhea, Disease of the Kidneys, and all blesaes arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY, tesulting from any Cause whatever; PROS-TRATION OF THESTYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Expo-sures, Fevers, &c.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE, and feeling the hand of time weighing heavi-y upon them, with all its attendant lits, will find in the use of this HITTELES, or the CONIC, an ellxir that will instil kew life into he veins, restore in a measure the energy and order of more youthful days, build up their brunken forms, and give health and happi-less to their remaining years.

It is a well-established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good feath; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devold of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite. To this class of persons the BITTERS or the TOMIC, is especially recommended. WEAK & DELICATE CHILDREN Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.
Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietors, but space will allow of the publication of but few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such sinnding that they must be believed.

Dr. Jackson-Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of pudicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate aphere. I have in all cuess declined; but with a cle.r proof of various instances and past of Dr. Hoofand's German Bitters, I depart for one from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, yor general deciding of the systems, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a sign and expectation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, is will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully.
