

The Gettysburg Compiler.

GEN. GRANT'S FORTUNE. The Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat says: "Gen. Grant is rich already, and by cautious investments he is destined to be very rich one day, ranking with the most opulent. He owns thirty-eight acres of land within the corporate limits of Washington, worth $2,000,000 and a farm near St. Louis and houses in Kansas and in Philadelphia should add $1,000,000 to the former items. Three hundred thousand dollars will probably not be in excess for the President elect's possessions."
