law and common fairness? There can be but one answer to this queston. The friends of Grant in the Senate were afraid to commit an inquiry into the alleged abuses of his Administration to an impartial and fearless Committee of Republicans.

Senators Conkling, Nye, Morton, and others, give another reason of their sight, and we feel that the country alike is disgraced with the party, and the cause of the stain ought not to be allowed to exist longer than the 4th of March 1873, unless Providence, having pity for our people, interferes Administration, and hostile to his renomination. Take these champions of Grant at their word? Do they imagine that on the plain issue of an honest, searching inquiry into the abuses of the Administration, in pointing out the families that have the small pox, in that city, mentions the following circumstances:

Two in the Bantleon family, on west its head can survive the attacks of these eminent Republican leaders? Do they not remember that it was precisely in this way that the renomination of Pierce was prevented, and the Administration of Buchanan overthrown, and the Democratic party hopelessly prostrated? Do they forget that it was distinguished Democrats in the redical ranks.
