The Engineer corps engaged in lo-cating the Lewisburg, Centre & Ty-rene RR, says the Tyrene Herald, completed their labors on Monday last, and departed. It is stated that the present line is the best yet run, and A WALTER, that it will be adopted. The survey connects the L. C. & Tyrone R. R. connects the L. C. & Tyrone R. R, with the main line of the Penn. Cental, a short distance below Tyrone.

When the estimates are completed, apartial account of T. M. Hall, assigned of Jacob Shope, has been filed in the country. dently predicted that work will be begun next month. All conflicting interests seem to have been harmonized, and that was all that was required to ensure the building of the road. It is letturgs will be made, and it is confiensure 'he building of the road. It is probable there will be a change in the management of the L. C. & T. R. R., which will be a vast improvement over

Business .- Several men with a wagon, buying poultry, recently came to the premises of Wm. Grove, jr., farm r, near Bellefonte, and stopped with their wagon near the barn, when one one of the party went into the house to bargain for turkeys, and while thus engaged, those in the barnyard, cabbage. I some of the feathery tribe and poked them into the wagon.

An old subscriber of the Reporter, James Love, of Ohio, must be a jolly old fellow. He addresses us as "Col." which is a little more military than sticks in our bones, and then writes enclosing a money order, "I don't risk money in a letter, as our post-office money in a letter, as our post-office.

Ballou's Magazine for April contains historical tales, sea yarns, wonderful adventures, the best poetry, thrilling romances, and some superb illustrations, and yet is sold for the low price of 15 cents percepty, or $1,50 per year; cheap, but good. Try a number and see. Address Thomas & Talbot, 63 Congress Street, Boston, if the Magazine cannot be obtained at the nearest periodical depot.

"Godey," for April, is an excellent number, and cellipses any other ladies magazine published—in fact this is always true of the "Book," for we have notyet seen its superior, and we know something about the different fashion magazines.
