HORERIE.—A letter received here by Heary Witner, from D. Witner, Juda, Green country, Wis, dated Aug., dated Aug., dated here seemed about 3 miles from our place. A young man was running a reaper, got off to-oil it, when the horses start, dand the large whele went over his breast. He jumped up and ran to catch the team, and approaching the horses on one side, was in the act of taking hold of them, when they started an ewe, he was struck by the real, and the learn, and approaching the horses on one side, was in the act of taking hold of them, when they started and went of the sicking, and the right arm partly cut off. From the target all was cut away to the entrains/parts of the first here held. The reaper, it appears to the size of the size
