JAIL BREAKERS.—Says the Lewistown Gazette: James B. Alexander, of Milroy, in this county, who had been convicted of burglary in Adams county and sentenced to four years term in the penitentiary, broke jail at Millintown, on Monday last, and, we believe, has not been heard from since.

Wm. Martin, who was sentenced to the penitentiary by the last court, for an assault upon a young girl, managed to escape on the night of the 19th, and after remaining a night or two, and buying himself a cigar or two, astonished the jailer's family by returning quietly to his quarters.

Sabbath Schools in the Ridges.

Four of the new Union Bible schools which have been organized the present season in Centre county, are located in "The Ridges," stretching across the western part of the county. The one at Sandy Ridge, is the youngest being in operation only about two months.

The Fairview Ridge school has enjoyed its first term in its history, enjoying a regular attendance of about 250.

The school at Black Bear, four miles east of Phillipsburg, has been a means of much good to that community. The Bible school is the only religious meeting they have.

CHANGE IN THE MANNER OF VOTING.

As act regulating the mode of voting at all elections in the several counties of this Commonwealth, approved March 31, 1870.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified by law to vote at any election by the people in any State, Territory, or District, or in any parish, township, school district, municipal corporation, or other territorial subdivision, shall be entitled to vote at such election without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 12. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 13. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 14. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sec. 15. And be it further enacted, that if under the authority of the Constitution or laws of any State or of any Territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite or qualification for voting, and by such Constitution or law persons or officers are or shall be required to perform such prerequisite or qualification, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give to all citizens of the United States, who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote, such prerequisite and qualification, without distinction of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.
