Anticipation.

When failing health, or cross event, Or dull monotony of days, Has brought me into discontent, That darkens round me like a haze, I find it wholesome to recall Those chiefest goods my life has known, Those whitest days, that brightened all The checkered seasons that are flown.

No year has passed but gave me some ; O unborn years, nor one of you-So from the past I learn-shall come Without such precious tribute due. I can be patient, since amid The days that seem so overcast, Such future golden hours are hid As those I see amid the past.
