Youth and Age.

While yet my blood ran full and free, Gay girls the Muses seemed to me, Forever young, forever fair, With laughing eyes that challenge care

No hour when they would not be wooed : If I was, they were in the mood ; We played at courtship all day long, And cured our painless griefs with song.

Too happy days! But, wiser now, Three matrons, with unjoyful brow, And eyes severe, that conquer mine, I see replace those witches fine. Their looks convict the unthrifty years Theirs are the rock, the thread, the shears Symbols, the artist's triple clew To matter, form, and measure due Each lays a finger on her lip And signs, "Beware ! the moments slip!" How shall I hope the three to gain?

Together, triumph ; singly, pain. There was an old decouter, and its mouth was saying wide; the ruby wine had ebbed away and left its crys-tal side; and the wind went humming, bumming; by a n d down the wide it flow, and wuch therewidthe much therewidthe The Song of the Decanter.

how the thread the how the thread the blow neek the wildes blow neek the wildes window where the blast was blow ing free, and fancied that its pale mouth sang to has slain his mands of the very best of ; but I'-twas thus the spoke-"But I have con-more than all your famous ors, so feared and famed o en to me, you youths an come drink from est mew their stores below ? nillions with the large period of the stores below ? I have suith the large period of blood may roll, you boary I have damned The cholers, the habt such

AMID THE ALPS.

ANID THE ALPS.
The pinnels youder, 'sail the difference is a constance with a second of the seco

"Quite a history," remarked Rawdon line committed suicide." ne committed suicide.

"Had If Let me see: it was soon after "Use the party that we made the as-cent-1 attempted it, rather-of Mont Blanc?" "Yes, that was what Fitzhugh spoke of in blatter uses in the special construction of the see that the special players in the special p of in his letter. What about it all?" "One can hardly hope to do justice to any thing which one tells of Switzerlan," began Rawdon, after a panse of thought. "The conntry must be seen to be called to the hatchet's of our guides. "The conntry must be seen to be called to the hatchet's of our guides. "The conntry must be seen to be called to thought." "The conntry must be seen to be called to thought. "The conntry must be seen to be called to thought." "The conntry must be seen to be called to thought." "The conntry must be seen to be called to thought." "The conntry must be seen to be called to thought." "The conntry must be seen to be called to thought."

began Rawdon, after a pause of thought. "The country must be seen to be appro-ciated, and it must be seen by an artist eye and appreciated by a soul endowed with a deep religions sense of the miracles which God alone could create, to get the faintest conception of its wild, wonder-ful, and magnificent scenery. So sudden and varied are the changes which the eye beholds, that it seems more like a fairy laid floating in the unreal mirage of a dream than like anything real." "Aysterious fissures, whose bottom and depth were lost in distance, had to be and staff. As we ascended, the air be-came more rare, and the nose smarted with every inhalation. We made a tor-tous way, winding about to escape beholds, that it seems more like a fairy laid floating in the unreal mirage of a dream than like anything real." "Aysterious fissures, whose bottom and depth were lost in distance, had to be and staff. As we ascended, the air be-came more rare, and the nose smarted with every inhalation. We made a tor-tous way, winding abyeses on frail bridges of snow that might crumble at any step." "Hope you liked it!?" We had a to lisome day, and did not

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. V.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1872.

<page-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

Nothing is more indicative of the earn-stness of life than the sight of a well developed male creature speading eigh hours a day in trying to wear out a dry the aniosements at a Chicago to place a silver dollar in a dish containing about an inch of molasses and let a squad of boys compete in trying to take out the piece with their teeth.

President McCosh, of Princeton Col-President Action, of Practon Col-lege, says he has never asked for a dollar for the collegs, and does not wish that when he dies the text shall be: "And it came to pass that the beggar died and he was buried."

It is said-toe have not tried the experi-It is said--ite have not know that the tapert ment--that by setting a glass fruit jar on a folded towel, thoroughly soaked in cold water, the fruit can be poured in boiling hot, with no more danger of breaking than with a tin can.

Items of Interest. West Point has at present 249 cadets. Dallas, Ia., has a jail made of boiler iron. Bazaine won't be tried till November

NO. 43.

"Mine committed suicide." Larco laughed. "Truth," said Rawdon. "As I stood on London Bridge, my heretofore faithful pipe leaped from my lips into the Thames. A clear case of voluntary suicide." "You don't, Larco; you've thad lf Let me see: it was soon after "Had If Let me see: it was soon after "Control I and the sector in the party, Fitzbugh wrote me." "Had If Let me see: it was soon after "Control I and the sector in the party for the sector in the party for the sector in th

TERMS : Two Dollars a Year, in Advance.