

The first Name on Architecture of the Control of State Co

None in the white house, now, surely. The salary of Gen. M'Clellan, as Engineer-in-Chief of the department of Docks, has been reduced from $20,000 to 10,000 a year, at his own request, made in consequence of the financial inability of the Department to improve the water-front in accordance with the plans adopted, in expectation of an angular appropriation of $2.

we don't know and to spend our strength in efforts that only benefit people who don't deserve assistance. At last we shall keep our office clear of blatherskites and political beggars; and go about our daily work with the satisfaction of knowing that the most credulous of place-hunters will suspect us of having any credit with the appointing powers. That is one suspect us of having any credit with the appointing powers. That is one of the results of Tuesday's election for which we own ourselves profoundly grateful.

How many disinterested patriots like Gen. M'Clellan can be found?

None in the white house, now, surely.

amounts. It is the little thieves who make restitution. If the big ones should be troubled with scruples of conscience, the treasury would be suddenly enriched. But they have easy consciences and never disgorge; they retain what they steal and are constantly on the watch for a chance to plunder.

The readers of the Reporter may be anxious to know what Greeley instends doing, since he was not elected to the presidency. We will let his card explain:

New York, Nov. 4.—At Cumber land, Md., on Friday night, two freight trains on the Huntingdon and brought before Commissioner Osborne, who said the indictments relieved him of ductor Bowser and three others were instantly killed, and another person mortally wounded.
