The state of the s

Or dart about with rose, naked feet, Babbling soft syllables of that and this,

FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1872.

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

TERMS: Two Dollars a Year, in Advance.

VOL. V.

NO. 50.

Section of the control of the contro

Items of Interest

ala's orange crop is heavy. A metal thing in the long run—breath, Peru uses her guano to pay her na-tional debt.

Right principles will by no means suit wrong practices.

The height of impertinence—āsking a Jew what his Christian name is.

Contentment is the true philosopher's stone; neither have been discovered.

Laughing Bill offers to laugh agains any man in the Union for $500 a " side,"

Let your expenses be such as to leave a balance in your pocket. Ready money is a friend in need.

Which travels fastest, heat or cold? Heat, of sourse; because you can catch

Why, if you are called loudly, must on wear a wig? Because you are bawled