"Humph! that can stand over for a day or two, can't it ? Stubbs has fallen l again, and you must take his place."
I didn't care to be shifted before I'd finished what I was about, but a jour-neyman bricklayer, with a wife and children looking to him for bread, canot afford to be too particular, and so I held my tongue.

"You must go to Coot's Brewery tomorrow morning and finish that chimney," the foreman told me. He gave me a few more directions besides, and then went his way while I went mine, not very well pleased at the prospect

I had been hard at it for more than an ir, and was getting a bit more recongliding away with me from the chimney, and, in a few moments I should have

My first impulse was to throw my other hand over and draw my body up, so that I could lie partially across the top of the shaft. In this I was successful each conducted by highly skilled men.

Such a napply balanced state of things tes, took a notion to go off on a sudden. Well, the last that ever seen of him he competitive trials, and when these trials are conducted by highly skilled men.

"Say, father, is it incumbent on me to stay." and continued to balance myself.

confused noise from the streets, and my own perilous position, seemed to be jumped together in a tangle which I could not put straight. While in this save it.

save it.

An Insurance Question.—A nevel and curious question of life insurance is likely to arise in Delaware. Professor West, of Dover, had his life insured for $25,000 for the benefit of his family.

After this there was a pause for some minutes, and scarce able to control my excitement, I tried to think hew this help could come. Then there was a processor was a pause for some minutes, and scarce able to control my excitement, I tried to think hew this help could come. Then there was a processor was a paper or named Gooch Turner, and to the horrible manner in which he disposed of the remains. His apparent object in the murder was that the mutilated

CENTRE HALL REPORTER.

VOL. VI.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., THURSDAY, JANUARY 16, 1873.

when (a more common evil) it is thin in places, owing to the negligence of the firemen in keeping it properly levelled. The way in which waste arises from that uppecessary air is I whistled and worked, with the thought that each brick I laid was bringing me nearer to a finish, when all at once a fiercer and colder blast than before came shricking around the chimmey. I was nearly overthrown, and, in the endeavor to recover myself, I tilted the board of mortar from off the edge of the shaft on to my frail standing place.

In a second, to my intense horror, I felt the boards and all that were on them gliding away with me from the chimmey at a temperature of from 200 deg. in excess of that which it had; and the whole of this excess represents wasted coal. Thus, on the gliding away with me from the chimmey at a temperature of this excess represents wasted coal. Thus, on the gliding away with me from the chimmey at a temperature of the first.

Without a mast, anyhow. And still out above the boeming of camen and bursting of bombs, his voice was heard, in the each time at load above the boeming of camen and bursting of bombs, his voice was heard, in the endeavor to recover myself, I tilted the babtracted from it, as far as practicable by the boiler) it will escape up the chimmey at a temperature of from 200 deg. to 300 deg. in excess of that which it had; and the whole of this excess represents wasted coal. Thus, on the gliding away with me from the sec auses is that unnecessary in is above the boeming of camen and bursting of bombs, his voice was heard, in the econsistent with the nature of things.—I say with the nature of things.—for me to get out of this here?" but no answer came. A 15-inch shell passe the first.

When I tales, I us one hand, it is of importance that there should be a proper amount of air to seshould be a proper amount of air to sesshould be a proper amount of air to seshould be a proper amount of air to sesshould be a proper amount of a and, in a few moments I should have been lying, a mangled corpse, below, if I had not succeeded in flinging my arm over and into the hollow of the shaft, where, as the scaffold and its load of bricks crushed downward, I was left hanging, with certain death awaiting me up moment I loosened my hold.

should be a proper amount of air to see thing had happened, until it melted and ran over the burning deck, upon the hand, it is most desirable that this amount should not be exceeded, in whence all but him, etc.

At last all the ship was burned up except the magazine, and the powder which had been burning for some minuted and ran over the burning deck, upon whence all but him, etc.

At last all the ship was burned up except the magazine, and the powder which had been burning for some minuted and ran over the burning deck, upon whence all but him, etc.

At last all the ship was burned up except the magazine, and the powder which had been burning for some minuted in the carbonic acid; and, on the other hand, it is most desirable that this amount should not be exceeded, in the same of the carbon into carbonic acid; and, on the other hand, it is most desirable that this amount should not be exceeded, in the same of the carbon into carbonic acid; and, on the other hand, it is most desirable that this amount should not be exceeded, in the proper amount of a read of the carbon into carbonic acid; and, on the other hand, it is most desirable that this amount should not be exceeded, in the proper amount of a read of the carbon into carbonic acid; and, on the other hand, it is most desirable that this amount should not be exceeded, in the proper amount of a read of the carbon into carbonic acid; and, on the other hand, it is most desirable that this amount should not be exceeded, in the proper amount of the carbon into carbonic acid; and, on the other hand, it is most desirable that this amount should not be exceeded, in the proper amount of the carbon into carbon into carbon into carbon into carbon into carbon into carbon int tes, took a notion to go off on a sudder ful, and continued to balance myself, half in the chimney and half out.

There for some time I could only cling with frenzied desperation, praying earnestly to be saved from the horrible death threatening me; but at last I summer that the greater proportion of the so-called incompatibilities.

Matrimenial Incompatability,

The Rev. Dr. Peabody, in a late essay, touches upon this delicate subject after the following fashion:

The truth is that the greater proportion of the so-called incompatibilities whole time announced, only taking a bathing a late of the so-called incompatibilities. leath threatening me; but at last I summoned courage to peer cautiously over the outside of the shaft.

Not a bit of scaffolding remained withmen and uncongenialities of domestic life which are so often made the ground for his feet and having a brief recess for the purpose of bathing which are so often made the ground for his feet and having a brief recess for the purpose of bathing which are so often made the ground for his feet and having a brief recess for the purpose of bathing Not a bit of scaffolding remained within many yards of me—and that but the poles, with a few boards dangling to them—and there was nothing to break my fall should I quit my hold.

Shudderingly I drew my head over the shaft, for there the darkness hid my danger, while to gaze on the scene without brought the old feeling of being dragged back to me in full force.

Then I began to think of the wife and glistened; and uncongenialities of domestic life which are so often made the ground for the matrimonial bond, the disruption of the matrimonial bond, the disruption of the matrimonial bond, as justifying ground for any such dissolution, and could be readily overcome and blotted out of exception. His feet were slightly swollen, but he otherwise seemed as fresh as when he commenced. His except that differences of opinion and mutual glistened; and then one or both began to feel sleepy, and was glad to dragged back to me in full force.

Then I began to think of the wife and little ones whom I had left annugin bed, and bitter tears came into my eyes as I wondered how they would live if I were taken from them. The thought brought wondered how they would live if I were taken from them. The thought brought me back to more selfish ones, and I kept asking myself, "Must I die? How long can I hold on with this fierce wind besetting me? Is there no hope? Will no one, seeing how I am placed, strive to rescue me?"

Again I turned my eyes downward. In the court-ward of the brewery and in the court-ward of the the last twenty minutes before the characteristic and the cauchy of the cauc Again I turned my eyes downward. In the court-yard of the brewery and in the street below people were fast collecting; windows were being thrown open, and women and children, shricking and sebbing, were gazing from them at me. The crowd below thickened, running hither and thither. A large kite fluttered nearer and nearer. How I tried to steady myself with one hand, that I might grash the cord with the other as might grash the cord with the other as into each other, getting rid of their annual triangle relation, out." He seemed as fresh and more tially designed for the mind and heart. No escape but in cutting the knot. It is a delusion. The marriage relation, and women and children, shricking and discords. Foolish to think that the whole mutual life can flow en, like the early stream, without a ripple or an early ten minutes longer. When the dedy. Home is a school, a discipline, where he was into each other, getting rid of their annual triangle relation. The marriage relation, in all its history, was never expected to be entirely free from misunderstanding and discords. Foolish to think that the early stream, without a ripple or an early ten minutes longer. When the dedy. Home is a school, a discipline, where he was finished he departed with his early ten minutes longer. When the fresh was finished he departed with his trainer for his lodging, where he was into each other, getting rid of their annual triangle relation. might grasp the cord with the other as soon as it was within reach, comes vividly before me now. But it never and characteristics, and more and more becharacteristics, and more and more becharacteristics, and more and more become within reach, a gust of the breeze carrying it far away, and dashing it to the ground.

An hour passed on, and though clinging to the brickwork, it was almost unconsciously, for cold and fear had so worked upon me that I became quite dazed, and the chimneys, the people, the confused noise from the streets, and more and more and more bedoming one in thought, sympathy and passed by. Jimmy slept calmly and peacefully until 7 o'clock the next morning, when he arose and dressed himself. He made his appearance upon the street through and after many a self-denial, was fresh as worked upon me that I became quite dazed, and the chimneys, the people, the confused noise from the streets, and more and more bedoming one in thought, sympathy and peacefully until 7 o'clock the next morning, when he arose and dressed himself. He made his appearance upon the street through and after many a self-denial, was fresh as worked upon me that I became quite dazed and the chimneys, the people, the confused noise from the streets, and more and more bedoming one in thought, sympathy and peacefully until 7 o'clock the next morning, when he arose and dressed himself. He made his appearance upon the street through and after many a self-denial, was fresh as ever. For a person sixty years of age, we have the comming one in thought, sympathy and peacefully until 7 o'clock the next morning, when he arose and dressed himself. He made his appearance upon the street through and after many a self-denial, when he arose and dressed himself. He made his appearance upon the street through and after many a self-denial, when he arose and dressed himself. He made his appearance upon the street through and after many as self-denial, when he arose and dressed himself. He made his appearance upon the street through and after many as self-denial, when he arose and dressed himself. He made his appearance upon the street through and after many as self-denial, when he arose and dressed himself. He made his appearance upon the street through and after many as

Beware of Poisoned Tea.

A physician from the country passing a down town restaurant a few in and ordered a cup of black tea. Almost immediately after partaking of it he felt sick at his stomach, and soon he commenced vomiting, which continued through the night. Twenty-four hours afterward he had not fully recovered. The doctor attributed the effect to ver-digris in the tea, which may have been

CENTRE HALL CENTRE CO., P.A., THURSDAY, JANUARY 15. 1875.

**No. 18.**

**Proposition of the property of the p

the sound of their names a distinction as to age, namely, New York and Newer When I was a child and read fairy les, I used to wish that I had the invisible cap," that I might go where apt to hear no good of myself, and chance. This they refused to do, whereupon he drew his revolver and began to old hag sat down upon the hearth, laughing and chattering her horrid gibberish, and proceeded to wind the two largest snakes around her symbol old seek and the town of the largest snakes around her symbol old seek and the town of the largest snakes around her symbol old seek and the same the same that they opened his horse, but not till he had wounded be in a chronic state of rage on acars actived to my age by my dearest ends, who knew me first when "I s a married woman and they were ly school-girls." I should hear critithe two largest snakes around her wrinkled old neck, and then to uncoil and lamed two of their horses. the half torpid masses of snakes. In a the owners of the two wounded thort time she had her lap full of the horses, seeing that they would be dissquirming reptiles, and appeared to handle and play with them like so many harmless kittens. The visitors, unable to stand the loathsome, sickening sight, and the effluvia generated in the close, was immediately begun, which ended in was dangerous to call in Leap-year.

No, I've given up my desire for the avisible cap, but I really should like to ave second sight. It must be conenient. If I had an old Scotch uncle lark den, soon took their leave, leaving the death of two of the combatants, and dark den, soon took their leave, leaving the old squaw to the company of her singular pets. She devotes much of her time in playing with them, allowing them to crawl over her bed and over the wounded men were found by a party of him or her, and say:

"Make your abode with me for life.
Live in my heart and pay no rent. You will be more useful than the washer-her tribe south when they departed a did not regret leaving her. In the warm dead shot, months she permits her pets to roam at will over the cabin, and in no instance has been bitten by any of them; although after dinner coffee, to say nothing of efore dinner soup, and not writhe with if it was an aunt, to washing dishes. I should provide her with a big arm-chair and a bottle of whatever is neces-handy, and when I said, "I'll have cod-lish for dinger, she would say:

And then I should make a preparation roast and boiled, and of dessert and

And I would say, "Why not?" And she would say:
"All the Topslices are coming to din Beware! bide at home."

fort to everybody, --- Ledger.

two others in Kansas City received

Don't do it, Mary."

er. I see um.

nd that new bonnet, and took that new parasol in the fingers of my new gloves, with a blue sky overhead, perhaps be caught in the rain? I should think ing away the cold mutton to her cousin at the area gate, and would know why we always had so little butter and so In fact, she would be better than any private detective, and so end of a comlestruction of the buffalo was carried n during the past year with a rapidity entirely unprecedented, although it has been matter of regretful comment for years. One firm in Leavenworth received 30,000 hides per month, whil it also out upon the hearth, and therefrom took a huge brown snake, of a variety unknown te our reporter. Each of these monsters was at least was at least and one of them, more savage than the rest, declared he would cut the throat of the girl himself sooner than the rest, declared he would cut the throat of the girl himself sooner than the rest, declared he would cut the throat of the girl himself sooner than the rest, declared he would cut the throat of the girl himself sooner than the rest, declared he would cut the throat of the girl himself sooner than the rest, declared he would cut the throat of the girl himself sooner than the rest, declared he would cut the throat of the girl himself sooner than the rest, declared he would cut the throat of the girl himself sooner than the rest, declared he would cut the throat of the girl himself sooner than the rest, declared he would cut the throat of the girl himself sooner than the rest, declared he would cut the throat of the girl himself sooner than the rest t these monsters was at least four or five feet in length, and appeared to be far more active and lively than the smaller snakes. She then dragged forth an old wolf-skin sobe from her beed in a corner near the fire, and unrolled a perfect medley of rattlesnakes of all hues, sizes, thicknesses, and ages. These she handled roughly, rolling the squirming and chartering the rost of the girl that she resolved on flight. Making ample, but seeret preparations, she fied one morn ing, on horseback, to the ranche of a friend, distant nearly a hundred miles from her home. The next day her flight was discovered, and the five locate the fire, and three days before the young man's death. His brother was buried in fired do acres. This statement has been furnished by Mr. Alexander Coker, of the walls hung a variety of snake skins, rattles, dried snakes' heads, lizards, and the rest, declared he would cut the hroat of the girl himself sconer than fifty cents per head for branding their seech her the wife of any of his rivals

more active and lively than the smaller shade appeared to be far men deep the wife of any of his rivals
more active and lively than the smaller shades. She then dragged forth an old wolf-skin sobe from her beed in a corner
medley of rattlesnakes of all hues, sizes, thicknesses, and ages. These she handled roughly, rolling the squarement has been furnished by Mr. Alexander Coker, of the self-week statement has been furnished by Mr. Alexander Coker, of
the walls hung a variety of snake skins, rattles, drived snakes' heads, lizards, and
the residence of the walls hung a variety of snake skins, rattles, drived snakes heads, lizards, and
the fire and turrolled a perfect the solution.

The square miles, what the had made as good rancho, well improved with an inclosed pasture furnished by Mr. Alexander Coker, of the shades of cure
the valle horeses, a good rancho, well improved wi

oor. She feeds them upon birds and explorers, and sent to a cabin whar they isects. The former she catches alive could have such help as the limited resources. The former she catches alive and feeds to the larger snakes at intervals of one or two weeks.

She works a small patch of garden, and depends mostly for other necessaries upon the surrounding country in which she begs. She refused to follow her tribe south when they departed a pursuit of the girl again, as he had pursuit of the girl again, as he had the years ago, and they loathed her so heard of her marriage to a cousin who much for her hideous habits that they was skillful with the bowie-knife, and a

What receives of the lowpossible of the control o What recesses of the human soul cannot be reached by the even tide of God? Its refreshment slides up from gift to gift, and tosses its spray into the face of imagination, and lies deep around the rooted senses on which man struck to a limit with the rooted senses on which man struck to a limit with the rooted senses on which man struck to a limit with the rooted senses on which man is not represented with the rooted senses on which man is not represented with the rooted senses on which man is not represented with the rooted senses on which man is not represented with the rooted senses on which man is not represented with the rooted senses on which man is not represented with the rooted senses of the human soul cannot be reached by the even tide of God? Its refreshment slides up from gift to gift, and tosses its spray into the face of imagination, and lies deep around the cexistement, I tried to think hew this help could come. Then there was a warning shouted to me to keep my head back, followed by a whizzing, hissing sound, and looking within the shaft, saw a bright shower of golden sparks ighting up the well-like hole, and knew that a rocket had falled to reach me, so that one more I was left to wait and hope until the voice again shouted for me to keep my head back was the copper pans on which the tea was the tea, which may have been sad as coloring matter, or derived from the copper pans on which the tea was the copper pans attend to, for one third of the inerease. Other parties gave him one dollar per head, for gathering their beeves, and fifty cents per head for branding their calves. He now has 7,000 head of cat-

Patricio, Texas, was discharged from the army of the Republic of Texas in 1837. His entire earthly possessions then consisted of a Spanish pony, saddle and bridle, two old bell pistols, one of which was broken off at the breech, and one rifle gun, all of which were much the worse for having been in constant use in obtaining our independence.

At this time, 1871, he has 80,000 head of cattle, worth $400,000; six leagues or 26,664 acres of valuable river land, all improved, cheap at $5 per acre, $233, 320; 500 head of saddle and stock horses worth $20,000; sent one drove of 1,025 beeves to Kansas this year, was largely mhappy stammerer. In our own hands it has often failed to effect the desired result, but in three-fourths of the cases which we have treated the cure has been shipping beeves by steamer to New Orleans all the time; has ready money on hand for all purposes of specelation, and lost eighteen negro men, worth $18,000, by emancipation. I wish to mention, by emancipation. I wish to mention, for the benefit of my lady readers, that Mr. O'Connor is a widower, very good looking in the face, not a bad figure, and very susceptible.

In happy stammerer. In our own hands it has often failed to effect the desired result, but in three-fourths of the cases which we have treated the cure has been complete.

The secret is simply this!...The stammerer is made to mark the time in his speech, just as it is ordinarily done in singing. He is at first to beat on every syllable. It is best at first lesson to read some simple composition, like one to learn the time in his speech, just as it is ordinarily done in singing. He is at first to beat on every syllable. It is best at first lesson to read some simple composition, like one to learn the time in his speech, just as it is ordinarily done in singing. He is at first to beat on every syllable. It is best at first lesson to read some simple composition, like one to learn the term horse-power, as applied to result, but in three-fourths of the cases which we have treated the cure has been complete.

The secret is simply this!...The stammerer. In our own hands of the cases which we have treated the cure has been complete.

The secret is simply this!...The stammerer is made to mark the time in his speech, just as it is ordinarily done in singing. He is at first lesson to read some simple composition, like one to be regarded by many engineers as practically valueless. A committee to be regarded by many engineers as practically valueless. A committee to be redained that it has other than the cases which we have treated the cure has been complete.

The secret is simply this!...The stammerer. I

A Choutean arenue (St. Louis) girl frankly confesses that her advecacy of the woman's rights movement is due to an insane desire to wear red-top boots and a pistol pocket.

Mrs. Mary C. Mast, widow of the late register of deeds of Leavenworth, Co., Kan., has been appointed by the Board of County Commissioners to succeed her late husband in that office.

The Khedive of Egypt has ordered the wedding outfit of his daughter to be made in Paris. One of the items of the order is flounces of point d'Alencon at $800 a yard, and $30,000 of other laces are to be added.

A parent in New Albany, Ind., who any offense.

Innumerable butterflies lately visited a newspaper, beating each syllable.

How to DealWith Blackmailers.

The Journal of Commerce very sensibly says: We do not undertake to advise a person exactly what to do when a person exactly when the foreigned and time by striking the finger on the knee, by simply latting the striking illustration of the vigor and rapidity of vegetation in another.

The Panama Star and Herald gives a striking illustration of the vigor and rapidity of vegetation in the tropics, by the large to be in the boot.

We doubt if the worst case of stutters are person exactly what to do when a person exactly what