

Farm, Garden and Household. Experiments in Steaming Stalks. Some years since, being short of fodder, and having on hand about 20 head of cattle, I thought I would try to economize by cutting and steaming...

The Polynesian Slave Trade. The secretary of the British Anti-Slavery Society gave the following picture of the Polynesian slave trade. He says: 'I received an application from four natives of the island of Tahiti...

A Printer's Dream. One of the telegraphic correspondents of the Missouri Republican professes to have had a prophetic vision of a revolution in the mode of printing newspapers...

Sand-Terraces and Water Spouts. Not less terrible are the great sandstorms which sometimes sweep over the vast deserts of Africa and Asia. The Hungarian savant Arminius Vanbery, who traveled in the East in the disguise of a dervish...

The Epilepsy Debate. Seneca on the Expulsion Arrangement of Ames and Brooks-Speech in Defense. No one like that in the House, in point of spectators and interest, has been witnessed since the days of the great trial...

A new method of heating railroad cars. It has been widely adopted in Germany. A certain kind of steam, which burns very slowly, and is enclosed in a copper box, 'hermetically sealed'...

Men Wanted. In 1856, when 'Agrest' was agitating the people, Dr. J. G. Holland published a little pamphlet, here reproduced as one of the topics of this time of stress and strain. It is as timely now as in 1856...

R. R. R. RAILWAYS READY RELIEF Cures the Worst Pains ONE TO TWENTY MINUTES NOT ONE HOUR. THE ONLY PAIN-REMEDY that instantly gives the most extraordinary relief...

In order to economize on labor the next winter I procured a steamer, which I placed several feet from the boiler, connecting it with gas-pipes laid underground to a box in the stable holding 70 bushels...

It is scarcely ever within the province of a newspaper to chronicle a more sickening accident than that which happened at the village of Tahiti. A vessel was wrecked on the coast of Tahiti, and the crew and passengers were rescued...

Horrible Occurrence. It is scarcely ever within the province of a newspaper to chronicle a more sickening accident than that which happened at the village of Tahiti. A vessel was wrecked on the coast of Tahiti...

Analogs to the sand columns are the water-spouts of the sea. They are sometimes also on land. They are columns of cloud or water, generally in the shape of a double cone, having its base on the surface of the water...

Scene in a Nevada Court. The defence usually accorded to judicial dignitaries in the older sections of the country is conspicuous in the early days of Nevada. In the little town of that region, related to us by the Nevada Herald, there was on one occasion, counsel in the first case called upon to defend the ruling...

THE NEW YORK EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE. The New York Evangelical Alliance states very fairly the position of the Children's Aid Society with reference to the suit...

THE ELWOOD COLLIER. The Elwood Collier is decidedly the best ever worn. Every one who tries it likes it and will wear no other.
