CHEWING TOBACCO.

In the Methodist Conference of Hudson on Saturday last the following report was presented by the Rev. W. W. Shaw and the Rev. W. D. Fero.

"Whereas, The tobacco habit is productive of and aggravates disease, both of body and mind, precipitating often dentines dering them miserable wrecks of life.

"Whereas, It is the gratification entirely of the sensual and animal appetites and propensities, degrading in its tendency the higher and nobler qualities of our nature, thus becoming a fit companion for the barroom and grog shop prefanity.

"Whereas, The habit is not only sinful within itself, but leads from one vice to another; and the step is the plain duty of religious teachers, and especially of ministers of the gospel, to avoid all conduct that will bring reproach upon their profession or lead by their example the steps of the youth in the path of error and vice; therefore,

Captain Jack then talked in an apparently good, serious strain, and when he finished stepped back to the rear near where Meacham's horse was hitched.

John Schonchin then began to talk, and while he was speaking my informant, Mr. Dyar, heard a cap miss fire, and looking around saw Captain Jack to his left with his pistel pointed at Gen. Canby. This was the signal for a general massacre, and a dozen shots were fired inside of half a minute.

Mr. Dyar, after hearing the cap miss fire, turned and fled, followed closely by Hawker Jim, who fired two shots after him, Dyar, finding Hawker Jim gaining on him, turned and drew his Derringer, whereupon Hawker Jim retreated and Dyar made the best of his way to the camp.
