

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

TERMS: The Reporter is published weekly at $2 per year, in advance, or $2.50 when not paid in advance.

The Williamsport Standard, Joe Frey's able and spicy democratic sheet, of last week, pays a fine tribute to Mr. Orvis, on account of the eminent services he rendered the people of this state, as a member of the Legislature in killing jobs and exposing the schemes of the roosters last winter.

The present Massachusetts Legislature, which should have adjourned long ago having been in session nearly five months is very much muddled by the Boston and other newspapers.

An unfortunate snake in Tennessee recently swallowed a rabbit and then attempted to crawl through a fence, but was stopped by the natural rabidness when about half through; while in this quandary another rabbit was as one of our cotemporaries would say convenient, and the snake swallowed him like-wise; so with a swallowed rabbit on each side of the hole he was crawling through the fence and was killed during the process of digestion.

Philadelphia, May 27.—In yesterday's session of the Constitutional Convention, the oath of office was administered.

As amended the article specifies the following as the form of oath to be taken by members of the General Assembly, all judicial, State and county officers before entering their offices.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support, obey and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of this Commonwealth; that I will discharge the duties of my office with fidelity; I do further solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will not knowingly receive, directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing for any act or duty pertaining to my office, other than the salary and mileage allowed by law nor will I vote for or advocate the matter which I have, or expect to have, any private interest whatever, directly or indirectly.

The Courts of Common Pleas of the several counties of the Commonwealth shall have power within their respective jurisdictions to appoint or remove any officer or officers and to make report to the Court as may be required, such appointment to be made for a part or for all districts in a city and county, or in wards or divisions thereof, whenever the Court shall appear to the Court to be a reasonable precaution to secure the purity and fairness of elections. The officers shall be two in number for an election district, and shall be personally qualified to serve upon election boards and in each case members of different political parties.

The majority report of the Committee on railroads and canals was filed in the Constitutional Convention on 7th, sitting as a Committee of the Whole. After an animated discussion the following section was adopted.

the balance remaining to be passed upon hereafter: Sec. 1. Any individual company or corporation organized for the purpose, shall have the right to construct a railroad or canal between any two points in this State. Any railroad may interest and connect with any other railroad, and no discrimination shall be made in passenger and freight tariffs on persons or property passing from one railroad to another and no unnecessary delay interposed in the forwarding of such passengers and property to their destination.

THE NEW PRESIDENT OF THE FRENCH REPUBLIC. Marshal MacMahon upon whom has fallen the mantle of M. Thiers is nearly half a century in the French Army and since the day of the storming of the Malakoff he has been its pride and glory. Before the recent Franco-Prussian war Marshal MacMahon was regarded as the coming man who would give the assaults of France a lesson in the art of war.

As an administrator MacMahon has not been a success. He left Algiers most recently. The disorders which broke out there on the death of the Prussian war by his legacy to his successors. Every severity that arbitrary power could think of was executed in the harshest manner, but without reducing either the French colonies or the Algerian natives to obedience.

To his new position as President MacMahon comes at the ripe age of sixty-five—he is ten years younger than M. Thiers. He brings with him to the task an immense reputation for military ability and a great popularity due in part to his unpretending manners. He is a royalist at heart—a legitimist of the legitimist. Republicanism he has always hated. The very name of liberty has been odious to him though he has never been backward in claiming the liberty for him and his party to legitimist and to brand as criminals those who do not share that honor.

When a democratic newspaper like the Watchman, whose editor is supposed to be familiar with the damaging record which several Democratic members of the House are endeavoring to make for themselves, undertakes to make public opinion in favor of a political trimmer like Brockway, and to endorse him as a "watchful, faithful and efficient" representative, we must emphatically dissent from his commendations.

Three men carefully conclude that many per cent, is just one half of a per cent. But this is not the case, as will be seen from the following statement of facts: One Dollar 100 years at 1 per cent... 228

INTEREST ON CAPITAL. We extract the following remarkable facts from a lecture by W. P. Groom, editor of the New York Mercantile Journal and think they cannot fail to be of interest as illustrating the rapid increase of capital when well invested.

Age. Capital. 25.....$100,000 30.....200,000 45.....400,000 60.....800,000 75.....1,600,000 85.....3,200,000 95.....6,400,000

Rebuking the Roosters and their Backers. The following articles copied from two staunch democratic organs, speak the sentiments of every true democrat from the State.

Brooklyn, May 26.—George Rodrick a law student aged twenty, shot his mother dead in front of her house at No. 100 Ninth street last evening. He was at once arrested and locked up. On inquiry it was ascertained that Rodrick and a young man named James Cochrane had been on bad terms for some time past, and quarrelled whenever they met.

There is a new disturbance about the fruits of a political acrimony—the Philadelphia Collectorship. Mr. Conly, the present incumbent, is not in favor of the Cameron claim; his refusal to concede the collectorship to the successor must be evolved from the contending elements of Pennsylvania politics. This statement is sufficient to indicate what trials are in store for the President and the reformed Civil Service.

John H. Orvis, Esq. This gentleman was a member of the last Legislature and took an active part in the proceedings. The question has been propounded in radical journals whether he should be re-elected, to which the Albany Tribune replies by saying, "No honor or credit can be attached to a representative who can help to rear Peter Herdic's piratical craft and at the same time preserve his reputation unscathed. This has passed into a proverb at Harrisburg, C. B. Brockway is the man who has done this."

When a democratic newspaper like the Watchman, whose editor is supposed to be familiar with the damaging record which several Democratic members of the House are endeavoring to make for themselves, undertakes to make public opinion in favor of a political trimmer like Brockway, and to endorse him as a "watchful, faithful and efficient" representative, we must emphatically dissent from his commendations.

Gen. Canby was buried in Indianapolis last Friday, with imposing funeral honors, the expenses of which were defrayed by the public. If it had depended upon his own fortune he could scarcely have been buried at all. This man, who had spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, who had never been disgraced by any act of dishonesty, who had been a faithful and efficient representative in a position where he did not win the well-considered approval of all who were able to judge him, did not bury him more than he buried them.

Gen. Canby was buried in Indianapolis last Friday, with imposing funeral honors, the expenses of which were defrayed by the public. If it had depended upon his own fortune he could scarcely have been buried at all. This man, who had spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, who had never been disgraced by any act of dishonesty, who had been a faithful and efficient representative in a position where he did not win the well-considered approval of all who were able to judge him, did not bury him more than he buried them.

Paris, May 27.—Paris correspondents of the German press assert that the movement for the removal of Thiers originated in Rome and Florence. The following section was adopted.

A YOUNG MAN SHOTS AND KILLS HIS MOTHER. Brooklyn, May 26.—George Rodrick a law student aged twenty, shot his mother dead in front of her house at No. 100 Ninth street last evening. He was at once arrested and locked up. On inquiry it was ascertained that Rodrick and a young man named James Cochrane had been on bad terms for some time past, and quarrelled whenever they met.

There is a new disturbance about the fruits of a political acrimony—the Philadelphia Collectorship. Mr. Conly, the present incumbent, is not in favor of the Cameron claim; his refusal to concede the collectorship to the successor must be evolved from the contending elements of Pennsylvania politics. This statement is sufficient to indicate what trials are in store for the President and the reformed Civil Service.

Gen. Canby was buried in Indianapolis last Friday, with imposing funeral honors, the expenses of which were defrayed by the public. If it had depended upon his own fortune he could scarcely have been buried at all. This man, who had spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, who had never been disgraced by any act of dishonesty, who had been a faithful and efficient representative in a position where he did not win the well-considered approval of all who were able to judge him, did not bury him more than he buried them.

Gen. Canby was buried in Indianapolis last Friday, with imposing funeral honors, the expenses of which were defrayed by the public. If it had depended upon his own fortune he could scarcely have been buried at all. This man, who had spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, who had never been disgraced by any act of dishonesty, who had been a faithful and efficient representative in a position where he did not win the well-considered approval of all who were able to judge him, did not bury him more than he buried them.

Gen. Canby was buried in Indianapolis last Friday, with imposing funeral honors, the expenses of which were defrayed by the public. If it had depended upon his own fortune he could scarcely have been buried at all. This man, who had spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, who had never been disgraced by any act of dishonesty, who had been a faithful and efficient representative in a position where he did not win the well-considered approval of all who were able to judge him, did not bury him more than he buried them.

Gen. Canby was buried in Indianapolis last Friday, with imposing funeral honors, the expenses of which were defrayed by the public. If it had depended upon his own fortune he could scarcely have been buried at all. This man, who had spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, who had never been disgraced by any act of dishonesty, who had been a faithful and efficient representative in a position where he did not win the well-considered approval of all who were able to judge him, did not bury him more than he buried them.

Gen. Canby was buried in Indianapolis last Friday, with imposing funeral honors, the expenses of which were defrayed by the public. If it had depended upon his own fortune he could scarcely have been buried at all. This man, who had spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, who had never been disgraced by any act of dishonesty, who had been a faithful and efficient representative in a position where he did not win the well-considered approval of all who were able to judge him, did not bury him more than he buried them.

Gen. Canby was buried in Indianapolis last Friday, with imposing funeral honors, the expenses of which were defrayed by the public. If it had depended upon his own fortune he could scarcely have been buried at all. This man, who had spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, who had never been disgraced by any act of dishonesty, who had been a faithful and efficient representative in a position where he did not win the well-considered approval of all who were able to judge him, did not bury him more than he buried them.

Mr. Beecher. THE CHARGES AGAINST THE PASTOR OF PLYMOUTH CHURCH. Henry C. Bowen's Mother—He admits that he "Wronged Mr. Beecher—Mr. Tilton Dignifies His Charges Against His Pastor—A Remarkable Document.

Three men, earnestly desiring to remove all causes of offence existing between us, real or fancied; and to make Christian reparation for injuries done or supposed to have been done, by the past and to provide concord, good will, and love, for the future, do declare and covenant, each to the other, as follows: I, Henry C. Bowen, having given credit, perhaps without due consideration, to the charges against Mr. Beecher, and being influenced by the fact, as was natural to a man who receives impressions suddenly, to the extent of repeating them, (guardedly, however, and within limitations, and not for the purpose of exciting controversy, and the evidence of consultation, now feel that there is a full and complete reparation for the injuries done or supposed to have been done, by the past and to provide concord, good will, and love, for the future, do declare and covenant, each to the other, as follows:

There is a new disturbance about the fruits of a political acrimony—the Philadelphia Collectorship. Mr. Conly, the present incumbent, is not in favor of the Cameron claim; his refusal to concede the collectorship to the successor must be evolved from the contending elements of Pennsylvania politics. This statement is sufficient to indicate what trials are in store for the President and the reformed Civil Service.

Gen. Canby was buried in Indianapolis last Friday, with imposing funeral honors, the expenses of which were defrayed by the public. If it had depended upon his own fortune he could scarcely have been buried at all. This man, who had spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, who had never been disgraced by any act of dishonesty, who had been a faithful and efficient representative in a position where he did not win the well-considered approval of all who were able to judge him, did not bury him more than he buried them.

Gen. Canby was buried in Indianapolis last Friday, with imposing funeral honors, the expenses of which were defrayed by the public. If it had depended upon his own fortune he could scarcely have been buried at all. This man, who had spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, who had never been disgraced by any act of dishonesty, who had been a faithful and efficient representative in a position where he did not win the well-considered approval of all who were able to judge him, did not bury him more than he buried them.

Gen. Canby was buried in Indianapolis last Friday, with imposing funeral honors, the expenses of which were defrayed by the public. If it had depended upon his own fortune he could scarcely have been buried at all. This man, who had spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, who had never been disgraced by any act of dishonesty, who had been a faithful and efficient representative in a position where he did not win the well-considered approval of all who were able to judge him, did not bury him more than he buried them.

Gen. Canby was buried in Indianapolis last Friday, with imposing funeral honors, the expenses of which were defrayed by the public. If it had depended upon his own fortune he could scarcely have been buried at all. This man, who had spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, who had never been disgraced by any act of dishonesty, who had been a faithful and efficient representative in a position where he did not win the well-considered approval of all who were able to judge him, did not bury him more than he buried them.

Gen. Canby was buried in Indianapolis last Friday, with imposing funeral honors, the expenses of which were defrayed by the public. If it had depended upon his own fortune he could scarcely have been buried at all. This man, who had spent the greater part of his life in the service of his country, who had never been disgraced by any act of dishonesty, who had been a faithful and efficient representative in a position where he did not win the well-considered approval of all who were able to judge him, did not bury him more than he buried them.

Journal you would have ejected by force. I told you that I should inform Mr. Beecher of my own body, and to the date of my judgment undisturbed by you, authority from my employers. You have not retired from my presence. You had your violent words ceased ringing in my ears when I received your summary notice breaking my contract with the Independent and the Brooklyn Union. To the foregoing narrative of fact I have only to add my surprise and regret at the sudden interruption by your own act of what has been on my part a faithful service of fifteen years. Truly yours, THEODORE TILTON.

CAPT. JACK DEFENDED. The Editor of the Tribune. Sir: It is reported by a telegram that Capt. Jack and his band of 25 braves have resolved to die with their rifles in their hands, thus practically repeating the saying, "or Revolutionary fathers," "Give Liberty or Give Death." And when passion and prejudice subside, and a truthful history written future generations will esteem Capt. Jack as a hero and a patriot equal to any on the page of history. The idea of "average freemasonry," attached to him on the occasion of the late Gen. Canby and the Peace Commissioners, will have no weight when the provocation and all the circumstances are duly considered. That measure was but the natural consequence of an attempt to poison the Medoc by Capt. Bea. Wright 20 years ago the details of which have been given in the Tribune.

Disastrous Conflagration—List of Buildings Destroyed—Loss Estimated at one Million Dollars. Boston, May 30.—A fire broke out in the upper part of Haywood Co.'s large furniture warehouse, 41 Washington street, and is spreading with fearful rapidity the wind being strong from the north-west.

Terrible Boiler Explosion. Brussels, May 28.—A terrible boiler explosion occurred in a crowded work shop here today. Fourteen persons were injured, some of whom will die.

Anything You Want, from the finest to the cheapest, all and we know if you can't get it, EXAMINE OUR STOCK AND PRICES.

NEW HARDWARE STORE. MILLHEIM PA. W. J. McMANUAL of Millroy has started a branch store in Millheim where he intends carrying a full line of Hardware and Cutlery.

NEW CLOTHING STORE. A. STERNBERG. engaged to manage for I. L. Reissman in the corner building, opposite Hotel, store, Bellefonte, has established a new Clothing Store, where the best bargains in the county are offered.

NEW HARDWARE STORE. MILLHEIM PA. W. J. McMANUAL of Millroy has started a branch store in Millheim where he intends carrying a full line of Hardware and Cutlery.

GIVEN AWAY. A Fine German Chromo. We send an elegant Chromo, mounted and ready for framing, free to every agent for UNDERGROUND.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS! A. W. GRAFF. Has just received a large invoice of Spring Goods!

CARPETS! LOWEST CASH PRICES! The People's Drug Store. Next door to Wilson & Hicks' Hardware store, Allegheny St., BELLEFONTE, PA.

THE PEOPLE'S DRUG STORE. Next door to Wilson & Hicks' Hardware store, Allegheny St., BELLEFONTE, PA.

NEW ESTABLISHMENT. With New Goods & New Prices! NO. 5 BUSH ARCADE, BELLEFONTE, PA.

NEW CLOTHING STORE. A. STERNBERG. engaged to manage for I. L. Reissman in the corner building, opposite Hotel, store, Bellefonte, has established a new Clothing Store, where the best bargains in the county are offered.

NEW HARDWARE STORE. MILLHEIM PA. W. J. McMANUAL of Millroy has started a branch store in Millheim where he intends carrying a full line of Hardware and Cutlery.

NEW HARDWARE STORE. MILLHEIM PA. W. J. McMANUAL of Millroy has started a branch store in Millheim where he intends carrying a full line of Hardware and Cutlery.

MILLHEIM MARBLE WORKS. New Firm—New Enterprise. DEININGER & MUSSER. (Successors to B. O. DEININGER.) We would most respectfully inform the public, that they have taken charge of this old and successful establishment, and propose to carry on the same under renewed auspices.

J. ZELLER & SON DRUGGISTS. No 6 Brookerhoff Row, Bellefonte, Pa. Dealers in Drugs, Chemicals, Perfumery, Fancy Goods, &c., &c.

Gift & Flory's New Shoe Store! AT CENTRE HALL. They have new opened, and will constantly keep on hand a large stock of SHOES, GAITERS, & SLIPPERS, for men, women and children, from the best manufacturers in the country, and now offered at the

Gift & Flory's New Shoe Store! AT CENTRE HALL. They have new opened, and will constantly keep on hand a large stock of SHOES, GAITERS, & SLIPPERS, for men, women and children, from the best manufacturers in the country, and now offered at the

Gift & Flory's New Shoe Store! AT CENTRE HALL. They have new opened, and will constantly keep on hand a large stock of SHOES, GAITERS, & SLIPPERS, for men, women and children, from the best manufacturers in the country, and now offered at the

Gift & Flory's New Shoe Store! AT CENTRE HALL. They have new opened, and will constantly keep on hand a large stock of SHOES, GAITERS, & SLIPPERS, for men, women and children, from the best manufacturers in the country, and now offered at the

Gift & Flory's New Shoe Store! AT CENTRE HALL. They have new opened, and will constantly keep on hand a large stock of SHOES, GAITERS, & SLIPPERS, for men, women and children, from the best manufacturers in the country, and now offered at the

Gift & Flory's New Shoe Store! AT CENTRE HALL. They have new opened, and will constantly keep on hand a large stock of SHOES, GAITERS, & SLIPPERS, for men, women and children, from the best manufacturers in the country, and now offered at the NEW DISCOVERY. In Chemical and Medical Sciences. Dr. GARVIN'S TAIL REMEDIES. Cure Incurable Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, &c.

Dr. GARVIN'S TAIL REMEDIES. Cure Incurable Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, &c.

Dr. GARVIN'S TAIL REMEDIES. Cure Incurable Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, &c.

Dr. GARVIN'S TAIL REMEDIES. Cure Incurable Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, &c.

Dr. GARVIN'S TAIL REMEDIES. Cure Incurable Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, &c.

Dr. GARVIN'S TAIL REMEDIES. Cure Incurable Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, &c.

Dr. GARVIN'S TAIL REMEDIES. Cure Incurable Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, &c.

Dr. GARVIN'S TAIL REMEDIES. Cure Incurable Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, &c.