In winter it is too cold; in the summer the flies stray in, or, if they are netted, the dust sifts through the nets. Now, I can tell a person who inhabits such chambers when I pass him in the street—there is such a smell about his clothing. I always wish for a sniff of cologne, or hartshorn, or burnt feathers, or some thing of the sort, to 'take the taste out.' A house that is never aired has every nook and corner filled with stale odors of cooked meats, boiled vegetables, especially cabbage and onions, which, as the weeks go by, literally reek in their hiding places.

Trepreser, says it cured him of Rheu-matism when all else falled, THE BOSADALIS IN CONNECTION WITH OUR days ago, on foot all the way from Mississippi, a venerable sick man, who had KROMER'S OUS ILLS trudged all the weary distance thither to obtain hospital-treatment, and was accompanied by a small brown dog. When told that he must give up his dog before he could go to the City Hospital, will cure Chills and Fever, Liver Compens, etc. We gusrantee Rosadaus all other Blood Purifiers. bend for I the poor old man took the dog in his arms, and, with the tears running down his face, replied that the dog was the best friend he had in the world, and that he would rather die from want in the streets with his dog Tim, than live in comfort without him. This exhibition of affection was irresistible, and Esquire Pat Joyes, the commissioner, gave him a permit to enter the hospital, nd to carry his dog with him; at the same time giving him money to buy a muzzle, in order that the dog might enjoy the limits of the hospital grounds.

SINGULAR STONE,-The Sacramento A Pet Chicken.

The Twenty-third Regiment of artillery in the French army has a white Cochin-China rooster upon which a great value is placed on account of his meritorious services in the field of battle. This cock passed through the half inches in length, about an inch in diameter in the centre, and tapering to a point at either end. About half an inch from one end a hole has been drilled through it, and a groove cut from the hole around the effd of the from the hole around the end of the stone, as if it was intended to pass a line through the hole, and suspend the stone by it. The rock, however, is so excessively hard that it is almost impossible to scratch it, and the question, possible to a control of an instrument the aborigine that did the drilling—which was probably performed hundreds of years ago-used.
