

LOCAL ITEMS.

LOCAL NEWS.—Our friends, especially those who are sending in local news, will be glad to see their names in this column. The circulation of this paper is larger than that of any other paper in the county. Business men will therefore find this one of the best advertising mediums. We invite all interested to come and inspect our list for further information.

ALWAYS BUY A GOOD BOOK.—Livestock book, entitled, "Lost and Found," containing 800 pages, and filled with beautiful engravings of the various breeds of horses, dogs, cats, etc. It is not necessary to give any further description of this interesting work, as it is sufficient for all. I claim the right to supply all desiring to purchase in Centre county, having the exclusive agency, and the book can be obtained on all terms. I will also call on as many as possible at their homes. All desiring to buy this book give the undersigned their order. Price low, and no trouble to get it. Write to W. M. WOLF, Sec'y, Agent for Centre county, Centre Hill, Pa.

MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE CENTRE HALL WATER CO.—The stockholders of the above Corporation are requested to meet at the lower school room, on Thursday evening, June 17th, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of adopting such new laws and making such alterations in the present constitution as may be deemed necessary. A full attendance is requested. F. KURTZ, Pres't, W. M. WOLF, Sec'y.

—We are in receipt of a copy of "History of Lock Haven, with a Review of its Business and Progress for the year 1872-3," compiled by Ed. R. Haines. This little work gives a complete history of the town, its flourishing city, and is well preserving for reference.

—The following reads have announced themselves willing to accept county offices: For Commissioner—J. A. Deery, of Centre; R. H. Strohecker, of Adams; Adam D. Swartz, of Banner; Capt. Daniel Ferguson, For Treasurer—Joseph R. Mitchell, of Banner and W. W. Rodgers, of Nittany.

—The Evangelical church of this place, intend erecting a church in summer, and have nearly all the material on the ground for that purpose.

—Prof. Henry Meyer is about opening a Normal School at Bebersburg. Mr. M. is one of the foremost teachers in this county.

—The next County Sabbath School Convention, will be held at Spring Mills, in 1914.

—The Citizens' Band of Bealsburg, assisted by a string band, will hold a festival on the 4th and 5th days of July. Refreshments of all kinds will be served out daily and evening. All are invited to attend.

—Always go to Bull's opera house for the store, & H. Strohecker, for cheap groceries. He studies to please customers, and gives you nothing but what is good and at small profit. Bull's grocery will be found one of the best in Bellefonte.

—Services will be held in the Reformed church, at Bealsburg, on next Sabbath at 2 o'clock, on account of the death of Rev. P. S. Fisher.

—Attorney General Williams is preparing his opinion on the questions concerning the Modocs. It will be completed in two or three days.

—Every man can do his own paving now, in first class style, by purchasing his cigars and tobacco, of Hiram Hofer, in the Conrad house, Bellefonte, where the choicest articles are always to be found.

—School directors are requested to be prompt in sending in their Annual Reports. Printed instructions for making out reports will be found on the blanks. The law requires a statement of the finances of the district to be published. The reports will be approved by the Co. Sup. where it is known that this has not been done. Gregg township has the honor to be the first this year, to report. Who will be next? R. M. MAGEE.

—J. K. Runkle, our Barns farmer, says that he has plenty of wheat that measures over four feet in the stalk, and is nicely out in head.

—The majority of our young folks, appear to amuse themselves by playing croquet.

—Ed. Perks' new brick yard, at Philadelphia, has the capacity for turning out 80,000 brick per day. We should like to see Perks' elected State Treasurer and "turn out" the treasury rig as well.

—It is claimed that the largest day's saving ever done by any one in the United States, was done by the mill of Saylor, Day & Moyer, at the mouth of Beech Creek, at Clinton, on the 28th ult., at which time 118,001 feet of three-quarter white pine were cut in 111 hours, including 40 minutes stoppage.

—An infant child of Jacob Zimmerman, Moshannon Mines, above Onondaga, died on Wednesday last week from drinking concentrated whisky which its mother had been using while washing during the temporary absence of its mother.

—A young man named Moore, employed on a saw mill at Williamsport, killed a comrade named Isaac Reigle, on Monday evening. Moore was always a peevish youth, but it appears that he had quarrel with Reigle previously, and got the worst of it, when he took this terrible revenge.

—The Lewistown Gazette says a "chopper name Duffy, killed a black snake last week at Butler's Gap, 15 feet and 9 inches long and 1 1/2 in circumference. On the same day he despatched 4 rattlesnakes."

—We had a very heavy thunder shower on last Tuesday afternoon.

—Wm. C. Duncan gave the nomination for Senator in the Union county district.

—The cut worm is playing sad havoc with the growing corn in some parts of this county, necessitating re-planting.

—A meeting of landlords representing the counties of Blair, Huntingdon, Mifflin, Centre, Clearfield and on two others was held at Tyrone last week. The committee named are all interested within the limits of the workings of the law commonly known as "local option," or, in other words, the anti-liquor law, and the prime object of the meeting was to devise ways and means by which to make good the losses daily entailed upon the landlords by the recent absolute abatement of the whisky traffic.

—At Newberry, Lycoming county, on Wednesday morning a young man by the name of D. C. ...

—A circus passing through here on Wednesday morning for Bellefonte; it stopped at Millheim on Tuesday, where it had a very slim attendance.

—After July 1st, the postage on newspapers will be 5 cents per quarter (3 months). This law will undoubtedly be repealed at the next meeting of Congress, hence it will be best to pay postage for a longer time than 6 months.

—Rev. Hamill will administer the Lord's Supper, in the Presbyterian church, at Centre Hill, on Sabbath next.

—Sheriff Risenmuth, of Perry county, has been prosecuted for not enforcing the law relative to the removal of fish baskets in the Juniata.

—The agent of the Superior Mower will give a trial of that machine, at the Old Fort, on Tuesday, June 22nd. An invitation is respectfully extended to all farmers in particular, to be present, and witness the operation. The field will be open to all other competitors with their machines, subject to the rules laid down for the occasion.

JOHN H. OENKRIK, Agent for Centre Co.

President Grant and family, and Gen. Babcock, his secretary, left here in the early train this morning for Long Branch.

So says a Washington dispatch of 6th. That's about all that one hears of Grant from the national capital, that he has left it for this or that sporting place. A blessing for the country it will be when he leaves Washington finally.

AN ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENT.—Receipts and Expenditures of Potter School District for the year ending June 30, 1915.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures. Receipts include: Bal on B. du. 101.62, June 1872 600.47, Order of W. Stump 60.00, mfg comp. 40.00, mfg tuition 20.48, Amt received Jan. 213.20, State appropriation for 407.34, Amt received from A. Reaman on lumber 5.00, mfg comp. 40.00, mfg tuition 20.48, Amt received without 155.82, Amt received from D. F. Love, 1900.00, Int. on P. du. 84.85. Total receipts 6639.70. Expenditures include: Paid teachers' salary 273.44, for lot, deed and surveying for school house 102.00, H. R. Smith for new school house and paint 1106.00, S. S. Farmer first payment on school house 600.00, R. S. S. R. Co. 43.84, Shredlings & Co for 44.12, J. R. C. T. for 13.88, for hauling coal 68.84, for 10 school houses 158.00, for kindling wood 14.00, for 10 school houses 8.00, for 10 school houses 1.60, for 10 school houses 42.00, A. Reaman for stove, pipes, etc. 27.65, for repairing school house 73.70, for 10 school houses 60.92, for 10 school houses 16.00, for Penn's District Register 5.00, Geo. Stever for filling 5.00, for 10 school houses 8.00, for 10 school houses 7.51, J. J. Army for stationery and postage 31.00, 5 per cent. on 163.94, Commission of 2 per cent. on 5708.19 114.16. Total and in due treasury from sources 8947.44.

THE NEW GAME AND FISH LAWS.—Many changes were made in the Game and Fish laws during the last session of the Legislature. That our readers may be thoroughly posted on these points, and that they avoid making themselves liable to a prosecution through ignorance of the law, we publish the following summary of the late act defining the time and manner in which fish and game of various kinds may be taken within the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

GAME.—No person shall pursue or kill any deer, save only from the first day of September to the first day of January, in any year.

—The pursuit of deer with dogs is forbidden at all times. Trapping of deer, except for family use, is also forbidden. The penalty for the violation of the above law is a fine of $50. Any constable or town official may kill any dog that habitually pursues deer, and the owner thereof is liable to a penalty of $10 for each dog or fawn killed by such dog.

—Rabbits may be killed from the first day of January of each year. The penalty for killing one in any year is $5 for each rabbit so killed. Hunting rabbits with a ferret is forbidden under a penalty of $10 for each rabbit so killed.

—Wild Turkeys may be killed from the first day of October until the first day of January of each year. The penalty for killing one of these is $10 for each turkey so killed.

—Snipe may be killed from the first day of September until the twentieth day of April of each year. The penalty for killing one of these is $10 for each snipe so killed.

—Woodcock may be killed from the first day of August until the first day of January of each year. The penalty for killing one of these is $10 for each woodcock so killed.

—Field Plover may be killed from the first day of August until the first day of January of each year. The penalty for killing one of these is $10 for each plover so killed.

—No person shall kill, or expose for sale, or have in his or her possession after the same has been killed, any Quail or Virginia Partridge, except only from the first day of November until the first day of January of each year.

—No person shall kill or trap or have in his or her possession after the same is killed, any Robin, Nighthawk, Sparrow, Lark, Woodcock, Catbird, Blue-bird, or any other insectivorous bird, at any time, under a penalty of $5 for each bird so killed.

—No person shall rob or destroy the nest or eggs of any wild bird, excepting such birds as are destructive to game and fish, or for such offence.

—No person shall, at any time or place, take any Wild Turkey, Partridge or Quail, or Woodcock by means of any device, trap, net or any other contrivance, under a penalty of $10 for every bird so taken. Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the trapping of game for propagation or preservation over winter, from the 20th of December to the 1st day of February next following.

—Shooting on Sunday is forbidden under a penalty of $10.

—No corporation shall throw any culm or coal into any stream, or into the waters of the State, under a penalty of $50 for each offence, in addition to liability for all damages inflicted.

—No person shall at any time catch any speckled trout with any device, save only such as is provided in this section, in waters inhabited by them, under a penalty of $25 for each offence.

—It shall not be lawful for any person to place any net or trap across any of the canals, creeks or rivulets of this State, under a penalty of $25 for each offence.

—In any waters of this State inhabited by trout or bass, it shall not be lawful to catch fish with any net the meshes of which shall not be over three inches, under a penalty of $25.

—Salmon or speckled trout may be caught from the first day of April until the first day of August of each year. The penalty for taking out of season, $10.

—Any person trespassing on any preserve or fish pond is liable to a penalty of $100 to the owner, in addition to damages.

—Bass and pike may be caught from the first day of June until the first day of March of each year, by hook and line. The penalty for taking out of season, or in any other manner than by hook or line, $25 for each offence.

—No person shall catch any trout, bass or other fish in any of the waters of this State by shutting or drawing small nets or seines therein, when the water shall be partly or wholly drawn off, under a penalty of $25 for each offence.

—In all cases where the shooting of game or catching of fish is prohibited in any county or counties, for a fixed term of years, by special act, nothing in the above act shall be construed to alter or invalidate such special acts.

—The burgesses of the cities and towns of this Commonwealth, to require their police and constabulary force, and it is hereby made their duty, and the duty of the clerks of markets of said towns and cities, to search out and arrest all persons violating any of the provisions of this act. Any person having a knowledge of any of these provisions may make information of the same, and one-half of the penalty shall go to the informer.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We are pained to chronicle the death of Mr. Henry Specht, a young and worthy citizen of Adamsburg. The deceased in company with a number of other men were raising the frame work of a large bank about at Drees's tannery on the side of which was raised a time, three sides were put up at their proper places, the last side was then put up and Mr. Specht ascended the frame to assist in putting one of the rafters in position when the side of the bank fell. Mr. Specht jumped, and the falling frame struck him on the back part of the head, he was unconscious from the time of the accident on Friday morning and lingered until night-fall when death ended his sufferings. He was a former member of the 76th Pa. Vol's, and served until the close of the late war. He leaves a wife, child and many warm friends to mourn his loss.

June the 6th, last Friday, was a bloody day, the record of that day's crime has the following headings: Attempted Murder of a woman by a begging tramp at Hazelton—Murder of a woman in Kansas and horse burned by soldiers—Attempted murder of a woman at Albion, New York—Murder of an old woman by her daughter in Biaghnam, etc.

There is evidently no nonsense about the farmers of Carroll County Ill. In a convention recently they most forcibly resolved that the "increase of Congressional salaries in these hard times is an infernal outrage upon the working people of the country. We don't remember seeing more concise statement of popular sentiment upon the salary rag.

THE NEW GAME AND FISH LAWS.—Many changes were made in the Game and Fish laws during the last session of the Legislature. That our readers may be thoroughly posted on these points, and that they avoid making themselves liable to a prosecution through ignorance of the law, we publish the following summary of the late act defining the time and manner in which fish and game of various kinds may be taken within the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

GAME.—No person shall pursue or kill any deer, save only from the first day of September to the first day of January, in any year.

—The pursuit of deer with dogs is forbidden at all times. Trapping of deer, except for family use, is also forbidden. The penalty for the violation of the above law is a fine of $50. Any constable or town official may kill any dog that habitually pursues deer, and the owner thereof is liable to a penalty of $10 for each dog or fawn killed by such dog.

—Rabbits may be killed from the first day of January of each year. The penalty for killing one in any year is $5 for each rabbit so killed. Hunting rabbits with a ferret is forbidden under a penalty of $10 for each rabbit so killed.

—Wild Turkeys may be killed from the first day of October until the first day of January of each year. The penalty for killing one of these is $10 for each turkey so killed.

—Snipe may be killed from the first day of September until the twentieth day of April of each year. The penalty for killing one of these is $10 for each snipe so killed.

—Woodcock may be killed from the first day of August until the first day of January of each year. The penalty for killing one of these is $10 for each woodcock so killed.

—Field Plover may be killed from the first day of August until the first day of January of each year. The penalty for killing one of these is $10 for each plover so killed.

—No person shall kill, or expose for sale, or have in his or her possession after the same has been killed, any Quail or Virginia Partridge, except only from the first day of November until the first day of January of each year.

—No person shall kill or trap or have in his or her possession after the same is killed, any Robin, Nighthawk, Sparrow, Lark, Woodcock, Catbird, Blue-bird, or any other insectivorous bird, at any time, under a penalty of $5 for each bird so killed.

—No person shall rob or destroy the nest or eggs of any wild bird, excepting such birds as are destructive to game and fish, or for such offence.

—No person shall, at any time or place, take any Wild Turkey, Partridge or Quail, or Woodcock by means of any device, trap, net or any other contrivance, under a penalty of $10 for every bird so taken. Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the trapping of game for propagation or preservation over winter, from the 20th of December to the 1st day of February next following.

—Shooting on Sunday is forbidden under a penalty of $10.

—No corporation shall throw any culm or coal into any stream, or into the waters of the State, under a penalty of $50 for each offence, in addition to liability for all damages inflicted.

—No person shall at any time catch any speckled trout with any device, save only such as is provided in this section, in waters inhabited by them, under a penalty of $25 for each offence.

—It shall not be lawful for any person to place any net or trap across any of the canals, creeks or rivulets of this State, under a penalty of $25 for each offence.

—In any waters of this State inhabited by trout or bass, it shall not be lawful to catch fish with any net the meshes of which shall not be over three inches, under a penalty of $25.

—Salmon or speckled trout may be caught from the first day of April until the first day of August of each year. The penalty for taking out of season, $10.

—Any person trespassing on any preserve or fish pond is liable to a penalty of $100 to the owner, in addition to damages.

—Bass and pike may be caught from the first day of June until the first day of March of each year, by hook and line. The penalty for taking out of season, or in any other manner than by hook or line, $25 for each offence.

—No person shall catch any trout, bass or other fish in any of the waters of this State by shutting or drawing small nets or seines therein, when the water shall be partly or wholly drawn off, under a penalty of $25 for each offence.

—In all cases where the shooting of game or catching of fish is prohibited in any county or counties, for a fixed term of years, by special act, nothing in the above act shall be construed to alter or invalidate such special acts.

—The burgesses of the cities and towns of this Commonwealth, to require their police and constabulary force, and it is hereby made their duty, and the duty of the clerks of markets of said towns and cities, to search out and arrest all persons violating any of the provisions of this act. Any person having a knowledge of any of these provisions may make information of the same, and one-half of the penalty shall go to the informer.

TRIAL OF A LIFE INSURANCE CASE IN BALTIMORE.—THE COMPANIES REFUSE TO PAY THE INSURANCE A CHANGE THAT THE INSURED MUST BE A BODY SO THAT IT SHOULD BE MISTAKEN FOR HIS OWN.

Baltimore, June 4.—An interesting life insurance case, involving some nice questions as to identity, etc., has been before Judge Bond in the United States Circuit Court here for the last week and a half. The case will be substantially stated as follows: Early in the winter of 1872, one Winfield Scott Goss, formerly of Nashville, Tenn. but then residing here, effected an insurance on his life to the amount of $25,000, in four different companies; in the Travelers of Hartford, Conn., for $10,000 and for $5,000 in each of the Centennial, Knickerbocker and Mutual Life Insurance Companies of New York.

June the 6th, last Friday, was a bloody day, the record of that day's crime has the following headings: Attempted Murder of a woman by a begging tramp at Hazelton—Murder of a woman in Kansas and horse burned by soldiers—Attempted murder of a woman at Albion, New York—Murder of an old woman by her daughter in Biaghnam, etc.

There is evidently no nonsense about the farmers of Carroll County Ill. In a convention recently they most forcibly resolved that the "increase of Congressional salaries in these hard times is an infernal outrage upon the working people of the country. We don't remember seeing more concise statement of popular sentiment upon the salary rag.

THE NEW GAME AND FISH LAWS.—Many changes were made in the Game and Fish laws during the last session of the Legislature. That our readers may be thoroughly posted on these points, and that they avoid making themselves liable to a prosecution through ignorance of the law, we publish the following summary of the late act defining the time and manner in which fish and game of various kinds may be taken within the jurisdiction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

GAME.—No person shall pursue or kill any deer, save only from the first day of September to the first day of January, in any year.

—The pursuit of deer with dogs is forbidden at all times. Trapping of deer, except for family use, is also forbidden. The penalty for the violation of the above law is a fine of $50. Any constable or town official may kill any dog that habitually pursues deer, and the owner thereof is liable to a penalty of $10 for each dog or fawn killed by such dog.

—Rabbits may be killed from the first day of January of each year. The penalty for killing one in any year is $5 for each rabbit so killed. Hunting rabbits with a ferret is forbidden under a penalty of $10 for each rabbit so killed.

—Wild Turkeys may be killed from the first day of October until the first day of January of each year. The penalty for killing one of these is $10 for each turkey so killed.

—Snipe may be killed from the first day of September until the twentieth day of April of each year. The penalty for killing one of these is $10 for each snipe so killed.

—Woodcock may be killed from the first day of August until the first day of January of each year. The penalty for killing one of these is $10 for each woodcock so killed.

—Field Plover may be killed from the first day of August until the first day of January of each year. The penalty for killing one of these is $10 for each plover so killed.

—No person shall kill, or expose for sale, or have in his or her possession after the same has been killed, any Quail or Virginia Partridge, except only from the first day of November until the first day of January of each year.

—No person shall kill or trap or have in his or her possession after the same is killed, any Robin, Nighthawk, Sparrow, Lark, Woodcock, Catbird, Blue-bird, or any other insectivorous bird, at any time, under a penalty of $5 for each bird so killed.

—No person shall rob or destroy the nest or eggs of any wild bird, excepting such birds as are destructive to game and fish, or for such offence.

—No person shall, at any time or place, take any Wild Turkey, Partridge or Quail, or Woodcock by means of any device, trap, net or any other contrivance, under a penalty of $10 for every bird so taken. Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the trapping of game for propagation or preservation over winter, from the 20th of December to the 1st day of February next following.

—Shooting on Sunday is forbidden under a penalty of $10.

—No corporation shall throw any culm or coal into any stream, or into the waters of the State, under a penalty of $50 for each offence, in addition to liability for all damages inflicted.

—No person shall at any time catch any speckled trout with any device, save only such as is provided in this section, in waters inhabited by them, under a penalty of $25 for each offence.

—It shall not be lawful for any person to place any net or trap across any of the canals, creeks or rivulets of this State, under a penalty of $25 for each offence.

—In any waters of this State inhabited by trout or bass, it shall not be lawful to catch fish with any net the meshes of which shall not be over three inches, under a penalty of $25.

—Salmon or speckled trout may be caught from the first day of April until the first day of August of each year. The penalty for taking out of season, $10.

—Any person trespassing on any preserve or fish pond is liable to a penalty of $100 to the owner, in addition to damages.

—Bass and pike may be caught from the first day of June until the first day of March of each year, by hook and line. The penalty for taking out of season, or in any other manner than by hook or line, $25 for each offence.

—No person shall catch any trout, bass or other fish in any of the waters of this State by shutting or drawing small nets or seines therein, when the water shall be partly or wholly drawn off, under a penalty of $25 for each offence.

—In all cases where the shooting of game or catching of fish is prohibited in any county or counties, for a fixed term of years, by special act, nothing in the above act shall be construed to alter or invalidate such special acts.

—The burgesses of the cities and towns of this Commonwealth, to require their police and constabulary force, and it is hereby made their duty, and the duty of the clerks of markets of said towns and cities, to search out and arrest all persons violating any of the provisions of this act. Any person having a knowledge of any of these provisions may make information of the same, and one-half of the penalty shall go to the informer.

The Osgood Indians have attacked the herds and killed and scalped a man on the new Ellsworth trail, Kansas.

It is reported that the Bank of France will advance the funds necessary to complete the payment of the war indemnity and the evacuation of French territory by German troops will immediately follow.

Paris, May 31.—The Orientals in the Assembly are seeking an alliance with the Legationists and Bonapartists. The left centre, however, decline to enter their proposition.

COMMENCED ITS THIRD YEAR.—We are in receipt of the Pittsburgh People's Monthly (Illustrated) for June. This month keeps fully up, in the excellence of its illustration and the variety of its reading matter, with those which have gone before. A new serial called "The People's Monthly" is a success. The circulation is over double that of last year and it bears on every page the impress of prosperity. With its beautiful illustrations for the home; its fine tinted paper; its "Household" and "Boys and Girls" departments, we don't know a paper in the country which surpasses it in elegant appearance, or attractiveness. It now gives away to every subscriber a very choice and rich chromo or a 2x4 1/2 inch engraving. The fact that it has over 100,000 subscribers is a sufficient guarantee to families that, as a paper for the home, it is arrayed on the side of virtue, purity, and morality. Price only $1.50 per year. Agents wanted, in big commission, in every section. Address: PEOPLES MONTHLY, Pittsburgh.

THE BEAUTIFUL NEW CHROMO.—"PET."

This is the appropriate name of a new, superb, and wonderful-looking 16x20 inch chromo, made in Boston by the best chromo-makers of the country, and now the exclusive property of the Pittsburgh Peoples Monthly, the popular, illustrated paper for home. Large and elegant as it is, it gives away to every subscriber only $1.50 per year. Every day in this month of the month, it is given away in this or any other paper. It is published in this or any other paper. It makes home matters a specialty; its illustrations are generally in line, and, in fact, it is a beautiful paper. It is published in this or any other paper. It makes home matters a specialty; its illustrations are generally in line, and, in fact, it is a beautiful paper. It is published in this or any other paper. It makes home matters a specialty; its illustrations are generally in line, and, in fact, it is a beautiful paper.

ORPHANS COURT SALE.—By virtue of an order of the Orphans Court of Centre county, there will be sold to public sale, on the premises, on TUESDAY, JUNE 16th, next, at 2 o'clock.

VALUABLE FARM OF 220 ACRES.—known as the property of Henry Rothrock, Sr., deceased, situated about three miles east of Bellefonte, Centre county, Pa. The premises is tillable and under fence.

170 ACRES are cleared, and in good state of cultivation. The balance consists of ORIGINAL PINE AND OAK TIMBER.

Upon the property are beds of iron, cement and limestone. It will be sold in two or three parts, if desired, and private bids will be received until the day of sale. One-third to remain in the premises as dower according to the will of the deceased, one-third to be paid on confirmation of sale, and the remainder in one year thereafter with interest, to be secured by mortgage on the premises.

NANCY A. ROTHROCK, JOHN HOFFER, Captains.

CAPTAIN JACK WORTH SIXTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.—An enterprising individual writes to the government from Tiffin, Ohio, offering to pay $60,000 for the privilege of exhibiting Captain Jack throughout the country during the period of sixty days. The government promises to keep Jack securely treated him well and return him to the City at the expiration of sixty days, provided he does not commit suicide, in which case the government will pay only $1,000 per day for the time he remains in the showman's hands. It is proposed to pay $30,000 upon the delivery of Jack at Chicago and the balance at the close of the two months.

RETAIL PRICE LIST.—PLAIN AND FANCY, JOBBING AND COMMISSION HOUSE OF BURNSIDE & THOMAS, Bellefonte, Pa.

2 good Cigars for.....1c
White sugar per pound.....13c
Domestica sugar per pound.....13c
Rio coffee.....25c
Arabica coffee per pound.....30c
Best washing soap per pound.....7c
Best starch per pound.....10c
Best bright Navy tobacco per pound.....30c
Best Black Navy tobacco.....30c
"double thick and bright black 30c
Fine cut chewing tobacco per pound.....30c
Best sugar-cured Hams per pound.....17c
No. 1 black pepper per pound.....30c
Molasses per gallon.....10c
Large size dairy salt per sack.....15c
Molasses per gallon.....10c
Coal oil in 5 gal. lots 35c. per gallon best article.

LEVI MURRAY, NOTARY PUBLIC, SORBINER AND CONVEYANCER, CENTRE HILL, PA.

EDWARD J. EVANS & CO., NURSERYMEN & SEEDSMEN, York, Pa.

Dentist, Millheim. Offers his professional services to the public. He is prepared to perform all operations in the dental profession.

ADMINISTRATORS NOTICE.—Letters testamentary on the estate of John Love, of Penn. twp., dec'd, have been granted to the undersigned, who requests all persons having claims against said estate to make immediate payment, and those having demands against the same to present them duly authenticated by law for settlement.

SOMETHING NEW.—An elegant Alarm for 25 cents. Holding 20 full sized cards bound in 100 full cover with hook and eye. Price 25c. Order a sample, sent by mail. Each card is for 25 cents. 3 for 60c, or 5 for $1. Address: Burrow & Co., Centre Hill, Pa.

FARMERS READ THIS.—The superior Reaper & Mower, is a candidate for favor to which the attention of Centre county farmers is called. The Superior is manufactured in Wheeling, W. Va., and has a large sale, and obtained many high recommendations in Ohio, and other States. This machine is distinguished by its simplicity and all unnecessary traps which many other machines are afflicted. It is simple in construction, strong and durable, easily managed, and light draught. The Superior is fully warranted to do