

LOCAL ITEMS.

Mr. Geo. L. Goodhart, had two fine Berkshire pigs at the fair, fellows that make one's mouth water to see them.

The mountains and woods now look like a vast forest garden, and the sight from the top of Nittany mountain is grand beyond description. We challenge any other part of the world to excel it.

The man that puts up door-bells was in town last week, and came across a fellow who don't believe in bells; he said he once had a bell on his house, and he wrote he never again had anything to do with any bellfellow that, as they are so likely to fool a fellow.

The Reberburg Luth. charge being without a pastor at present, Rev. J. A. Bright, of Aronburg, preaches for those congregations temporarily.

The grain fields in this county have a fine appearance just now.

There will be a great deal of soft corn in this county, this fall.

Read the advertisement of Z. B. Kreise & Co., Milroy, they intend that the people of Pennsylvania shall save money by buying their boots, shoes, etc., of them.

Mr. Tobias, of this place, whose fall from the hayrack to the barnyard of Mr. Dinger's barn, was recently mentioned, has not yet been able to walk from the injuries sustained in his hip.

John Irvin, on his vacationing trip, a week ago, got to Millheim, where he was met by outstretched doctor, Bill Musser, and the following conversation ensued:

Mr. Irvin—Well, Mr. Musser, I think you demonstrate down here should do something for me once!

Mr. Musser—Well, Mr. Irvin, I just tell you that it is, during the war, that you were for bagging all us democrats, and now you come down here and ask us to vote for you. I tell you Mr. Irvin, right straight out, we don't do it.

Mr. Christian Dale, of Harris twp., the venerable grower of pumpkins and vegetables was at the fair, last week, as usual, with a fine display. We wish, particularly, to refer to his monstrous ones, which he raised ten tons from one-third acre of ground. These are what are known as "big" pumpkins.

The Turner Republics, outside of its wooden building, is a pretty fair copy of a chapter from scripture, once a week, and it would be a good idea to read it to our readers, or which would be the next best thing, let it copy from the editorial columns of the REPORTER, and afford its readers some wholesome political reading.

J. H. Harpster, one of our Nimitzards, shot 117 quail, thus far, this season. On Saturday last, he and Benj. Arney brought down 22.

The installation ceremonies of Rev. King, as pastor of the Bellefonte Reformed church will take place on Sunday, Oct. 26th.

The Centre Co. Fair, held at Bellefonte, last week, was one of the best and most successful ever held in this county. The display in every department was better than at any previous exhibition. Among the live stock were many fine hogs, horned cattle and hogs, all of the best and most noted breeds.

The display of the products of the soil was a fair show of what can be raised in Centre county, and was creditable to our farmers, while the department for domestic manufactures and fancy articles was full, and completely representing a wide range of what was constantly crowded by visitors.

On "Sunday the crowd was immense, and ex-celled anything ever witnessed in this county." The trotting course was constantly occupied by men and boys, and the inside of the ring "y" base-ball players.

Several bands of music were entertained, among which we noticed the Philadelphia Band, which disconcerted a fine musical performance to be heard at this year's exhibition, and pronounced it the largest and best fair yet held in the county.

In Fair territory 18 votes were cast for Isaac G. "Goroon," instead of Gordon, a mistake in the radical ticket, for supreme judge.

On last Monday morning about break of day, a horse belonging to Mr. George Swab, near Linden Hill, fell down a well, a distance of some 24 feet. The horse broke through the plank and went down feet of water in the well at the time, and Mr. Swab's other horse stood around the well, looking on as their companion made his exit from terra firma, and they seemed to be much alarmed at the sudden disappearance of one of their number, wondering, perhaps, whether he had a through ticket for China. The groans of the unfortunate animal in the water were heard by Mr. Swab in the house, and on going out to see what was up, found that one of his horses was "down" as above stated.

Neighbors to the number of twenty soon hurried to the scene of trouble, and by means of ropes and belts, the animal was pulled out of its watery grave, and went quacking, having sustained some cuts and bruises, but none of a nature to render the horse unserviceable.

S. R. Gettig, of Gregg twp., intends soon to move to Virginia. We are sorry to lose Mr. Gettig, he was a good citizen, and a man of influence in his neighborhood.

Miller & Son has just opened a Drug store at Centre Hall, and are now supplied with a full line of fresh drugs, embracing every thing in that line needed by the public, including the most approved patent medicines. The community are invited to see their new establishment.

In Potter township there were nearly 100 democratic voters absent from the polls on Tuesday.

Don't forget that Theodore Deshner, opposite Bush's arcade, is a practical gunner, and keeps constantly on hand a full assortment of all descriptions, as well as ammunition and all articles connected with the gun trade, and all kinds of fishing tackle.

S. E. Gettig's sale of personal property, near Farmers' Mills, on 16 Nov.

The farm of John Dinger, dec'd., in Penn twp., is advertised in the Reporter, at public sale.

The farm of Geo. Granly, dec'd., in Sugar Valley, is advertised in the Reporter, at public sale.

A valuable farm in Buffalo Valley, Union co., is advertised in the Reporter at public sale.

The M'Inion farm in Potter twp., is advertised in the Reporter at public sale.

THE ELECTION.

Mr. Orvis may well feel proud of the vote cast for him last Tuesday—the intelligence, decency and sobriety of Centre county gave him their support.

The rabble voted against him and attempted his defeat. Many of the most respectable republicans voted for him, because they knew in him a representative who would be an honor to his constituency. There were some professing to belong to the democratic fold, who secretly worked for his defeat—these joined with the whiskey element of the radical party and voted for Miller—nine tenths of the vote cast for Levi Miller was made up of that portion of all parties that would prefer to stand upon a keg of old rye for a platform and who permitted their tastes to lead them in their choice, rather than support a statesman and a man of known honesty and ability.

It is an act of which they cannot boast and which they must feel ashamed of.

We are glad that the respectable republicans saw that the nominee of their party was the creature of the lowest element that often controls politics, and that they rose above party and cast their votes for John H. Orvis.

They will never need feel ashamed of it—Mr. Orvis was the representative of the people, last winter, and he will again prove true to his important trust.

The democratic party of the state, and the honest men who yearn to see corruption driven from our legislature have turned their eyes to Centre county, I pray that our gallant member will, winter returned to continue in the great work of reform which he inaugurated. The liquor element on their part combined, openly where it was safe, and secretly where that answered better, to defeat him. His defeat under such circumstances would have been as much an honor to Mr. Orvis as success, yes, a thousand times more honorable than success under the flag of the inebriate. When we have good men up for positions, let all good men make it a rule to vote for them, in that way alone can our government be purified, and we are glad that the intelligent and respectable portion of the citizens of Centre took this view at the election on last Tuesday and cast their votes for John H. Orvis, for Assembly, while the remainder voted for Levi Miller.
