How Boston Grows.

The Assassination of Gen. McCook. The friends of Wintermute, who shot

Boston and the four towns surround-The friends of Wintermute, who shot Gen. McCook, have made statements in which they say that from the time Gen. McCook first struck Wintermute, in the saloon, until the evening of the next day, Wintermute was in a demented state, having been so stunned by the blow thet he was not conscious of what ing it, which were included in the aning it, which were included in the an-nexation movement, voted upon the ac-ceptance of the act. Boston decided favorably for all the applicants for an-nexation by an average vote of nearly six thousand, the opposition vote av-eraging about fifteen hundred. Charles-blow that he was not conscions of what was passing, or responsible for his ac-tions, in proof of which they refer to his returning to the meeting and inter-rupting it, and using the unnatural langrage he did there, as saying he had been badly whipped, &c. It is also said that McCook's language was insulting and unbearable as it well could be be-

Life on a Prison Ship.

The Signal Office at Washington has compiled the reports of the tremendous storm of August 24, and it presents a truly frightful exhibit. The report is made up from official data, the most re-liable log books and accurate sta-tistics. It sums up a total of one thousand and thirty-two vessels known to have been destroyed during the 24th and 25th of August in the Gulf of Bt. Lawrence and around the coasts of Nova Scotia, Cape Broton and New-foundland. Ninety additional vessels were overwhelmed in the same tempest before it reached Nova Scotia, while six hundred lives were lost and nine hundred buildings injured or demol-A Reminiscence of the Revolutionary War. A description of life on board the "Jersey" prison ship during the Revo-lutionary War, is a fair sample of the life of the prisoners on board of the rest; for, although the Jersey has gained a bad pre-eminence as a prison-ship, which would naturally lead many to suppose that her prisoners alone were subjected to suffering and privation, the testimony of those confined in the other nony of those confined in the other vessels prove clearly that their treat-ment was everywhere the same. The only difference lay in the fact that the Jersey was larger than the others, and continued in the service longer. Of all

NEW YORK, 1873-4. WEEKLY, SEAT-WEEKLY, ARD DAILY. THE WEEKLY SUN is too widely known to require any extended recommenda-tion; but the reasons which have already gives it fifty thomand subscribers, and which will, we hope, give it many thomands more, are briefly as follows: This a first-rate newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, con-densed when animportant, at full length when of moment, and always presented in a clear, intelligible, and interesting manner. It is a first-rate family paper, full of entertaining and instructive reading of every kind, but containing nothing that can offend the most delicate and scrupulous taste. It is a first-rate story paper. The best tales and romances of current literature are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages. It is a first-rate story paper. The best tales and instructive articles en are carefully selected and legibly printed in its pages. It is an independent political paper, belonging to no party, and wearing no col-lar. It fights for principle, and for the election of the best men to office. It es-precially devotes its energies to the exposure of the great corruptions that now weaken and disgrace our country, and threaten to undermine republican institutions altogether. It has no fear of hnaws, and asks no favors from their supporters. It is the chashoes for the haldes, and the markets for the men, especially the cattle markets, to which it pays particular attention. Finally, it is the cheepest paper publicale. One dollar a year will secure it for my subscriber. It is no necessary to get up a club in order to have THE WEEKLY SUN at this rate. Any one who sends a single dollar will get the paper for a year.
