

LOCAL ITEMS.

Our friends will oblige by sending us items of local news in their locality, give us the facts only, and we will put them in shape, also notices of deaths and marriages.

—Bobby Tuten is the "best" looking man in Bellefonte.

—Brown's Republican ought to change its name to "Brown's Bellefonte News."

—Go to Hoffer Bro's for the cheapest and best dry goods, groceries, etc. They keep the largest and best supply always.

—Judge Mayer sentenced Richards to 4 years in the penitentiary for the killing of Williams.

—Jacob Durst was on last Wednesday, released on bail—the amount was $2,000.

—On Wednesday of last week, there were sixteen deer in the Milroy depot, ready for shipping, all shot in the Seven mountains.

—Bill Brown's Republican indulges in riding "New" but the cysters Brown don't wear her in earnest.

—Some people are not yet posted on postal cards. The other day a man called for a letter at the post-office in this place, and a postal card was handed him. Making several ineffectual attempts to open the card, he asked in a half angry mood "Noah, what for a got-tan letter is dis, I can't git it open."

—The Nursery, for December, is a pretty number—all children will be delighted with it, and we know of no other periodical better calculated for little folks. Only $1.00 per year, or the Nursery and Reporter, for one year, at $3.00 in advance. John L. Shorey, publisher, Boston.

—Brushvalley has him this time—he is 60 years old and never had been to Bellefonte until Friday last and had never seen the cars before that day. He was taken to the depot at train time, and as the locomotive came along puffing and snorting, he exclaimed, "Get in Himmler, get in Himmler, get in Himmler."

—S. S. Wolf, successor to Hercher & Crommelin, has been to the eastern cities, and purchased a large stock of new goods, which will shortly arrive and be ready for all who will favor him with their patronage.

—To invite citizens of this vicinity to give him a call and examine his goods and prices, feeling confident that in every respect his store will render the utmost satisfaction.

—His new stock has been purchased at a moment when goods were at lowest figures, which enables him to offer special inducements to those who will purchase from him. He invites all the old customers of the late firm and all his friends to give him a share of their patronage.

—We have received a report of the "largest hog in three counties." It is owned by James Habberham, of Ocoosa Mills, Clearfield county, and is J. A. Sankay's breed of hogs. Its weight is 900 pounds, and its age 21 months.

—Mr. J. A. Woodward, of Howard twp., honored the Rebererz office with a visit and inspection (he served an apprenticeship in the old Lycoming Gazette) on last Saturday afternoon. To his utmost surprise, he was unexpected to find his name in our establishment being no less than the same old Smith press which Mr. W. used to pull when learning his trade at Williamsport in the ancient Gazette office.

—Mr. Woodward was quite overjoyed in meeting this old friend, and we imagine that his emotions were akin to those of Mark Twain when on his travels in the Holy land, he came across the grave of an old relative, the headboard of which was marked "Adam."

—Such affecting incidents will occur when the "innocent are abroad." Mr. Woodward is now a practical farmer, having laid down the "stick" for the plow, and does some experimental torturing and prods upon his farm near Howard, lately the property of his distinguished father-in-law, the deceased ex-governor Parker.

—The Union Sabbath school and the Reformed Sabbath school of Rebererz, are making preparations for a grand joint Christmas celebration.

—The Lock Haven Enterprise states that Hon. Charles A. Mayer, President Judge of this judicial district, contemplates a trip to Europe for the benefit of his health. He will start about the middle of December.

—Daniel Amersman, of Unionville, says the Watchman, committed suicide on Tuesday, the 2d inst., by hanging himself in his stable. He left the house about one o'clock, and at three o'clock was found by his son. He was near 77 years old and in declining health, which is supposed to have led him to the rash act. He leaves a large family of sons and daughters, all well married and settled near Unionville.

—Joe Miller's residence and spring house, two miles from Tyrone, Logan township, were destroyed by fire on Friday last. Mr. M. also lost a large portion of his furniture and clothing, valued at $2,000.

—GOAL FOR CASH ONLY.—Owing to the great delay and cost in collecting bills for coal, we hereby give notice to our customers that we will henceforth sell Coal for Cash Only, or its equivalent. Coal is now a Cash Article, and must be bought at the mines subject to sight drafts, freight follows the coal and must be paid on receipt of same. To meet these requirements, we are compelled to sell on above terms, and we assure you that we will sell the best quality of coal, and will spare no pains to accommodate those who will favor us with their patronage.

—Tribute of Respect to the memory of E. G. Yeakel, by the "Murdock Literary Society" of Bellefonte Pa.

Whereas, Almighty God in His All-wise providence has been pleased to remove from our midst our worthy friend and fellow member, Recited, 1st. That in his death we have lost a true friend, one whose memory is embalmed upon our hearts in fond remembrance, and that we shall commemorate his virtues.

2nd. That our society has lost an earnest member, and that in paying this fraternal tribute of respect to his memory, we deplore our loss.

3rd. That while in the pride of strength and in the flower of his youth he has been summoned to the realities of a future life, we who are left behind can testify our appreciation of his labor and his worth.

4th. That while we were in subjection to the devil, we will tender to the benevolent family of which the deceased was a member, our heartfelt sympathy and commend to him who would uplift to lead and guide.

5th. That these resolutions be published in the County papers, and entered upon the minutes of the Society.

W. B. BARKIN, President.
N. BECK, Secretary.
C. A. SCHNEIDER, Committee.

MULES.—M'NITT & BELLINGER have constantly on hand first class Mules, which they will sell or exchange for Horses, at their stables at Milroy, Pa.

2. What are the relative advantages and disadvantages of public examinations and exhibitions, at the close of the term?

3. How should "whispering" be regulated?

1. Should pupils be detained after school for the purpose of preparing neglected lessons?

The agricultural meeting, at this place, on last Saturday afternoon, was well attended. Every portion of Potter township was represented. Harris twp. was represented by Mr. Dale, Baker twp. by Messrs. Ketter, Pottery, and Swab; Bellefonte by Messrs. Orvis, Beaver, Keller, Tuten, Shorrless, Alexander, and Hoy, and Howard twp. by Mr. J. A. Wood.

The school-room was crowded, and Judge Hentzen was chosen president, and on taking his seat made some appropriate remarks, stating that he had long advocated the formation of farmer's clubs. Gen. Heaver was called upon to read the report of the meeting, and that formation of these clubs was for the purpose of bringing farmers together and giving their experience in their important calling and learning from each other in what way to best improve their stock and their farms, as well as for protecting their own interests as other callings now do through their organizations.

Mr. C. Dale, of Harris, then offered some remarks and read a history of the farmer's club of this county, which he held monthly meetings, some of which he held at the farm house. He favored the idea of forming such clubs in our county. Mr. Geo. Durst, was then called upon and entertained the meeting quite pleasantly in giving some of his experience in farming. Speeches were then made by Messrs. Orvis, Woodward, and what Messrs. Peter Hoffer, John H. Keller, of Potter, John Forster and John H. Keller, of Harris, gave their views upon full ploughing.

These were followed by remarks from Messrs. Rhinesmith, James A. Keller, Esq. Baker, D. S. Keller, and others, all endorsing the movement, and favoring the organization of farmer's clubs.

After the meeting had adjourned, the following gentlemen, as the meeting expressed their willingness to attend at the organization of such a club on the 13th inst. John Hesterman, Jas. A. Keller, James C. Bosl, Dan'l Rhinesmith, Wm. Lohr, and Geo. Gregg, John H. Conly, Leonard Rhone, John H. Keller, Geo. Hoffer, J. K. Rankin, Fred K. C. F. Archer, Peter Ketter, J. D. Manly, J. J. Archer, D. G. Keller, J. B. Bitzer, Dan'l Stever.

Our local correspondent sends the following:

BRUINERS.—Hogs are dying of sore throat. Surprise rashes are again in vogue. What is bringing just what it always did—more or less—not quite so much of it. There is quite a demand for pigs, since "old red" we had several Centre County Institute only two weeks off, just think of it. If you want to make a certain old squire, not a dozen miles from here, squirm, just ask him what that widow said when he told him the length of his shirt. Tell him you don't mean his boiled shirt, but that woolen one. We have no sympathy for a man that will allow himself to be fooled by a fool, whose business it is to ground fooling folks. Smoke-hog raiders will soon commence operations. Simon Reble, took a hog to town the other day, which weighed 680 lbs. and it was a good hog for hogs either. The fellow who offered to wager that there would be nothing but a hog in the county, has been admitted in an order of infamy that has seemed for a time to threaten war.

In relation to financial matters, the President, after alluding to the late panic, said "My judgment is that we have suffered more from the panic than we have from any other cause. We have not suffered one long step has been taken toward specie payments; that we can never have permanent prosperity until a specie basis is reached, and that a specie basis cannot be reached by maintaining our credit, but only by a specie basis. THE LITTLE CORPORAL comes to us this month with a table of contents at choice and as rich as Santa Claus' bag at Christmas. No Parents can invest a dollar and a half, as a Christmas present to their children, to better advantage, than to give them this beautiful magazine to read for a whole year. The Chrono "Writing to the Editor" is a most interesting and profitable feature, and we are sure that every school in the county is closed for the winter. THE CENTRE COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. Twenty-Seventh Annual Session—73. Will be held in the COURT HOUSE, at Bellefonte, Pa., on December 23d, 24th, 25th, 26th, 27th and 28th inst.

The following topics (in both Public and Private schools) will have teaching in prospect, are earnestly invited to attend. The Institute will open at 9 o'clock, Tuesday morning and close with Friday afternoon session.

It is particularly desirable that all should be present at the first session, as none can get the benefit of an Institute without attending the first session. If any school in the county be closed for the winter, the Chrono "Writing to the Editor" is a most interesting and profitable feature, and we are sure that every school in the county is closed for the winter.

With our knowledge of the ability and disposition of the teachers of Centre County, aided by the services of Dept. State, we are confident that the Institute will be a most profitable one to all who attend. We are confident that the Institute will be a most profitable one to all who attend.

The President's Message.

The message of the President of the United States, says the Age, treats of many questions of deep interest and importance to the nation at this time. It commences with the declaration that "in the midst of great national prosperity a financial crisis has occurred that has brought forth fortunes of gigantic proportions. Political partisanship has almost ceased to exist, especially in the agricultural regions, and finally the capture upon the high seas of a vessel bearing our flag has for a time threatened the most serious consequences, and has agitated the public mind from one end of the country to the other. The announcement is made that the relations between the United States and Spain have placed them in open rebellion against the government of Spain. Led on by the creation of a special commission, the President of the United States, Zulueta subsequently informed an American gentleman that the Virginians would be delivered to the United States, and the possession of Great Britain was left uncompleted by the Commissioners of the United States, and the President of the United States, Zulueta subsequently informed an American gentleman that the Virginians would be delivered to the United States, and the possession of Great Britain was left uncompleted by the Commissioners of the United States, and the President of the United States, Zulueta
