

FRED KURTZ, Editor

Centre Hall, Pa., Feb. 8, 1874.

TERMS—$2 per year, in advance, 25c per month, not paid in advance.

Advertisements 20c per line for three insertions, and 10c for 12 months by special contract.

Brown's last paper is very unkind in exposing that "set up" Brown having been "set up" so often, and being now "set up" on his pins by the democrats, he should know when not to "talk out in meedim".

Pennsylvania has lost one of her noblest sons. Ex-Chief Justice Thompson died suddenly while arguing a case before the Supreme Court.

The treasurer of Jersey City has absconded with $50,000 of the people's money.

We notice an item that Jeff. Davis and ex-Senator Foote, are to have a duel. These old fellows had best wait a little, if they are tired of life, and they will be duly assisted in shuffling off this mortal coil.

Brown and his niggers evidently had a sip out of the same glass again, last week, judging from his only editorial, which shows he is badly befuddled.

Col. John H. Stover, a native of Aaronsburg and well-known in this county, is not politically dead yet.

The breach between the President and the Radical leaders is widening day by day. He refused to listen to the advice of the Radical wing of his party, and proposes to cut loose from it.

The Evans case has now seen its end, over the man—or ring tool—who embezzled several hundred thousand dollars of the commonwealth's funds.

The above sum is in excess of the amount awarded by the common pleas last March about $36,000 and less than the lowest figure claimed by the commonwealth nearly $120,000.

On the law point raised by the defense—that the case was improperly brought—Judge Pearson has reserved his decision.

Resolved, That a committee of five members be appointed to inspect the fishways and hatching houses which have been erected at the Columbia dam and at Donegal Springs in accordance with a request of the fishery commissioners.

Resolved, That a committee of five members be appointed to examine and report what alterations or enlargements, if any, must necessarily be made in the hall of the house of representatives for the accommodation of the house of representatives to be elected under the constitution.

The Ashantee War.

Very few persons on this side of the ocean (and perhaps many on the other side), understand the origin and object of the war which the British Government is carrying on with the Ashantees, on the Gold Coast in Western Africa.

The Ashantee war is a struggle for the supremacy of the coast, and is a struggle for the supremacy of the coast, and is a struggle for the supremacy of the coast.
