Her soul flows on like a river-A placid but deep-toned stream-Where sunbeams linger and quiver, And shadows most beautiful dream Oh! her soul is deep as the river, And mild as the shadows that dream.

This queen-this angel of light

May the choicest blessings of Heaven Oh! liveliest maiden entwine Their strong, loving tendrils around thee, Forever around thee and thine : May the star of thy future life shine.

Where is Thy Treasure?

The merchant sends his heart to sea, If this by chance miscarry, that is lost-His confidence is cast away; He hangs the head, As he were dead.

The plowman furrows up his land, And sows his heart together with his seed, Which both, alike earth-born, on earth d

And prosper or are at a stand ; He and his field Like fruit do yield.

The broker and the scrivener have The wsurer's heart in keeping, with hi His soul's dear sustenance lies in their hands, And if they break, their shop's his grave;

He and his field

His only bliss. The money-hoarder in his bags Binds up his heart, and locks it in his chest; The same key serves to that and to his

Which of no other heaven brags, Nor can conceit A joy so great.

Poor wretched muck-worms, wipe your eves Uncase those trifles that beset you so; Your rich-appearing wealth is real woe, Your death in your desires lies; Your hearts are where You love and fear.

Oh! think not, then, the world deserves Either to be beloved or fear'd by you : Give Heaven these affections as its due, care, it would be only fair to me to have mother spend the rest of her life in my family. I thought that it was real her children. I think this is very touching and sweet on her part. But think that babies are sick? They never do unless the poor little things are far gone with scarlet fever, cerebro-spinal meningitis, or something dreadfully fatal. Let the child be teething, or have colic, or wind on its little stomach, or "anything of that kind, and doctors or "anything to be interested in the part of the part o never seem to be interested in the patient's ease. They say that the little things will "outgrow it," or something of that sort. Now, that is absurd.

But just then the doctor, who evidently saw the policeman, hallooed: "Go about your business!" The policeman evidently saw the doct*, and "moved on," after first striking the lamp-post a the chin, pinch your legs, and say that you would "come out all right," or "outgrow it," or something of that kind! Would you like it? Of course you would not. It would not be trying to make you tell what is the matter with it?"

time, I said: "Not at all, sir! I have told you that our own baby is sick and needs your professional attention!" "Wou she, "haven't I been trying to make you tell what is the matter with it?"

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

Terms: $2.00 a Year, in Advance.

VOL. VII.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., THURSDAY, MAY 28, 1874.

NO. 21.

dren were that way. I think this a very satisfactory explanation. Why shouldn't a child inherit things of that kind, just the same as hair, teeth, and things of that sort? It looks reasonable mother says she thinks she feels a lump things of the doctor.

"The baby is sick," says I. "Its for his services." You cannot the mother says she thinks she feels a lump this anonyncement. to mother and me. But somehow inside.

Pheegie don't seem to think so. "Hi left to tell you about a little matter in our own baby's tender experience, which illustrates how little doctors care for other people's children. Mother says she thinks they get hardened. But one would think they wouldn't. I have been after the doctor tor a good deal for our own baby, but he never seems to come with alserity. Mather generally tells me when to go. She thinks that one cannot show too much good care for a child—it is such.

I remained some reference to the internation out, "says I; "and when I press it hard the little thing wakes up and cries."

What the deuce do you press it for, then?" says the doctor.

By this time I had lost all patience, and so, with considerable vehemence I regions and future punishment. I really think he was disappointed in not finding our own dear baby in its last said: "Doctor, our own baby is very it! Will you be kind enough to come to the door?"

At that he slammed down the window.

At that he slammed down the window.

I remained some reference to the internation out, "says I; "and when I press it hard the little thing wakes up and cries."

Treally think he was disappointed in not finding our own dear baby in its last said: "Doctor, our own baby is very it to come to the door?"

At that he slammed down the window.

I kissed her forehead and whispered, "Our child!"

"Don't be a fool!" said she; "it is much good care for a child—it is such a grave responsibility. I think so, too. to mother about it the other night, and she said she hoped so, as it was an awful thing to throw one's own child into the teath of Powillons and I door I said:

into the teeth of Providence; and I thought so too. But now I certainly must tell you what happened the other night. Our own baby was sick, and mother wanted me to go for the doctor. Pheegie didn't think there was any use in going for think there was any use in going for him, but mother thought there was. However, mother very frankly owned up that the child was Iphigenia's. She said that her solicitude sprang entirely and only from love for the little one, but if that affection was irksome to us said that her solicitude sprang entirely and only from love for the little one, but if that affection was riskome to us we had only to find her a humble cot in some retired spot, where she would make had only to find her a humble cot in some retired spot, where she would make had only to find her a humble cot in some retired spot, where she would make had only to find her a humble cot in some retired spot, where she would make had only to find her a humble cot in some retired spot, where she would make had only to find her a humble cot in some retired spot, where she would make had only to find her a humble cot in some retired spot, where she would spot, where she would make had only to find her a humble cot in some retired spot, where she would spot, where she would spot, where she would make had only to find her a humble cot in some retired spot, where she would spot, where she would spot, where she would she had shut his some retired spot, where she would had not lie at her don't had that king dot that its death did not lie at her don't he doot.

I write as a soo, as a husband, and as a man of family. My subject is one of the utmost importance to the married of that its death did not lie at her don't he doot.

I was not a good night to go. It was not responsible certainly for the doctor. It was real hard work to go for the doctor. It was real hard work to go for the doctor. It was real hard work to go for the doctor. It was real hard work to go for the doctor. It was real hard work to go for the doctor. It was not responsible certainly for the trifling inconvenience to this remark. It was not responsible certainly for the trifling inconvenience to this remark. It was not responsible certainly for the trifling inconvenience to this remark. It was not responsible certainly for the trifling inconvenience to this remark. It was not responsible certainly for the trifling inconvenience to this the defort. It was not responsible certainly for the trifling inconvenience to this the doctor. It was not responsible cer touching and sweet on her part. But somehow Pheegie don't seem to think so. She says: "Suppose we take her up some day—how much cot do you suppose she would retire to?"

I don't like the sentiment. How touching and sweet on her part. But to my ear, and I could hardly account for the feminine voice, as the doctor is a widower. But I nevertheless asked if the doctor was at home. At that the masculine voice suggested that I had better ring the doctor's door-bell and the better ring the doctor is a widower. But I nevertheless asked if the doctor was at home. At that the masculine voice suggested that I had better ring the doctor is a widower. But I nevertheless asked if the doctor was at home. At that the masculine voice suggested that I had better ring the doctor is a widower. But I nevertheless asked if the doctor was at home. At that the masculine voice suggested that I had better ring the doctor is a widower. But I nevertheless asked if the doctor was at home. At that the masculine voice suggested that I had better ring the doctor's door-bell and the widower. But I nevertheless asked if the doctor was at home. At that the masculine voice suggested that I had better ring the doctor's door-bell and the widower. But I nevertheless asked if the doctor was at home. At that the masculine voice suggested that I had better ring the doctor's door-bell and the widower. But I nevertheless asked if the doctor was at home. At that the masculine voice suggested that I had better ring the doctor's doctor was at home.

eem to think so.
what I want to ask you is this:
"How's that?" And then the doctor, What is the reason that doctors never think that babies are sick? They never said: "What the thunder are you talk-

I put it to you, Mr. Reader, as a man feeling. Suppose you had a pain in But I thought that the doctor had ad-I put it to you, Mr. Reader, as a man of feeling. Suppose you had a pain in your person and were really suffering a great deal, and a doctor should come great deal, and a chuck you under time, I said: "Not at all, sir! I have time, I said: "Not at all, sir! I have and being pretty well worked up by this time, I said: "Not at all, sir! I have but our baby suffered a great deal from "Oh," says 1, "I thought you were abdominal trouble. Mother thinks he inherits it; she says that all her chil"Well, for Heaven's sake, ain't I

"His what does what, and who feels

But, upon my word, I have written o much that I have but little space How stupid! "Its stomach sticks a grave responsibility. I think so, too.

But somehow Pheegie don't always seem to think so. I wonder if she really does love our own baby? I spake proposed to really does love our own baby? I spake proposed to really does love our own baby? I spake proposed to really does love our own baby? I spake proposed to really sorry, that you should have been to think so. I wonder if she really does love our own baby? I spake proposed to really sorry, that you should have been to think so. really does love our own baby? I spoke to mother about it the other night, and friend very pleasantly.

I had recovered my temper, and was brought up here this dreadful night. "But our child," said I.

"Ah, how are you, docter?" If he made any answer at all I did been nothing the matter with its pavement I thought I might as wengive up going. But, then! there was our own baby perhaps at the point of death, and I hastened, slipped up, and I hastened, slipped up, and it has whole of the sentence.

With my usual forgiving disposition, however, I ventured to offer the doctor my arm. But all he said was something about "a darned sight!" I did not appeared to the whole of the sentence.

"Whose carpenter bill?" said he.
"Why his, to be sure," said I.
"Very well! who is his? I didn't or startling our own sick baby.

Suddenly the doctor caught hold of the bell-pull, and jerked it as though heard dear mother's voice: "Who is that?" says she. Who is that?" says she.

she.
"Yes, dear mother," says I. she. "Why, of course! dear mother," rying to make you tell what is the mater with it?"

I saw I had made a mistake, and so I says I.

"There are two of you," says she.
"Yes, of course," says I.

"Who is the other?" says she. Why, the doctor, dear mother,

"Oh! I had forgotten," says she. "Thank God, there is no present need You cannot think how my heart thrilled with joy as dear mother made

'Doctor!" said I, grasping his hand, left to tell you about a little matter in out," says I; " and when I press it hard and make some reference to the infernal regions and future punishment. I really think he was disappointed in not "As I was saying," says I, "about our own baby, its little stomach sticks out, and mother thinks ——"

While I had been saying this, the "thinks ——"
While I had been saying this, the "thinks ——"

While I had been saying this, the "thinks ——"

While I had been saying this, the "thinks ——"

Thinks ——"

"Ah, indeed! Iphegenia!" said dear mother, from the top of the stairs, "perhaps my intense love for my own child's own offspring may have exagger than the saying its said of the stairs, "perhaps my intense love for my own child's own offspring may have exagger."

family. I thought that it was real affectionate and self-sacrificing on their part. But somehow Pheegie don't seem to think so.

Dear mother is very sensitive about Dear mother is very sensitive about Somehow Pheegie don't seem to think so.

Dear mother is very sensitive about Somehow Pheegie don't seem to think so.

Dear mother is very sensitive about Somehow Pheegie don't seem to think so.

Dear mother is very sensitive about Somehow Pheegie don't seem to think so.

However, I got there at last and rang the bell. I rang several times. Finally somehow prehend the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; each by himself, as besthe could. At last I thought that, inasmuch as I had gotten the doctor's house, and it is only half a mile away from mine. However, I got there at last and rang the bell. I rang several times. Finally somehow prehend the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; each by himself, as besthe could. At last I thought that, inasmuch as I had gotten the doctor's house, and it is only half a mile away from mine. However, I got there at last and rang to rout at that unseemly hour, it was somehow prehend the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentence.

We then walked along; and the whole of the sentenc she occupies we have only to say so, and she will find a humble cot in some retired spot, and there pass her widowed days praying for the welfare of her children. I think this is very touching and sweet on her part. But

In an article in one of the popular London journals, Dr. Kimmerich ascribes the effect of beef tea not to its aromatic and combustible ingredients, he was afraid somebody was going but to the potash salts which it contorun away with the other end of the wire. Soon a window was opened, and I injurious effect is exercised on the orneard dear mother's voice: an element of all articles of food, forming not only the chief ingredients of "Who is that?" says she.
"It is me, dear mother," says I.
"Is that you, T. Adolphus?" says food. In medical practice, says Dr. Kimmerich, ether, camphor, and musks are eminently invigorating and refresh-"Where is your night-key?" says ing remedies, and compared to these beef tea occupies, of course, a subordinate position; if, however, it be necesanother," says L sary to preserve an exhausted body from protracted illness, then there is no other remedy in the whole rich store-house of medicine which can afford such assistance for regenerating the force is exceedingly various; that nerve force can be transformed into chemical force, into motion, into electricity, into heat, into light, and so on. But what are the limits of the action of the nerve our own dear baby is better?"

Limits of Nerve Force-Laws of Health,

All he did was to pull away his hand act of will, or by the action of a mes-merizer, we can send in any part of our body an influence that can modify it, those persons make a great mistake if they think that this can take place by orces distinct from nerve force in the subject in which the action takes place.

often the little thing cries at night, but never yet has that girl come down to see what the matter was. If she would only do so once in a while, at least, it would be showing a little interest in her charge.

Mother don't like the girl. She thinks she is a Jesuit, and believes that she would murder the baby quick if she was told to do it. I am inclined to think so, and kind of wish we had a Protestant. But somehow Pheegie don't seem to think so.

The thinks she is a Jesuit, and believes that she was told to do it. I am inclined to think so.

The thinks she is a Jesuit, and believes that she was told to do it. I am inclined to think so.

The thinks she is a Jesuit, and believes that she was told to do it. I am inclined to think so, and kind of wish we had a Protestant. But somehow Pheegie don't seem to think so.

The thinks she is a Jesuit, and believes that she was told to do it. I am inclined to think so.

The water drips there we are, "said I, there we are," said I, there we are, "said I, there we are," said I, there we are, "said I, ther CALIFORNIA LIONS.

I think, says Dr. Brown-Sequard, I have shown that the power of nerve and start as the specific control of the control of Newspaper advertising impels in-quiry, and when the article offered is of has believed that the ghost of Green is constantly at his side. The hallucination is so strong that the conscious-stricken wretch is nearly demented, and has twice tried to kill himself.

San Francisco expects five thousand

San Francisco expects five thousand to green the control of the speeches a number of persons took the temperance pledge.

Cursed, having for a husband the green test of muschant the green test of manchester." This woman's treets of Manchester." This woman's streets of Manchester." This woman's husband, who was at one time never without an excuse to thrash her, was now a reformed character. At the close off upon woman suffrage next fall, and the two fathers are like control of that look will bring him back.

The Postmaster of Delta, Iowa, wrote that look will bring him back.

The people of Michigan will vote don't git some one to run this 'ere post off upon woman suffrage next fall, and the two fathers are like control of that look will bring him back.

The people of Michigan will vote don't git some one to run this 'ere post off upon woman suffrage next fall, and the two fathers are like control of that look will bring him back.

The people of Michigan will vote don't git some one to run this 'ere post off upon woman suffrage next fall, and the two fathers are like control of that look will bring him back.

The postmaster of Delta, Iowa, wrote that look will bring him back.

The people of Michigan will vote don't git some one to run this 'ere post off upon woman suffrage next fall, and the two fathers are like control of that look will bring him back.

The people of Michigan will vote don't git some one to run this 'ere post off upon woman suffrage next fall, and the will bring him back.

The postmaster of Delta, Iowa, wrote that look will bring him back.

The people of Michigan will vote don't git some one to run this 'ere post of the specific from her, and the control of that look will bring him back.

The people of Michigan will vote don't git some one to run this 'ere post of the specif

THE ARKANSAS TROUBLES. The Capture, Imprisonment, and Escape of the Judges---The Officer who has them in Custody Aids in their Escape. Traveler's Account of his Encounter with Seven Wild Beasts. A correspondent of the Arizona Miner gives the following curious account of an adventure in the wilds of that Ter heat, into light, and so on. But what are the limits of the action of the nerve force? I may say that the limits of the action of the nerve force, except after it has been transformed into other forces, are our own body. Those persons who think that by an imagination, or by an I think that by an imagination, or by an I think that by an imagination, or by an I think that by an imagination, or by an I think that by an imagination, or by an I the traveling over the clay flats retired field on the outskirts of the city, where orders were received from Gran. it better traveling over the clay flats that are found near Anvil Rock. I reached the summit of the Aztec Pass quite early; the wind was blowing cold and the air was full of snow, and I put a blanket about my face and urged my horse forward as fast as I could. I had not traveled one mile from the summit of the Pass when my horse stopped; I looked forward, and in the road not traveled of from the summit of the Pass when my horse stopped; I looked forward, and in the road not traveled of from the summit of the Pass when my horse stopped; I looked forward, and in the road not traveled one mile from the summit of the Pass when my horse stopped; I looked forward, and in the road not traveled one mile from the summit of the Pass when my horse stopped; I looked forward, and in the road not traveled one mile from the summit of the Pass when my horse stopped; I looked forward, and in the road not traveled one mile from the summit of the Pass when my horse stopped; I looked forward, and in the ontskirts of the city, and it was believed that his injuries were of a serious character, he where orders were received from Gen.

Summerhill and a squad of men, to a retired field on the ontskirts of the city, where orders were received from Gen.

Blocker, and the party then marched to a point 14 miles distant, where a displace that he had a terrible secret to reveal. As he could only speak in a whisper, the judge placed his called the judge to his side, intimating in kan the had a terrible secret to reveal. As he could only speak in a whisper, the judge placed his carled the judge to his side, intimating in that he had a terrible secret to reveal. As he could only speak in a whisper, the judge placed his carled the judge to his side, intimating in that he had a terrible secret to reveal. As he could only speak in a whisper, the judge placed his ear to the lips of the world.

An arsenie mine in England to produce enough of the material in a month to poison the entire population of the world.

An arsenie mine in England to produce If the this the fore procedular through the proposal colors are the control and the process of the colors are fore that the control forest the colors are the process of the colors are the process of the colors are the colors and the colors are the colors and the colors are th witer the shot runs down a spout in the diffy to a drying pan, which greatly reservantly be a giguntic shoe, made of sheet iron.

More perfectly dry as they pass over the heart of the chamber below, and the pellests became perfectly dry as they pass over the warm sheet-iron.

Sam Weaver, tax collector, in Laws the warm sheet-iron.

Sam Weaver, tax collector, in Laws the warm sheet-iron.

Sam Weaver, tax collector, in Laws the warm sheet-iron.

Sam Weaver, tax collector, in Laws the work of the conceptual and vigilant of salesmen; and the different sheeps at work seeking customers from all these factors.

The angel with the case the conceptual thank to the repatation of the good that the short of the conceptual thank to the chamber below, and the pellests became perfectly dry as they pass over the warm sheet-iron.

Sam Weaver, tax collector, in Laws the supper advertising is the most reached the conceptual and vigilant of salesmen; and the devices a successive that the different sheeps and work seeking customers from all alsoes.

Factory, "You're a liar," replaced with the string promotes the work depend on the different sheeps and work seeking customers from all alsoes seemer by far the largest share of the sheep of the string promotes and the sheep of the string promotes and the sheep of the shee account of the capture, escape, and return to Little Rock of Associate Justices Bennett and Searle. After here turn to Little Rock of Associate Justices Bennett and Searle. After being taken from St. John's College, they were moved, under the escort of Lieut. Summerbill and a squad of men, to a summerbill and a squad of men, to a carried out, and it was believed that his we cannot bear a provoking word.

weather, and many others, were believers in this leech-philosophy.

Digestion and Paradise.

Ah, talk of blessings! What a blessing is digestion! To digest! Do you know what it means? It is to have the sun always shining, and the shade always ready for you. It is to be met with smiles, and to be greeted with kisses. It is to be met with soft, warm hands. It is to be in paradise. Adam and Eve were in paradise. Why? Their digestion was good. Ah! then they took liberties; at each ad fruit—things they could not digest. They what we call ruined their constitutions, destroyed their gastric interest of the substance of the English Parliament adopted a very ingenious method of bribery and corruption. This gentleman, to make himself popular with the voters, purchased $200,000 worth of carpets at Kidder-minster. This pleased the mannfacturers of the article amazingly. Then he disposed of the immense amount of floor covering at ten per cent under the first cost, a sacrifice that delighted those that needed carpetings. He was elected, and his opponent is desirons of knowing if the carpet operation was not constructive bribery in a degree punishable by law.

Chinning.—Peoplewhore in this leech-philosophy.

Singular Bribery.—One of the recently elected members of the English Parliament adopted a very ingenious method of bribery and corruption. This gentleman, to make himself popular with the voters, purchased $200,000 worth of carpets at Kidder-minster. This pleased the mannfacturers of the article camazingly. Then he disposed of the immense amount of floor covering at ten per cent under the first cost, a sacrifice that delighted which the Lord thy God giveth the soundary that the floor covering at ten per cent under the first cost, a sacrifice that delighted which the Lord thy God giveth the soundary that the floor covering at ten per cent under the first cost, a sacrifice that delighted which the Lord thy God giveth the floor covering at ten per cent under the first cost, a sacrifice that delighted which the Lord thy God g Items of Interest.

Don't marry a man who gets up early. Nothing makes a person so insufferably

Miss Wells, aged 12 years, has re-ceived a school teacher's certificate in Wapello, Iowa.

The last place in which to look for the milk of human kindness is in the

It is now quite the fashion for rich Boston to remember their pastors in their wills.

Next to twenty-four grains, there is othing like a mean man's pocket to make a penny wait.

"I shall be indebted to you for life," as the man said to his creditors when he ran away to Australia.

A matter-of-fact old gentleman thinks it must be a very small base-ball that can be caught on a fly. No woman ever owned that she had auburn hair, except when somebody told her that it was red.

Every able-bodied man in Sonora, Tholumne county, between 21 and 60, must pay a road tax of $3. Dr. Johnson poked the tobacco in his pipe down with his sweetheart's finger —a warm token of affection.