APPALLING CATASTROPHE.

Sad Ending of a Strawberry Festival.—The Floor of a Church Given Way—300 Persons Buried in the Ruins.

Syracuse, June 23.—A strawberry festival was being held at the parlors of the Central Baptist Church, when, without any premonition, the floor gave way, and the entire assembly was precipitated into the ruins.

The little ones, who were present in great numbers, and who had been looking on with occasion with high hopes of a jolly time, were preparing themselves for the feast, when the floor of the rooms in which they were being crunched, and the building seemed to sway as though a hurricane had struck it suddenly.

Correction. The picnic reported by "Anxious" in our issue of the 15th inst. in Korman's grove, was held in Meyer's sugar grove where the sun does not shine a whole year round.

Sweet Honey of course, but let us have the same refrain from robbing the grove of our worthy citizen, J. B. Korman, a second time, for it will result in a pair of boys "rotters" and an empty sugar-bag.

Employment. All seeking for the same will do well to call upon our farmers throughout Bush & Penn's Valley who generously consented in some parts to allow a sufficient price for paying the cents for every hundred potato bugs destroyed.

Some of the young men had better attend Sabbath school on Sunday instead of going hunting.

The dead-head spoken of in the Rebercher, in its filing at the "Penny Press" was not by Mr. G. W. Foote, for he is the only real head in the county.
