

LOCAL ITEMS.

Our friends will oblige by sending us items of local news in their locality, give us the facts only, and we will put them in shape, also notices of deaths and marriages.

Any one sending us the names of new subscribers, with the cash, will be entitled to receive the REPORTER one year free.

The Reporter being read by nearly every body in the county, and the fact that it is a paper of general circulation than any other paper, will be found the best medium for advertising business, sales, &c.

Democratic Delegate Election.

The Democratic voters of Centre county will meet at the regular places of holding the same on SATURDAY, the 23rd day of August, 1874, to elect delegates to the Democratic County Convention to be held in the Court House at Bellefonte, on Tuesday the 11th day of August at 1 o'clock, sharp, for the purpose of nominating candidates for various offices to be filled at next general election.

The said delegate election beginning at 2 o'clock p. m. of said day and continuing until 5 o'clock p. m. JOHN MILLER, Chairman Democratic County Con.

—Fence out is the latest excuse for being a candidate. Bally bap who invented, wonder whether he ever ran for office.

—At the democratic delegate elections on Saturday, 8th, instructions can be voted for two candidates for the Legislature, one for this side of the county and one for the other side.

—Mr. Pearce Leitzel contemplates moving back to Penn Hall, his former place of residence. Sorry to lose the Prof, he was a good citizen and an excellent teacher.

—The undersigned would hereby respectfully announce, that having been repeatedly urged to allow the use of the name of the Reporter in the Assembly, he will accept the nomination if tendered by the Democratic County Convention.

—High Riddle, is reported to be in the neighborhood. The Watchman says that he pursued two girls in the ridges beyond Milesburg, the other day, caught and tied one of them to a tree and took a ride on her. Some of our friends have liberated the girls and put Hugh to flight. It's better to put Hugh back to the penitentiary.

—George Foot says he will be elected a delegate from Penn. Higher honors await him.

—The weather is fine, but the mornings are cool.

—One of the best workmen in the county, Chas. Hill, Milesburg, Pa.

—Milesburg baseball players were at Millheim on Saturday—trained and their today got to wet.

—Clinton county democrats, without a dissenting voice went for Wallace, Mackey and Orvis, in their recent county convention.

—On Saturday last a gentleman, from Milesburg, with three or four new top boots, laced on his feet, and went to Penn Hall, to go into a house, not being his horse. The horse started and upset the buggy, breaking them badly.

—The Aaronsburg Lutheran Sunday School held a picnic in Coburn's woods, 3 1/2 miles out, on Saturday 1st. Rev. Tomlinson and Knapp addressed the school in the morning, and at 12 o'clock, the scholars collected around a large table laden with all the good things imaginable. After dinner the time was spent very pleasantly in play, till 5 o'clock when the ladies were dismissed, and the men only that took a timely warning, and lit out for home were spared from receiving a thorough ducking.

—The Fletcher Beck family will give a concert of vocal and instrumental music, at Centre Hall, on Friday evening 7th inst. This family is well trained in music and no doubt their concert will be a treat.

—In a recent issue we gave rumors about poisoning a man in Centre county, we are pleased to learn that the parties accused are again released. The Lewisburg Journalists, the parties were brought before court on 29th ult., where Dr. Loomis and Prof. Tinsley presented a report to the effect that they may have been the cause of the stomach of the deceased, and that there was not the least trace of poison to be found. This report will of course be sufficient that Wm. Kline did not do it. Altogether, though it was very unpleasant for them to be in prison, it will be better for them in the end; for if there had been no examination the suspicion against them might have lived for years.

—James A. Bryan, a native of this county, and for several terms Treasurer of Jackson county, Iowa, has come to Centre for embezzling to the amount of $41,000. We make the following extract from the Maquoket, Iowa, Sentinel.

The long agony is over! The defendant, James A. Bryan, has been found guilty of embezzling of $41,000. Official thieves have a stinging rebuke, outraged justice has been vindicated, and the people breathe easier. On Monday morning last the jury in the case of the State of Iowa vs. J. A. Bryan, late treasurer, brought in a verdict of guilty, supplemented by the sentence of the court to three years imprisonment in the State penitentiary and a fine of $41,000.

—A malicious act was perpetrated by some person at the Trout Eshery of Hon. James W. Wright on McMillan's run, Wayne township, last Friday. The fellow took a bar of iron and dug a hole so as to change the course of the stream running into the fishery, which soon left them without water and caused the death of many trout and eight or ten were some of them weighing over three and a half pounds.

—Picking buckles has been added to picking potatoes.

—Rev. Miller, of this place, had his right foot badly bruised, on Thursday, 30th ult., by falling in the street, and was confined by a large stone falling upon it.

—Mr. Wm. Ribbel, of Potter twp., was one of the lucky farmers this year, in his hay crop. His farm produced in all about 30 tons. One meadow of three acres yielded about seven tons of hay.

—The farm and well formerly belonging to Rhoads & Harper, situated in the mountains about three miles southeast of Aaronsburg, has been sold to Meyer, Boyer & Co from Freeburg, Pa. for $5,000.

—One of our Blacksmiths, Mr. Jacob Harper, heaped 300 wagon and buggy wheels since spring, at any other one place, by a large stone that let us hear.

—Pennsylvania now has eight candidates for Assembly out of seven townships. Miles is the only township that has no candidate.

The men are to be tried for murder at Sunbury this week, each for killing his brother-in-law.

—A baby safely floating in its crib, was found thirty-five miles below Pittsburg after the late disaster, alive, unharmed and unclaimed.

The foundry and machine shop of Brown, Son & Co., at Millheim, Pa., were destroyed by fire on Friday evening. The loss is over $50,000.

—The engineer corps of the Pennsylvania and Western railroad, are said to be at work, in the Moshannon region, upon the preliminary survey of the proposed route.

—The undersigned would hereby respectfully announce, that having been repeatedly urged to allow the use of the name of the Reporter in the Assembly, he will accept the nomination if tendered by the Democratic County Convention.

—High Riddle, is reported to be in the neighborhood. The Watchman says that he pursued two girls in the ridges beyond Milesburg, the other day, caught and tied one of them to a tree and took a ride on her. Some of our friends have liberated the girls and put Hugh to flight. It's better to put Hugh back to the penitentiary.

—George Foot says he will be elected a delegate from Penn. Higher honors await him.

—The weather is fine, but the mornings are cool.

—One of the best workmen in the county, Chas. Hill, Milesburg, Pa.

—Milesburg baseball players were at Millheim on Saturday—trained and their today got to wet.

—Clinton county democrats, without a dissenting voice went for Wallace, Mackey and Orvis, in their recent county convention.

—On Saturday last a gentleman, from Milesburg, with three or four new top boots, laced on his feet, and went to Penn Hall, to go into a house, not being his horse. The horse started and upset the buggy, breaking them badly.

—The Aaronsburg Lutheran Sunday School held a picnic in Coburn's woods, 3 1/2 miles out, on Saturday 1st. Rev. Tomlinson and Knapp addressed the school in the morning, and at 12 o'clock, the scholars collected around a large table laden with all the good things imaginable. After dinner the time was spent very pleasantly in play, till 5 o'clock when the ladies were dismissed, and the men only that took a timely warning, and lit out for home were spared from receiving a thorough ducking.

—The Fletcher Beck family will give a concert of vocal and instrumental music, at Centre Hall, on Friday evening 7th inst. This family is well trained in music and no doubt their concert will be a treat.

—In a recent issue we gave rumors about poisoning a man in Centre county, we are pleased to learn that the parties accused are again released. The Lewisburg Journalists, the parties were brought before court on 29th ult., where Dr. Loomis and Prof. Tinsley presented a report to the effect that they may have been the cause of the stomach of the deceased, and that there was not the least trace of poison to be found. This report will of course be sufficient that Wm. Kline did not do it. Altogether, though it was very unpleasant for them to be in prison, it will be better for them in the end; for if there had been no examination the suspicion against them might have lived for years.

—James A. Bryan, a native of this county, and for several terms Treasurer of Jackson county, Iowa, has come to Centre for embezzling to the amount of $41,000. We make the following extract from the Maquoket, Iowa, Sentinel.

The long agony is over! The defendant, James A. Bryan, has been found guilty of embezzling of $41,000. Official thieves have a stinging rebuke, outraged justice has been vindicated, and the people breathe easier. On Monday morning last the jury in the case of the State of Iowa vs. J. A. Bryan, late treasurer, brought in a verdict of guilty, supplemented by the sentence of the court to three years imprisonment in the State penitentiary and a fine of $41,000.

—A malicious act was perpetrated by some person at the Trout Eshery of Hon. James W. Wright on McMillan's run, Wayne township, last Friday. The fellow took a bar of iron and dug a hole so as to change the course of the stream running into the fishery, which soon left them without water and caused the death of many trout and eight or ten were some of them weighing over three and a half pounds.

—We copy from the Bellefonte Republican:

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.

Some unknown sounds broke into the store-room of the Bush-House the other night and stole one hundred and thirty spring chickens, seven dozen pies, chicken and whortleberry assorted and sixty-three pounds of honey. The unwhung villain being leaving, pulled the spigots out of nine full barrels of mineral, iron and sulphur water.

Mr. C. D. Keller, formerly of this place, has left the mercantile of the Merchants Hotel, Philadelphia and engaged in the produce commission business. Success to him.

The stable of Wm. Meyers, in Half Moon twp., was destroyed by fire on last Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock. It is thought the fire originated by accident. No insurance. The loss it is thought, will not exceed $150.