District Nominations, subject to the decision of the several conferences:
Judge—J. H. Over, Congress—C. T. Alexander, Senator—P. G. Meek.
The Philadelphia North American, radical, in a long article, favors the re-election of John Scott to the U. S. Senate.
On the 18th instant the people of Ohio voted on their proposed new constitution. The question of license or no license with reference to the sale of liquors was submitted to a separate vote.
It is said that England has recognized the republic of Spain, and also that France and Germany have done the same.
The organ of the Modocs, in this country, is not so "very well" pleased with the doings of the Dem. Co. Convention. Capt. Jack gives with disappointment in his last week.
If it must be a radical—let it be Shortridge. Wm. Shortridge is recommended for Congress. But the better in it, it can't be a radical, hence, it can't be the clever fellow "at the depot."
From the different sections of the county we learn that the democratic county ticket meets with general favor. Messrs. Sugert, Wolf, Spangler, Reifsnyder and Yearick will get the party vote which insure the election of the ticket by the usual majorities.
The temperance party of this state held their state convention at Harrisburg last week, and adopted a platform favoring the prohibition of the liquor traffic. The following nominations were made: Lieutenant-Governor, Benjamin Rush Bradford of Beaver county; Judge of the Supreme Court, Simon B. Chase of Susquehanna county; Auditor-General, Calvin Parsons of Luzerne county; Secretary of Internal Affairs, W. P. Cutherson of Montgomery county. A State Central Committee was appointed, with James Black, Esq. of Lancaster, Chairman.
Mr. John P. Potter, is one of those, among others, who failed in obtaining a nomination by the recent county convention. Mr. Potter has served one term as district attorney, and we believe that he endeavored to discharge his duties faithfully; scrutiny of his official acts will satisfy any one that he discharged his duties according to the letter of law; he will leave the office with a clear record, and had been successful in obtaining a re-nomination, there is no one who in our opinion would give a heartier support. May success attend him in his future practice.
Previous to the war, election riots were only known in the Northern States, at least not farther south than Baltimore, where the blood-tube and plug-uglies committed bloody outrages in order to carry the elections. But upon the close of the war the northern carpet-bagger took with him south his dirty-linen and his vicious habits of violence at the polls and has since made it a common thing to see negroes driven from the polls. These outrages were all along winked at from the white-house at Washington, even where whole towns and neighborhoods were threatened by the blacks urged on by white scalawags.
In the history of all parties, the canvass for nominations, within each party by members of the same who are ambitious to obtain a place upon the ticket, is about as exciting and very often as bitter as is the contest between two opposite political parties for a victory at the polls after the nominations are made.
The contest within the party previous to the nominating convention, its bitterness, jealousy and acrimony, should end as soon as the nominations are made, and all turn in for the success of the ticket. We address these words to Centre county democrats, now that the nominations are made and the ticket, which is a good one, is in the field. Let the unsuccessful candidates (and there were worthy ones) and their friends, now forget the campaign for the nomination, and go into the work of defeating the opposition ticket with the same will as though their favorites were upon the ticket. This is the duty of every good democrat, and acting upon it will secure us a splendid victory in old Centre.

The tactics of the Centre county radicals will be to centre their opposition against one of our nominees for the Legislature, with the expectation of defeating that one and electing a radical. In order to do this, all kinds of slanders stories will be invented and hurled in broadsides at the democratic nominee whom they will endeavor to defeat. Our ticket is composed of good men and it deserves to be sustained from top to bottom. We trust, therefore, that no democrat will be misled, when the enemy singles out their man to defeat him. Stand by the whole ticket democrats and let the opposition howl.
Radicals are busy themselves with blowing into the ears of candidates who failed in obtaining the democratic nominations, "unfairness, unfairness." These radicals, we think, are showing a sympathy for such gentlemen upon whom they would have showered abuse had they been the successful candidates. The nominations were fairly made in open convention, and those busy radicals who are talking of "unfairness" are only endeavoring to create dissatisfaction, in order to help their own chances. Democrats can see through that.
The democratic state convention meets at Pittsburg August 26, to nominate three officers to be elected upon the majority rule, viz., the Governor, Secretary of the Interior, and Auditor-General, and also a Judge of the Supreme Court, who is to be chosen according to the simple majority of the voters, and the two highest to be elected.
While the Radical papers of this district, says the Clinton Democrat, are attacking Mr. Mackay because he is the President of a National Bank, they should bear in mind that that monopoly of which they blare was created by the Radical party. He did not create it. He has made an able and useful officer of an institution which they created, and if it is an evil, they are responsible for it, while he is entitled to the credit of having, by his able management, lessened the evil as much as possible. And at the same time they should remember that though President of one of their monopolies, he is not an evil, and that he is responsible for it, while he is entitled to the credit of having, by his able management, lessened the evil as much as possible. And at the same time they should remember that though President of one of their monopolies, he is not an evil, and that he is responsible for it, while he is entitled to the credit of having, by his able management, lessened the evil as much as possible.

MISSISSIPPI.
SERIOUS RIOT IN AUSTIN.
THE WHITES MASTERS OF THE SITUATION.
Memphis, Tenn., August 11.—The excitement here in regard to the riot at Austin is increasing. The operators at Helena reports that negroes have been passing there on the Mississippi all day, marching on Austin. The steamer White left this afternoon at five o'clock with about 200 armed men and supplies, under command of Colonel Hagan, of Hernando, Mississippi, about half of whom are from Mississippi, and among whom are some twenty negroes, who say they want this foolishness stopped. The remainder are from this city.
Large numbers of men have gone by land and by water to hold the Court House till midnight, reinforcements in sufficient numbers will have arrived to relieve them.
Major Reeves, who was shot in the melee at Somerville, died yesterday. He was shot by a white man, who died on Sunday from wounds received in the same fight, were buried in one grave.
Memphis, August 11.—A special to the Appeal from Helena, Arkansas, received at 8:30 this morning, says: At Helena, Ark., last night, a lady and two gentlemen arrived here from Austin in a skiff, and report considerable fighting. Late yesterday evening the commander of the post, whose name we have not learned, dispatched a scout of twenty-five men on the road to westward station, on the Mississippi and Tennessee railroad, and captured a picket of twenty negroes, who were stationed about two miles from town, and brought them as prisoners and disarmed them. One of them, as they were being put on the Court House yard, tried to make his escape when he was fired upon and killed, and in the melee another negro was wounded, but not fatally. Later in the evening a large body of negroes advanced on the town, driving the white skiffers to the Court House, where the main body of the whites were stationed.
A charge was made by the whites on the negroes, but were repulsed. The fighting was going on when our informants left, and they were fired upon as they crossed over to Ship Island.
Major Horn Chalmers, of Hernando, has just arrived here for the purpose of chartering a boat to take men to the assistance of the whites in Austin. He says a courier from Major Woodson, of Austin, reached Hernando at daylight, stating the town was surrounded by about one thousand negroes, and asking for help. About a dozen men from Hernando and vicinity will be here at two o'clock and in company with volunteers from this city will start at four o'clock for Austin.
A third dispatch has been received from the vicinity of Austin, asking for men, arms and ammunition; stating that unless the whites, who are surrounded in the Court House, are speedily relieved, they will be forced to surrender or be captured. The steamer A. J. White has been chartered to carry at five o'clock, and will carry a large number of men well armed.
Another special to the Appeal says that the negroes surrounding Austin on the south were charged this morning by a body of armed whites, who fired on them, and captured twenty negroes. The blacks number about seven hundred, while the whites have about two hundred. Both parties are expecting reinforcements. At present the whites have the best of the fight. The negro hands on the planations opposite on the Arkansas side are arming, and marching on Austin in large numbers.
NEGRO RIOTS IN ARKANSAS.
Memphis, Tenn., August 10.—A special to-night from Helena, Ark., to the Appeal says that the steamer "Trotter" was captured by a mob of armed negroes, who informed Captain Smith that he could take his boat to Austin, but that he could not return. Captain Smith deemed it most prudent to turn back once.
The Harrisburg Patriot suggests a point to which we have frequently called the attention of voters, and to which again we most earnestly beg the attention of all who are in favor of reform and opposed to our present Ring rule. It is a fact, that should be generally understood that the duplicate list of voters are now in the hands of the assessors, and subject to inspection free of charge, by any person residing in an election district who shall desire to see the same. It is the duty of every citizen to see that his name is properly registered. After the 31st day of September it will be too late. The law requires an assessment to be made six days before the day of election. On the two secular days before the day for the return of the assessment lists the assessor is required to be at the voting place in his district from ten a. m. to five p. m. the purpose of making corrections or adding new names, but it is not best to wait until the last day. We trust that every Democratic voter will see to this matter at once. Every day is dangerous. The Ring is careful to see that every one of its soldiers is on the roll. Why should the friends of honesty and reform be less vigilant?
PAYING OFF THE STATE DEBT.
The State debt of Pennsylvania, under the system of gradual redemption, is being steadily reduced. The Sinking Fund Commissioners, who are the Auditor General, State Treasurer and Secretary of State, reported on August 1st that the total debt was $24,999,785.37, and that at that time there was in the Sinking Fund $526,947, available for further reduction. The chief items of the debt are $400,000, bearing six per cent. interest in gold; $18,833,900, bearing six per cent. in currency; $3,293,500, bearing five per cent. in currency; $87,000, bearing four-and-a-half per cent. in gold; $141,133 of various bonds, which interest is being paid $100,659 without interest; $83,022 of Chambersburg certificates, at six per cent; and the Agricultural College land scrip fund of $500,000. During July, $21,000 of debt was redeemed, and at the close of that month nearly $453,000 of the General Revenue Fund of the State was deposited on call by the State with various banks and bankers, without collateral or interest. In the reduction of the debt the Committee requires that there shall be paid off annually a sum not less than $250,000. Between January 1 and July 31, the reduction has been $800,000, and by the close of the year it will reach, it is said, $1,200,000.
It is charged that the monthly publication of the debt statements of the United States Treasury Department are often incorrect.
The men employed on the work of grading the National Capital grounds have struck work and driven away those willing to work in their places.

ment will fit about the documents to the committee. But should he take this course, it would not be at all likely to change the nature of the committee's report. No attempt is made to conceal the fact that they have already determined to report in favor of Mr. Beecher. They have declared their willingness, however, to hear the testimony of Mr. Moulton, or any other witness who has any material evidence bearing on the scandal of office. It is the intention of the committee to publish the most important part of the evidence taken during the investigation. Mr. Tilton and his friends claim to be able to controvert Mr. Beecher's statement, but refrain from producing the evidence said to be in their possession, and the committee has spoken. That he will speak they do not doubt, because when last before the committee he announced his intention, in case his own honor and uprightness were assailed, to make public all the evidence in his possession relating to the controversy. Mr. Beecher left Brooklyn yesterday morning for his Peekskill farm, and will not return until the term of summer vacation has expired. The members of the investigating committee did not meet yesterday, nor is it likely they will come together before Monday.
AFFAIRS IN THE INDIAN COUNTRY.
Washington, D. C., August 15.—John M. Miles, Indian agent for the Cheyennes and Arapahoes, writes to the Indian Commissioner, on the 14th inst., giving a satisfactory account of the situation in that vicinity. The Cheyennes who have come into the agency represent that the whole tribe of Cheyennes, except the small parties in the north, has camped on Canyon Creek, a tributary of the North Fork of the Red River, about 165 miles from the agency, moving in that direction with the intention of coming to the agency. The recent instructions of the department to agents, which have been communicated to them, the severe drought, and the fact that the military were ordered to pursue and punish the guilty Indians, have contributed to this movement on their part. The parties which had gone north had gone as an account of a difficulty with the Cheyennes, and the horses secured by a raid into Colorado. The Cheyennes who came in represent that the Kiowas and Comanches are constantly making successful raids into Texas. Agent Miles says the Cheyennes are not in a hostile attitude toward the whites. He says a courier from Major Woodson, of Austin, reached Hernando at daylight, stating the town was surrounded by about one thousand negroes, and asking for help. About a dozen men from Hernando and vicinity will be here at two o'clock and in company with volunteers from this city will start at four o'clock for Austin.
The Cincinnati Gazette says that of all the parties, contentions on the largest steamboat Pat Rogers, such as flags, pumps, hose, fire extinguishers and the like, not one was used by the afflicted crew and passengers. Even the life preservers, which were in every station, were not used. There were life preservers on board with three, yet people rushed headlong into the river without thinking. In no similar disaster have all concerned been so completely in possession of mind as conspicuously.
—Thieves in Blair county steal mowing machines. Next they will steal the wells and post-holes.
GRASSHOPPERS IN KANSAS.
All Standing Crops in ten Counties Eaten.
Topeka, Kan., August 10.—The fearful, untamed grasshopper has been making its first appearance in the largest crop country in the State, and has been accompanied by the more progressive Mormons, and a spirit of opposition is showing itself, which Brigham has the sense to see is fraught with menace to the despatchable. Hence in the elections to be held in the State, the religious machinery is brought to bear to prevent opposition candidates getting into power. In the convention to which I alluded above Mayor Wells manipulated the vote, and secured the election of Brigham, and the opposition papers were suppressed. The amount of damage done to Kansas by the visitation of these jerky birds is almost incalculable. The standing crops of at least ten counties have been eaten up, and in a dozen others they are reduced to one-fourth to one-half. To one who has never seen the march of such a plague, it is difficult to convey an adequate idea of its force and appearance. It has never been more truthfully and graphically described than in the following extract from a publication, calling it the "people's tick." This contains the name of the polygamous apostle Cannon for delegate to the Forty-first Congress, a host of other names, and high church dignitaries for the Legislature, and for county officers a list of names whose sole recommendation is their slavish devotion to their prophet-master's interest.
An opposition ticket was placed in the face of the Liberal party, and a list containing the name of R. N. Baskin, a prominent Gentle lawyer of Salt Lake, for delegate, with a heterogeneous compound of Liberal Mormons, apostates, and high church dignitaries, was presented to the county office. The canvass has been active and acrimonious.
The Church papers have ridiculed the Liberal ticket as "ring-streaked, speckled, and piebald," and their opponents declared that the Liberal ticket was a "dark lantern," a "duck lantern," and a "Kukulu" ticket.
Yesterday the election took place. United States Marshal Maxwell appointed a score of special deputies, and the Chairman of the Territorial Committee selected an equal number of citizens to challenge illegal voters. This the Church prints claimed against a monstrous usurpation of power, and so far as believed, they constructed to allow no "outside interlopers" to interfere with them at the polls. There are six polling places in Salt Lake. The City Hall being the principle one. The great struggle was at the Horley street polling place, where four-fifths of these unscrupulous aliens, many of them are minors, and a large share of them are unable to speak the English language. The challengers objected to these illegal voters, and the Mormons, armed with iron blades, ordered the Marshal's deputies away, and being resisted, four deputies were cut on the head, one named Whitmore, is believed to have been three policemen were arrested and taken before United States Commissioner Tooley, who released them on bail. They returned to the City Hall and began another attack, aimed by Mayor Wells and other members of the police. At noon Police Justice Clinton, Judge of the election at the City Hall, made off with the ballot-box. Warrants were sworn out against him, Chief of Police Bart, and six of his subordinates. An immense mob gathered, and the City Hall was surrounded.

of outside to see the arrests made. The city officers were desperate. They had never been restrained in their unlawful exercise of authority before, and they openly defied United States law and the officers appointed to enforce it.
