Can never come over again, No, never come over again

For woman is warm though man be cold, And the night will hallow the day : Till the heart which at even was weary and Can rise in the morning gay. Sweet wife. To its work in the morning gay.

A STORY FOR HUSBANDS.

day, tired and out of spirits; came home to his wife, who was also tired and out of spirits.

"A smiling wife and a cheerful home—a paradise it would be," said Andrew to himself, as he turned his eyes from the clouded face of Mrs. Lee, and sat down with knitted brows and moody aspect.

"How precious to me are your words of love and praise, Andrew," said Mrs. Lee, smiling up through her tears into his face. "With them in and moody aspect.

Not a word was spoken by either;

He was tempted to speak an angry word, but controlled himself and kept silent. He could find no fault with the chop, nor the homemade bread, nor the fragrant tea. They would have wife looked so repellant, that he feared an irritating reply.

And so, in moody silence, the twain

sat together until Andrew had fluished her husband alone with his unpleasant

ble, your heart bright and shining, your food agreeable; for pity's sake tell her of action is the principle on which the you thank her, if nothing more. She whole religious structure of the Parsee don't expect it. It will make her eyes is built. wider than they have been for ten years:

rebuke. He read no further, for thoughts came too busy, and in a new The two miners we have with us tell for him as she could make it, and had basket from the closet placed it on the pan 5 cents to the pan in our camp near table, and sitting down without speak.

But he was not ready for this yet. He expression of his wife's face he inter- an order published as follows: ed to mean ill-nature, for which he had no patience. His eyes fell upon ing, directs me to say that unofficial in-

He thought of many things to say, and yet he feared to say them lest his wife should meet his address with a re-buff. At last, leaning toward her, and leaned a little towards him. He had broken the ice of reserve, and all was a good wife Andrew Lee must have."

Mrs. Lee turned her face toward her husband. There was something light in it and light in her eye. But there in the ceilings of the better class of houses are formed of tiles of some was something in the expression of the design or figure, and some of the floor countenance that a little puzzled him. "Do you think so?" she asked quite

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

Terms: $2.00 a Year, in Advance.

VOL. VII.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1874.

NO. 38.

THE SOUTHERN TROUBLES.

answer, and he stooped down and kissed her. "How strange that you should ask me such a question."
"If you would only tell me so, now and then, Andrew, it would do me good." Mrs. Lee arose, and leaning her face against the manly breast of her husband, stood and west.

What a strong light broke in on the mind of Andrew Lee! He had never given his wife even the small reward of praise for the loving interest she had manifested daily, until doubt of his love had entered her soul, and made the light around her thick darkness, No wonder that her face grew clouded, or that what he considered moodiness

"You are good and true, Mary, my own dear wife. I am proud of you, and my ears, my heart can never lie in shadow."

Mrs. Lee was getting supper, and she moved about with a weary step.

"Come," she said at last, with a side glance at her husband.

Andrew rose and went to the table.

He was tempted to speak an angry

The Parsees.

The Parsees, says an India missionbeen a gleam of sunshine on the face of his wife. He noticed that she did not as wife. He noticed that she did not at.

"Are you not well, Mary?"

These words were on his lips; but he hid not utter them, for the face of his not utter them, for the face of his not utter them, for the face of his not utter them. The days of the prophet they pray. The dispute exists over the uncertainty as to the year the prophet uncertainty as to the year the prophet. of the Parsees was born. The costume of the Parsee is in accordance with the climate, being very simple, the children wearing a gown reaching to the ankles and belted in at the waist. Contact As he pushed his chair back his wife with other nationalities has somewhat arose and commenced clearing off the attered the style as worn by the ancients. Every year tends to modernize them, as they readily copy after the them. After removing and taking things accessories which accompany a Eurointo the kitchen, Mrs. Lee spread a pean dinner. They, however, never eat green cover over the table, and placing a fresh-trimmed lamp thereon, went out and shut the door after her, leaving out and shut the door after her, leaving the lamp thereon went out and shut the door after her, leaving the lamp there is a shut they are good and affectionate husher husband alone with his unpleasant feelings. He took a long, deep breath as she did so, paused in his walk, stood still for some moments, and then drawing a paper from his pocket, sat down by the table, opened the sheet and comby the sheet bands, and the women occupy a much more honorable position among them by the table, opened the sheet and commenced reading. Singularly enough, the words upon which his eyes rested were "Praise your wife." They rather tended to increase the disturbance of mind from which he was suffering.

"I should like to find some occasion for praising mine." How quickly his thoughts expressed that ill-natured sentiment! But his eyes were on the paper before him and he read on "Praise your wife, man; for pity's sake, give her a little encouragement." It worth turt her."

Andrew Lee raised his eyes from the paper and muttered, "Oh, yes, that's poor disastrons dashed out to meet him in his fatal dashed out to meet him in his fatal throats, and became magnified into a clap of prolonged thunder.

The man who steps on the end of a foot-stool and tips it up, so that if throats, and became magnified into a clap of prolonged thunder.

The man who steps on the end of a foot-stool and tips it up, so that if throats, and became magnified into a clap of prolonged thunder.

The man who steps on the end of a foot-stool and tips it up, so that if throats, and became magnified into a clap of prolonged thunder.

The man who steps on the end of a foot-stool and tips it up, so that if throats, and became magnified into a clap of prolonged thunder.

The man who steps on the end of a foot-stool and tips it up, so that if throats, and became magnified into a clap of prolonged thunder.

The man who steps on the end of a foot-stool and tips it up, so that if throats, and became magnified into a clap of prolonged thunder.

The man who steps on the end of a foot-stool and tips it up, so that if throats, and became magnified into a clap of prolonged thunder.

The man who steps on the end of a foot-stool and tips it up, so that if throats, and became magnified into a clap of prolonged thunder.

The man who steps on the end of a foot-stool and tips it up, so that if throats, and became magnified into a clap of pro But praise her for what? For being sullen and making her home the most disagreeable place in the world?

Sullen and making her home the most disagreeable place in the world?

Sullen and making her home the most disagreeable place in the world?

Sullen and white properties are considered by the Prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster, recognizes but hacked to pieces by the prophet Zoroaster by the p sullen and making her home the most one God, without form and invisible, disagreeable place in the world? His To him is adjudged a place above all, se fell again to the paper.

She has made your home comfortafor all the good in the world. Purity

The publication of the results of Gen. Custer's explorations of the Black tence was written expressly for him and Hills country has excited much interest just for the occasion. It was a cem- East and West. Gen. Forsyth's letter lete answer to this question, "Praise and diary have been widely read. In

There have been signs of a gold fever most stealthily at the work in her hands, and saw that it was the bosom coveries. Expeditions are now forming of a shirt, which she was stitching in this city and at different points in neatly. He knew that it was for him lowa, Dakota, and Wyoming, to go to Praise your wife!" These words these lands are secured as a reservation still felt moody and unforgiving. The eral, recalls this fact to their notice in

"The Lieutenant-General commandthe newspaper that was lying spread out before him, and he read the senters, of the organization of parties at tence, "A kind, cheerful word spoken | Sieux City, Yankton, and Bismarck, to in a gloomy house, is the little rift in the cloud that lets the sunshine with the view of visiting the country with the view of visiting the country such information be correct, you will His own ill-nature had to be con-quered first; his moody, accusing spirit had to be subdued.

His own ill-nature had to be con-will not be permitted to go unless un-der authority from the Hon. Secretary of the Interior or Congress."

A Mexican Town.

A recent letter-writer says that one ing so fitly as to cannon planted in a breastwork, and thus, as he casts his it a slight huskiness. She did not turn eyes along a block, the latter looks for her face, but her husband saw that she all the world like a fort. But let him be underneath them when a genuine be inderneath them when a genuine broken the ice of reserve, and all was now easy. His hand was among the clouds, and a feeble ray was already struggling through the rift it had made.

"Yes Mary" he enswered softly the sortly and the control of the sortly and the control of the sortly of the sor tiles, everlaid with tin or asphalt, or other kind of material. The floors are sional party passed through Fort Hal-leck, the writer happened to be one of the detail of four soldiers ordered out as a special escort or scout to follow the illustrious party to Bridger Pass, Elk Mountains, a flock of sage hens attracted our attention and separated our party. Fatal temptation! We little thought of the danger then so near us, and the horrible fate awaiting the bravest and boldest of the party— poor George Bodine. He had just manœuvre completely cut off from us. We counted sixteen or seventen Indians, and opened fire upon them from a friendly clump of brush in which we sought shelter. Poor George! He realized his danger in a moment; his only hope of safety was in flight. His norse, though tired from its long gal-op after the stage-coach, was still able to distance the scrubby ponies of the Sioux, and if he could reach the ferry at North Platte, he would be safe Alas, for the bravest of comrades, the pride of a proud mother and father, who to this day mour his horrible fate. His horse, frightened by the yells of the red demons in pursuit, and evidently maddened by an arrow or two which had struck it, became unmanageable, and in a fatal moment the bridle-rein broke from one side of the bit. The terrified and now unrestrained brute turned toward us. To reach us it nust come in contact with the Sioux. It was an exciting race, but a hopele the screams of agony ring upon the air.

A PRONTIER REMINISCENCE.

away we heard his horrible cries

some of this strange sand, taken from a bank on the Island of Kauai, to the without notes. Academy of Sciences in San Francisco In his letter he thus describes its pecu liarity: The bank which is composed of this sand commences at a perpenand he felt it also as a the Chicago Tribune he writes from dienlar bluff at the south-west end of miles almost due south, parallel with direction. Memory was convincing him of injustice to his wife. She had always made her home as comfortable Harney's Peak; that the diggings there Harney's Peak; that the diggings there This sand-drift is about 60 feet high, he offered the light return of praise or commendation? Had he ever told her of the satisfaction he had known or the comfort he had experienced? He was not able to recall the time or occasion.

As he thought thus Mrs. Lee came in in Custer's Gulch will pay $10 per day and at the extreme south end of the As he thought thus Mrs. Lee came in from the kitchen, and taking her worknorth if you slap two handfuls together hooting of an owl-more or less sharp. according as the motion is quick or slow. Sit down upon the sand and give one hand a quick circular motion, and melodeon. Kneel upon the steep in-cline, extend the two hands and clasp re before the eyes of his mind, and could not look away from them at he was not ready for this yet. He Sheridan, through his Adjutant-Gendard he was not ready for this yet. He Sheridan, through his Adjutant-Gendard he was not ready for this yet. He Sheridan, through his Adjutant-Gendard he was not ready for this yet. scend until it is like distant thunder In this experiment the sound was sufficient to frighten our horses, fastened a short distance from the base of the drift. But the greatest sound we produced But the greatest sound we produced was by having one native lie down, and another taking him by the feet and dragging him rapidly down the incline, carrying as much sand as possible with them. With this experiment the sound was terrific, and could have been heard many hundred varis distant. With all many hundred yards distant. With all the experiments that were made, seemed the sound was in proportion t the amount of sand put in motion with sideration seems requisite—that is perfect dryness. The dry sand would sound on the surface, where six inches taking hold upon the shirt-bosom at which she was at work, he said in a voice that was carefully modulated with the rule. The oddest feature of Mexi- The sand appears to the eye like ord "You are doing the work beautifully, Mary."

Mrs. Lee made no reply. But her husband did not fail to notice that she lost, almost instantly, that rigid erectness with which she had been sitting, nor that the motion of her needle had ceased.

"My shirts are better made and whiter than those of any other man in out some two or three feet from the of year. Perhaps if exposed to a very some two or three feet from the of year. Perhaps if exposed to a very some two or three feet from the of year. Perhaps if exposed to a very some true of death carry off in the sand appears to the eye like ordinary beach-sand, but ordinary beach-sand will not produce the sounds. It has been said that it lost its sonorous properties when taken away from the sidewalk, or where the sidewalk often should be. With their glazed, dark-red color, these conduits look just like so many cannon thrusting their muzzles out some two or three feet from the of year. Perhaps if exposed to a very whiter than those of any other man in the shop," said Lee, encouraged to go front wall. The stranger who first sees these spouts can compare them to noth moisture enough to prevent its soundwhiter than those of any other man in out some two or three feet from the of year. Perhaps if exposed to a very

How HE DID IT.—This was George Butts, way of robbing Matilda Koenig, in Chicago. First he married her. She had saved by hard labor $600, and book made out in his own mame. Mrs. But objected to this, and her husband 600 acres of the finest blue grass land went to the bank and obtained a book in her name, on which he had $60 placed to her credit. But before he carried it to her be added another cipher, and made his wife believe that he had transferred the whole sum to her credit. He then visited the bank a third time, drew out $540, and ran away.

Spurgeon's Church in London.

We got a seat in one of the galleries The recent arrival of ex-Vice President Colfax in Denver recalls to the mind of a local paper a half-forgotten but never published incident growing out of his trip across the plains in 1864 or 1865. At that time Capt, Humphreville's Company K, of the Eleventh Ohio Cavalry Volunteers, was stationed in garrison at Fort Halleck, a small log fortress on the Overland Stage Line, near the base of Medicine Bow Mountain. When Colfax and his Congressional party passed through Fort Hal the illustrious party to Bridger Pass, after which we were instructed to return. Our mission was performed faithfully. We saw the coach with its load of notables go dashing down the other side of the range, and with merry hearts and gleeful voices turned our horses for a gallop back to the fort. As we moved rapidly along through the sage-brush and grease-wood in the valley between Medicine Bow and the Elk Mountains, a flock of sage hens grouse, when, with a chorus of horrible whoops and yells, a party of Sioux rode up out of a ravine, which, with the sage-brush, had concealed them from observation, and after discharging a cloud of arrows, mingled with slugs and bullets, at us at long range, galloped toward Bodine, who was by this manceuvre completely ent off from me the control of the control of the most moderate health, can depict the noise without trouble. The nearhacked to pieces by the fifteen red fiends, none can tell. As we galloped est thing I can liken it to, is the rolling and breaking of the surf upon a Nev Hampshire coast, from his head, and to this day, when thinking of that horrid incident, those interest. He is a large man, and a thorough Englishman in appearance. A broad, reddish face, light hair, and a W. B. Frink, of Honolulu, has sent There was nothing particularly attrac-

The New York correspondent of the women get coals, liquors, house rent, and rides in the park from a systematic begging for coffin or shroud, or money to bury a poor woman or a dead child At the eventide, between dawn and dark, the meditations of a city pastor were disturbed by the entrance of woman. She was out at service, she to get ont. She attended the pastor's church, and with a companion sat among the lowly in the gallery. Both had been converted the past winter; both wished to be baptized. The sickness of her friend prevented it, and now she had just died. Her companion wished her to call upon the pastor, him for the great benefits she had de-rived from his preaching, and to bear her dying request that he should attend her funeral. The street, house and the pastor was deeply effected. The little money of both had been exhausted in the sickness and the reparations for the funeral. Every there any society that helped bury the dead? There was none. But the pastor opened his pocket-book and prompt ly tendered five dollars to complete the arrangements for the funeral. The girl would not touch it—would not think of such a thing. After an earnest plea on the pastor's part, the visi would take it only as a loan, to b returned in a short time, and with many thanks departed. The pastor entered the remarkable case in his note book, with which to refresh the saints a proportionate velocity. Another con- when they came together. He took carriage and started for the funeral. He found the street and the house very easily—but, alas! no corpse. Nobody was sick—nobody had died; whole was a deliberate plan to get out of the minister five dollars, and the plan was a success."

John Harper, familiarly known as Uncle John Harper," the well-known Kentucky stock raiser and distinguished turfman, was of a plain, frugal family of Pennsylvania Dutch crigin, though long settled in Kentucky. He was one of five children, only one of whom, a brother, ever married. Another brother, Adam, was killed in 1864 by guerrillas, who visited the house for booty. His brother Jacob and sister Elizabeth were, on the 11th of September, 1871, murdered in their beds by parties still unknown. The had amassed a large property by farming and rearing race horses, all of which ecame the property of John Harper in Kentucky, together with all his race horses (including Longfellow)' to his nephew "Little Frank Harper." John

HASTY FIRING .- A French officer, who fought in the Crimea, related to me how an English battalion of infantry destroyed two Russian regiments; the opened to shelter the weary traveler, to it, and a group of children at a little cove seemed to watch our movements dozen." with much interest. We found, too trance of the hot river. Our only profit from the trip was the sight of an enor-mous seal-it could hardly have been less than 12 feet in length-which every now and then popped up its huge, stupid head behind us. After a dance of nearly two hours over the rough waves, we were glad to return and leave the hot springs from which Rejkiavik

BAYARD TAYLOR IN ICELAND.

(the smoking or steaming harbor) is Our visits on shore have been continued to-day. They are always agreeable, but so much alike in form of re-ception, heartiness of welcome, and en the material features of the resilescribe them in succession. The best ouses in the town are very much alike in structure and internal arrangement. There is usually a little hall or room, about large enough to pull off an vercoat in, then the study or recep-ion-room of the owner, according to his profession, and beyond it the salon White curtains, pots of flowers in the windows, a carpet on the floor, a sofa, center-table with books and photo-

do not attempt to conceal it. The average stature is short, not above five feet six inches, complexion of a coarse, own a good farm, and to the good manuddy brown, hair generally blonde agement and thrift of the who is and straight, eyes blue or gray, body broad, short, and compact, with short, sturdy limbs, large hands and feet—in fact a general aspect of rough vigor, but also of something more than that. But my paragon does not write such Salmon river, about four miles from here. Mr. Thomsen, a very enterprising and obliging merchant, who supplies our vessel during her stay here, accompanied them as he had accompanied the king yesterday. The salmon were not quite so ready to be captured as His Majesty found them (a circumstance I will not endeavor to evidence) but here will not explain the heart of scissors, soon attracts a crowd of village maidens, who, after a little containing the same of Majesty found them (a circumstance I will not endeavor to explain), but I believe ours caught a dozen, some of which have been ordered to be "kippered" for friends and families. I have never tasted fish more succulent, prodigal of flesh, or delicious in flavor.

The journey to Thingvalla and the services for each of village maidens, who, after a little haggling, submit to be sheared like so many sheep. After dextrously and gracefully clipping the locks, he deposits them, neatly tied, in his baskets, and Jeannie is liberated, to be greeted with shouts and laughter from her companions for so well has the work been The journey to Thingvalla and the Geysers gives us some anxiety. It is absolutely necessary to take a tent, as every farm-byre in the neighborhood is sure to be crowded by family and friends, and the churches (the only hotels to be reckoned upon in Iceland)

The same transport to the degree of the same transport in a few thin locks, at least, of nature's fairest gift. In that province, the same transport is for well and the same transport in the same tra will be opened to the multitude. In a land like this, where the tavern is unknown and private hospitality is so than the formulation of the land like the specific transfer of the land like this, where the tavern is unknown and private hospitality is so that the land like this the land like the specific transfer of the land like the land like the specific transfer of the land like the land l limited by the scanty resources of the people, I find it simply and entirely Christian that the Church should be richest harvest.

"What a queer question!" ejaculated Andrew Lee, starting up and going round to the side of the table where his wife was sitting. "What a question, Mary!" he repeated, as he stood before her.

"Do you ?" was all she said.

"Yes, darling!" was his warm-spoken

At a meeting in Lendon to receive a "Terre Haute Express: When young Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "Mr. Spitzer left home for college he took leave of his mother in this manner: "I take," he replied, "a great interest in your of you constantly." When he returned of you constantly." When he returned to the repeated, as he stood before her.

"Do you?" was all she said.

"Yes, darling!" was his warm-spoken set I shall feel very much obliged."

Trere Haute Express: When young a fired incessantly, and did not gurdent in the season of cold and rain, and to gurdent in the reduired was trend, the replied, "Sumbers But we hear of so many families who are going to the the weary traveler, to defend the reduired was trend, and the voiced and aimed badly. On the constantly, and dilonate took l

A WORKING WOMAN.

"Oh, yes," she replied, with a smile; to appear, Gen. Jackson told the court that the proof was closed, and for them inquire about the land, and day before inquire about the land, and day before their judgment in the premium of the court that the proof was closed, and for them inquire about the land, and day before the court that the proof was closed, and for them inquire about the land, and day before the court that the proof was closed, and for them inquire about the land, and day before the court that the proof was closed, and for them inquire about the land, and day before the court that the proof was closed, and for them inquire about the land, and day before the court that the proof was closed, and for them inquire about the land, and day before the court that the proof was closed, and for them inquire about the land, and day before the court that the proof was closed, and for them inquire about the land, and day before the court that the proof was closed, and for them inquire about the land, and day before the court that the proof was closed, and for them inquire about the land, and day before the court that the proof was closed, and for them inquire about the land, and day before the court that the proof was closed, and for the court that the proof was closed, and for the court that the proof was closed, and for the court that the proof was closed, and for the court that the proof was closed, and the court that the proof was closed to the court that the cou side your house?" I inquired. yesterday I went to the State Fair with some butter, which took a premium." "You must sit up very late nights,"

I said.

"Oh no, not very; we always finish np our work by 8 o'elock evenings unman was anxious to get back his propnp our work by 8 o'clock evenings unless something very special is going on, for we are quite a musical family. We have a piano. My daughters are good players, and father and mother, boys and girls, all count upon a good sing, often, before going to bed, and this causes us to sit up rather later, I have sometimes thought, than was good for us, considering we have to be up with the lark in the mornings. You know," she added, "that music is very fascinagement and thrift of the wife is at-

A STORY ABOUT GEN. JACKSON.

Spergers Chard in Leisen.

We for a new first of parties, and I could make a second of the parties of the parti to render their judgment in the premises, which, in a few moments, was done in accordance with the facts proved. I was still on the fence forming one line of the large pound containing the property has on the race. Each proved the states Marshals and attorneys, and is out as to be naturally sheltered at every out as to be President, to whom the essential points were submitted in the recent visit of the Attorney-General to Long Branch.

sne added, "that music is very fascinating to those who love it." Are you always well," I asked. "My health is perfect. I have a good natural constitution, and have no time to be debilitated and nervous." Here this paragon arose to go. I followed her to the gate, saw her unhitch her horse and drive off, while I returned to the house with these reflections: Elev-n children, boarders, a farm, no servants, no sewing put out, all teaching done in when at last found, Mrs. Kelk was seriously ill and hysterical. Violent epicleptic fits followed, and the shock being more than the nervous system could sustain, death shortly put an end to the poor young lady's sufferings.

The Human Form.

The whole human figure should be six times the length of the feet. When the disposal of their own objects ordinarily contained apartments of dwellings, and a priori, when the lightning apartment, the human body give the Long Island farmers some place in their cities where they could sell their goods directly to the consumers, instead of being dependent upon the speculators and middlemen, who sometimes kept their wares forty-eight hours before selling them. Whether but also of something more than that. What this something may be it will be my task to discover when we go into the interior of the island.

This morning some of our party took ponies and rode out to the Laxa, or Salmon river, about four miles from here. Mr. Thomsen, a very enterprising and cobliging merchant, who supplies and cobliging merchant, who supplies and cobliging merchant, who supplies are deligible to the succession of the succes forehead where the hair begins, to the chin, is one tenth of the whole statue. The hand, from the wrist to the middle "Why you're a new comer, aren't you? haven't seen you before," we remarked to a lad of about twelve years, flinger, is the same. From the top of the chest to the highest part of the foreas he was giving us a shine in Kinghead is the seventh. If the face, from ston.

A Chicago man whose uncle died and left him $18,000, broke his leg while opening for joy.

A Chicago man whose uncle died and left him $18,000, broke his leg while breast, he exclaimed, "Indian here large approaching from the interest, he exclaimed, "Indian here large approaching from the interest, he exclaimed, "Indian here large approaching from the interest, he exclaimed, "Indian here large approaching from the interest, he exclaimed, "Indian here large approaching from the interest.

Indiana's product of hogs this year will be 150,000 less than last year.

Facts and Fancle

"Unmanned by the loss of her hus-band," is a new style of indicating a widow's grief.

The paper that calls Goldsmith Maid the "King of the Turf" opposes woman

A newspaper is the only instrument which can drop the same thought into a thousand minds at the same moment. A lady at Princeton, Ia., was recently stung on the neck by a honey bee, and died from the wound in twenty minutes "The world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players"—and the bill just now is "The school for Scandal"

If your sister fell into a well, why couldn't you resone her? Because you couldn't be a brother and assist-her too. Why are two ladies kissing each other n emblem of Christianity? Because an emblem of Christianity? Because they are doing unto each other as they would men should do unto them.

He again called on the parties to appear and counteract this proof and vindicate their innocence. They failing to appear, Gen. Jackson told the court that the proof was closed and for them.

sixty feet.

Did you ever hear of oucumbertors?

It is prepared as follows: Pare and slice lengthwise, medium-sized oucumbers, in cuts a quarter of an inch thick. The Farmers' Co-operative Union, of Long Island, had their second annual harvest home festival at Bookaway Beach, and had a very agreeable time—dancing, bathing, eating and talking. Hon. John O'Dennell, editor of the Jamaica Standard, briefly explained the objects and aims of the organization, and reviewed its career in the past. It was founded, he said, six years ago, when an attempt was made to tax the farmers as produce brokers. A mass white curtains, pots of flowers in the windows, a carpet on the floor, a soft, earlier-table with books and photographs, and pictures on the walls are the invariable features of this apartment; and in spite of the lowness of the ceiling, and other primitive srehistectural characteristics, it is always cheerful, bright and agreeable. Rocking-chairs are not uncommon, and the guest easily torgets both latitude and locality as he looks out upon currant-bushes and potato-plants, while conversing with a grave, earnest-faced young lady upon Shakespeare, German literature, or the latest music.

The common people—if one has the right to use the word "common" in referring to such a people—are still some the current of an early to the swill active the right to use the word "common in referring to such a people—are still some the death, but it is son in each point of the current of an early and shrinking of a puzzle to me. They watch as the right to use the word "common in referring to such a people—are still some the word was never any other class of the community, the medium of Danish they are shy and shrinking to such an extent that they do not attempt to conceal it. The worder estature is abort, not above figure in the first the surface of the surface of the surface and industry will accomplish. She was more than the referred to conceal it. The worder of the structured to the house, and his vent to the surface of the surface and find her story was not experted to open shirts I are the surface of the surface and the property. The were the bone and sinew, and the property shaken: form one in a chain of inductions, de-termining the path of an electrical dis-charge, unless better conductors are in its vicinity to divert this action.

The public houses in England are not new allowed to dispense strong drink on Sunday except to persons traveling, and in order to determine who the favored few are who may quench their thirst by a glass of beer on the Lord's Day, the law affecting the matter' has a descriptive clause to the matter, has a descriptive clause to the effect that "for the purposes of this act we re- a person shall not be deemed to be a traveler unless he is three miles from the place where he lodged the previous night." Three miles is a pretty long head is the seventh. If the face, from the roots of the hair to the chin, be divided into three equal parts, the first division determines the place where the eyebrows meet, and the second the place of the nostrils. Height from the feet to the top of the head is the distance from the extremity of the fingers when the arms are extended.

Set, sir; ain't bin here before, but took it in this trip—lots of coal here, sir."

Yes, where are you from?"

Oh, I'm on my summer trip. I'm from New York—always take a run out of town in the summer—done it for—oh, I d'n know how long. Like the country for a while,"

CRUEL.—A new and cruel invention at Long Branch is the introduction of e, living butterflies in the entire centre piece of flowers which usually adorn able dinner and supper parties. The poor insects are fastened by a fine wire which is passed through their bodies concealed among the flowers. The convulsive quiver of the expanded wings as the tortured butterfly struggles in its dying agonies, is supposed to represent the graceful wave of the same above some freshly opened flower.

CRUEL.—A new and cruel invention "Well are you having a good time?" "Well are you having a good time?" "Well are you having a good time?" "Says: The road led past the prison, which is altogether the finest building in Rejkiavik. But, alas for the waits in vain for an inmate. The smoothly-out walls of gray lava-stone, which is altogether the finest building of those who decreed its erection! It waits in vain for an inmate. The smoothly-out walls of gray lava-stone, the cheerful cells, the spacious prison-yard invite some one to be culprit and enjoy their idle Inxuries; but the people are too ignorant to accept the call. On the summit of the hill above there is a rather graceful square tower, built by the students during their play-hours has a place of shelter when the weather.