Legislative Friends.

Last week we did know there was a Republican opposition to Pinchback from New Orleans. I told him so. He said charges were preferred on account of legislative fraud. I asked him what had led to this, as he was a Republican, and I told him he would not tell me. I then asked him if he would tell the party, and he said he would not. I then asked him if he would tell the public, and he said he would not.

New Orleans, September 25.—The day of the P. M. came on, and the resolutions were read in the State House after Gov. Kellogg's retreat to the office of Marshal Packard, a large number of official and private letters were found in the archives of the office, and have since been in the possession of the public. Among these letters were a number which passed between Gov. Kellogg and prominent Congressmen. It has been frequently stated that they contained important revelations as to the manner in which the Louisiana case was managed. In fact, they were all found, with a view to setting Mr. Pinchback in the Senate, and keeping Gov. Kellogg and his party in power. The Tribune representative succeeded today in seeing the originals and obtaining copies of the same. Some of these are given herewith. The first is from E. C. Billings, a Republican lawyer of this city, one of the counsel of Gov. Kellogg while the Louisiana case was before Congress.

E. C. BILLINGS TO GOV. KELLOGG.

Washington, Dec. 3, 1873.

DEAR GOVERNOR:—I am, I think, in a position to give you some information that will be of great value to you and your party.

Change of Congressmen.

We think every honest man—Democrat as well as Republican—will agree with us, that congress sadly needs a cleaning out. Salary Grabbers, Credit Mobiliers, and a hundred other disgraceful practices which are too many to enumerate, have satisfied all honest men that the Augean stables at Washington need the river of purification turned upon them, and that it is high time the thieves and plunderers who have benighted the Forty thieves there in its reality and in its disgrace and injury of the nation, should be sent into political exile. Let the old sinners be given strict marching orders; let the halls of legislation be strewn with a disinfectant,—by all means let there be a change of congressmen, for the good Lord knows that it can not be for the worse. The latest stain is that unearthed from Gov. Kellogg's correspondence obtained during the recent fracas at New Orleans, in which were a batch of letters from Butler, Carpenter, and other prominent and shining radical lights at Washington, which show that these fellows were feed-bribed—by Kellogg to sustain him. Carpenter asked $10,000 of Kellogg, because it would be a "Godsend," as he was short." Some of these letters we give in another column. Now to drip out these fellows will be the greatest "Godsend" the people can have. Let us do our share in this good work by electing that most of unimpeachable character and undoubted purity, L. A. Mackay, to congress with such a tremendous vote that rogues and disreputable men in high places will not mistake the deep indignation of the people.

Mr. Mackay is the people's man; he is of the people and ever was and still is, for the people. Honest men, give him a big vote.

Shugert and Wolf.

Let them receive every democratic vote; the party can not afford to lose any of its representatives at Harrisburg. This is a matter of great importance, not only for the democracy of this county, but may be of the utmost moment to the party in the state.

Stand by the nominees, they were fairly nominated by the regular representatives of the party. They will be found true in every vote and upon every important measure. A radical will go against the interests of our party in every thing. Don't listen to the coaxings of the enemy, but vote the whole ticket.

LOUISIANA DEVELOPMENTS.

ASTOUNDING REVELATIONS—THE WAY IN WHICH THE KELLOGG LITIGATION WAS MANAGED—LEADING RADICALS EXPOSED.

We submit these developments below to intelligent Republicans, and ask whether they will vote to sustain in power men who have made the misfortune of people a merchandise, and bought and sold the political integrity of States in the United States and the halls of Congress.

Special dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.
