

LOCAL ITEMS.

Our friends will oblige by sending us items of local news in their locality, give us the who, what, why, how, and how much, and we will not only send them, but also send them to our friends.

—Rain on Tuesday last, 92. —Judge Orvis is holding court at Lewburg this week.

—Rev. Miller's two new houses are under way. —A party of hunters from Boalsburg last week took six deer out of the Seven Mountains.

—Elias M. Cool, of Spring Mills, while at work with a cleaver-haul, at J. S. Keller's left hand, on Wednesday morning, had his left hand caught by the machine, and some of his fingers badly lacerated.

—The house, lot, smithshop, of Philip Mauer, dead in Greeng, will be offered at public sale, Dec. 19, next.

—Persons owing school tax, are notified that the Treasurer, S. M. Swartz, will be at Centre Hall, Monday, Nov. 23, and at Putney Mills, the following Wednesday, 25, to receive the same, and to pay 5 per cent expiring on the last of November.

—James Maxwell has been appointed postmaster at Langdon, this county.

—There are some persons across the valley who evidently are fond of seeing their friends. Our friend John R. Bell, writes us, that he is coming to Centre Hall, Nov. 16-18, next, and that he will visit with us at our place.

—A Broadway correspondent informs us that John C. Green, who is said to be a scholar, and that he since also has achieved a name—and is proud of his achievements. Calvin must be a Nimrod.

—Here it is, housekeepers—no more trouble in making soap. Just go to Miller's drug store and get a half lb. of Babbin's Concentrated Potash, and you are all right. You can also see there a specimen of the soap made here from it. Get it before it is all sold.

—The farm of Andrew Stover, dead, of Helms town, was purchased by Joseph Jordan, of Aaronsburg, at $70 per acre.

—At Welch's, next door to Nat. Bank, Bellefonte, is just the place to go for holiday presents. He has the largest variety this side of Philadelphia, and anything suitable for old and young, ladies and gentlemen. His store is a perfect museum.

—We call the attention of the reader to the prospectus of the Pittsburg Post. The Post is one of our favorite journals, and a staunch Democratic organ. It is ably edited, and always has a reliable report, which makes it a favorite. The Weekly is one of the best in the state.

—J. O. Deisinger has laid down a substantial board walk in front of his premises. Let those above and below follow his example. It will be a great benefit to the public, and will also be a great benefit to the property.

—Mr. Wm. Wolf and lady, which on their way home from Milroy, on last Thursday night, met with an accident which might have proven much more serious than it did. The horse, hitched in a carriage, in turning from the upper to the lower part of the plank, between Centre Hill and Judge Hesterman's, came to rest on the bank, causing the carriage to upset, and the horse started off, dragging them a short distance, when the single-tree broke, and he left the right wheel.

—Mr. Wolf sustained some severe cuts and bruises about the face and Mr. Wolf also received some bruises. Had the horse not become free from the carriage as soon as he did, the result no doubt would have been very serious.

—The Evangelical church of this place will be supplied with a steel bell, in a short time, weighing with mounting 150 pounds.

—John Spangler has sold his stage road and equipment, between Laurelton and Centre Hall, to George Miller, of Woodward.

—Prof. Wm. T. Meyer intends remaining at Aaronsburg, the coming winter, and will devote his entire time to teaching vocal and instrumental music. Special arrangements have been made to accommodate scholars from a distance. Mr. Meyer is a thorough teacher in all the branches of music, and pupils under his care will have all the advantages of instruction in the most complete and practical music school. He will give special attention to persons wishing to prepare themselves for teaching music. For terms, &c., see circular.

—Humors of the Election. —Of all the sad words by tongue or pen, the saddest are these: "It might have been."

—Hoary for — Well, hoary for Jones! we must "hoary" for somebody, say a boy-hoary! hoary the other night. If any man dares to say "hoary" after this "hoary" on the spot."

—It was a severe storm after only a few comfortable and aldermen saved from the wreck.

—There is a God for thought in the late election returns, though it must be confessed some people can't make much of a meal of one.

—One of the most exhilarating sights in the world is to see a newspaper prediction made, and then to see the prediction come true. It is embellished in the highest style of art, fashion plates not to be excelled, and its pages for entertaining. Get the Book, and get it. Price $3.15 per year with a fine chromo, and postage paid.

—Subscribers to the Reporter, residing outside of Centre County, should remit us 10 cents, yearly, for postage which we will not only send them, but also send them to our friends.

—The Reporter is a weekly paper, published every Monday, and is the only paper of its kind in the county. It is published at Centre Hall, Pa.

THE CENTRE HALL REPORTER.

—The Centre Hall Reporter coming, and concluding that now is the time to subscribe for it. Evidently the Reporter's desire of establishing the same, is to induce such a number of the eye-vids.

CHINA.

A Terrible Typhoon—Unprecedented Damage—Twenty Thousand Lives Lost and $5,000,000 Worth of Property Destroyed—A Tragic Story of Afflictions.

A Quack and $40,000.

Mr. Bell, of 17, Sept., last, I noticed an article from a quack who signs himself "Granger." As that is the name of the proprietor of the African Samboes who do not know his real name, or else he is ashamed of it, otherwise he would have followed his article as I do, by a genuine name. I think such a quack is not credit to the Grangers.

MARRIAGES.

On Sept. 24th, by Rev. Wm. Groh, Mr. Jeremiah Stubb, and Miss Colinda Rich, both of Nittany Valley.

NEGRO BRITE KILLED.

Memphis, November 6.—Parties from Memphis, Arkansas, started yesterday morning Jack Phillips, negro, outraged the wife of a planter near there. From the treatment she received she will probably die. The negro was arrested and brought to Decatur, where the citizens both black and white improvised their own court and after hearing the evidence took the prisoner out and shot him dead.
