Wallace, as a candidate for C. Senator. We do not think the attacks upon him will be very telling, as we see they are discontenanced by nearly the entire democratic press of the state. Mr. Wallace is the strong the state entrusted the field for the Senatorship, hence this fierce onslaught upon this state entrusted the leadership of the party into his shads in its dark days, and held on the column gallanity and without the column gallanity and without signs of faltering. His will, however, defended and albert for two reasons. First, because they are too well known. If elected, he will be a credit to or party and true too well known.
