GRANT'S PLOT EXPOSED.

THE LOUISIANA REPORT.

The report of the sub-committee on Louisiana affairs is laid before the public, and as the work of three Congressmen who personally investigated the condition of the State, and whose ability and impartiality are not to be questioned, it will have great weight without color of legality. It was an addition on which the President States of Louisiana affairs that has yet been made, and in many essential points contradicts the important suggestion that he yet been made and in many essential points contradicts the important suggestion that he yet been more excuse for an invasion of the right of the House of Representatives of the state of Louisiana to judge for tise for the title to seats of its own members.
