been "furloughed." On board the Canandaigua a literary journal has been edited and published by the officers and crew called The Canandaigua Journal. Recently there appeared in that journal an article in which the administration of the Navy Department was subjected to it criticism. A copy of the journal containing the offensive article was taken ashore at New Orleans and the criticism copied into one of the daily papers of that city, rand was thus brought to the eye of Secretary Robeson. Capt. Barrett was detailed to relieve Capt. Lowry. To "furblough" an officer of the navy is a severe spunishment. The furlough places the officer on waiting orders, with but half all the pay and allowance of his grade. Capt. Lowry's sea pay is $4,500 per annum; his waiting orders pay $2,800, and the furlough, reducing this one-half, will leave him but $1,400 per annum.

The time which the furlough is to continue is not designated.
