Rest at Last.

No more beneath Life's daily cross To bend with faltering steps and slow No more in all the heart desires The bitterness of loss to know No more to force a careless mirth While struggling with the tear repressed ; No more to toil with fainting strength, But softly, calmly, laid to rest

Wounded no more by crutel tongues, No more perplexed by honest doubt ; No more disheartened by defeat Where life's best efforts were poured out No more through endless seeming nights, Waking and prayerless to repine Untroubled now ! A deep repose, Perfect and long desired, is thine

THE CENTRE REPORTER.

CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1875.

ARISTOCRATIC SMUGGLERS.

FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.

Terms: $2.00 a Year, in Advance.

VOL. VIII.

Dream-World.

Dear, beautiful, far land ! Where all these foot-sore, sighing pilgrims go, Leaving their burden and the restless woe

Of the fierce desert sand !

Thither all travel ; there Wander tired kings, in glad content,

The slave, with all his bonds unbound, Breathes its unguarded air.

Thither go home at night All hopeless exiles in this foreign mart. Finding the old ways re-opened in each heart Into forgotten light.

There the lost child is found O gentle school-boy, vanished from our sight Fling your gay ball and fly your eager kits

In that enchanted ground There, firm as in far years,

Are fallen heart-temples, dear remember homes ;

Through vanished doors each face familiar

Smiling-we wake with tears !

How far, yet near, it seems ! This dusty world struck underfoot away-Circling lost suns, and sweet with happier day The holy sphere of dreams.

trifle of progress in night-work, but only a trifle. I had a note-book that fairly bristled with the names of towns, "points," bars, islands, bends, reaches, the wheel and Mr. W. stepped aside. For the next thirty minutes every man held his watch in his hand and was rest-"points," bars, islands, bends, reaches, held his watch in his hand and was rest-ete.; but the information was to be found only in the note-book—none of it was in my head. It made my heart ache to think I had only got half of the river set think I had only got half of the river set." "Well, yonder's Hat Island—and we

OLD TIMES ON THE MISSISSIPPI. dust; nice new oil-cloth on the floor; a the hurricane deck: dust; nice new oil-cloth on the floor; a the hurricane deck: "Labboard lead,

HEAVY RIFLED ARTILLERY. every man The President of the United States Discusses

The President sent the following mes-

How the Fashionable Ladies of Our Large What is to be Dones-Taxes and Duties-The Cities Obtain their Elegant Robes. Whisky Question. The Matter.
The Matter Matter

UNITED STATES FINANCES.

of a freed worden box filled with aver, in the possible of the sector sec

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

NO. 7.

"A MOTHER OF CRIMINALS." How to Get Rich.

sider how much each criminal costs the community, and how immensely cheaper prevention is than punishment. We have already alluded to the very striking facts in regard to the panper child Mar-garet, "the mother of criminals," which in dim the spent too much time in cooking he married a strong, healthy woman, leaving the hay field an hour and a half to have the ceremony per-formed, when he returned to his work, and his wife went into the kitchen to get garet, "the mother of criminals," which facts and figures are to be presented in a careful statistical report to the Legis lature by the New York Prison Associa-tion. These figures have already at tracted much attention throughout the country. The analogous factor working, all deviations of the statistical report to the sector to country. The statement of the sector work is a sector of the sector of the tion. These figures have already at tracted much attention throughout the country. The analogous facts mentions of the bequest of the unfortunate Margaret is the bequest of the unfortunate Margaret is the country. A genealogical tree of this pauper child's descendants is in prepara-tion. One can feedby imagine it. Where other family records tell of here an an-cestor, devoting himself to religion or hims country's roll of honor, there a scholar, or soldier, or statesman; there a woman in private life, whose name, up known to fame, is blessed by hundreds who have feither example; there a moth-er of hereas in sched, by magine and there a burghr hinown to fame, is blessed by hundreds who have feither example; there a moth-triver statesman; there a woman in private life, whose name, up known to fame, is blessed by hundreds who have feither example; there a moth-triver statesman; there a woman in private life, whose name, up known to fame, is blessed by hundreds who have feither example; there a moth-triver, sow and then a woman who can merify to his neighborhood dhere a petty thief, there a pauper, there a words name of prostitutes and there would not in almshouse records as the mother of prostitutes and triver; a family tree whose branches are creards as the mother of prostitutes and trivers in all ship teo, and bed clothes, so that has the could sleep in the wagon.

and evils. The Bible prediction of visiting the sins of the fathers on "the third and fourth generation" is true in science, for seldom does a depraved line last beyond the third generation. Crime destroys or weakens. Morel, in his celebrated "His-toire des Degenerecences," shows that the third or at most fourth generation of criminal and vicious persons end in ex-treme cretinism or idiocy. In this extra-intermarriage with more vigorous ruf-intermarriage with more vigorous ruf-intermarriage with more vigorous ruf-time down to the present year, as the Kingston Journal pointed ont. Country line down to the present year, as the Kingston Journal pointed out. Country life, it should be remembered, always preserves a criminal family much longer than city life. A city breaks up lines of criminals and vagrants. The incessant movement of a city population separates parents and children. There are more preserving and reforming agen-cies at work in a large town. The best quality of village life, the people, keeps a bad family from good influences. There is, too, in every county a nursery of crime and seminary of vagabondism-we mean the county poor-house, with its

Items of Interest. A sure sign of an early spring is a cat atching a hole in the wall with her back up A Osnadian official report on lunacy asys about fifty per cent, of the idiots of large towns in Canada are the children

Really, very awkward, indeed ! Den-tist—" Come, my little dear, and sit on my knee." Little dear—" No, I shan't, unless mamma dees too !"

A woman at Youngstown, Ohio, who has an imitation seal-skin clock, is forced to tell an average of fifteen lies per day to make folks believe it is real seal.

In Alabama there are 641 granges, with 32,000 members; in Florida, 100 granges, with 5,500 members; in Arkan-sas, 521 granges, with 21,000 members.

A nice paper a new one just started in Vermont will be ! The editor says: "We shall publish nothing editorally, how-ever, that any one can take any offense at.

What it Cest to Let a Peer Giri go Her own Road to Destruction. Few persons, says an exchange, except those who study criminal science, con-sider how much each criminal costs the community, and how immensely cheaper says in his recent message that the State will be stripped of timber in thirty years, unless pains are taken to check the waste.

The following name is on a mine pay roll up the valley: Anthonestz Domin-istzie Schimakinschiefliestyle. It is needless to say that its owner is called records as the mother of prostitutes and papers; a genealogy of misery and crime; a family tree whose branches are lines of criminals, ending as drunkards, lumatics, and idots—a progeny of curses and evils. The voil of the ward of the

In Quebec recently as a bridal party were leaving the French cathedral a heavy snow slide from the roof fixed them all securely in the sleigh, and the vehicle had to be turned over in order to ou." bell three times (the signal to land), and I studied a while and decided that I the captain emerged from his drawing-

"Look-a-here! What do you start and looked up inquiringly. Mr. B. out from, above Twelve-Mile Point, to said: cross over

"I-I-don't know." 'You-you-don't know !" mimicking my drawling manner of speech. "What do you know?" That was all. The boat came to shore and was tied up for the night. It

"I-I-nothing, for certain." "I-I-nothing, for certain." Oh, but his wrath was up! He was a nervous man, and he shuffled from one side of his wheel to the other as if the floor was hot. He would hold a while the prior the night. It seemed to me a fine thing that the pilot could do as he pleased without asking so grand a captain's permission. I took my supper and went immediately to bed, ade of his when every and sold a while to discouraged by my day's observations himself, and then overflow and scald me and experiences. My late voyage's again. My late voyage's himself, and then overflow and scald me and experiences.

"Look-a-here ! What do you suppose I told you the names of those points all up in a knot every time I had looked all up in a knot every time I had looked for for?" at it in the daytime. I now hoped for "Well-to-to-be entertaining, I thought."

thought." This was a red rag to the bull. He raged and stormed so (he was crossing the river at the time) that I judge it made him blind, because he ran over the made him blind, because he ran over the the river at the time) that I judge it the river at the steering-bar of a trading-scow. Of course were anxious to "get out of the river the traders sent up a volley of red-hot (as getting out to Cairo was called) be the traders sent up a voney of red-not (as getting out to cardo was caned) be profanity. Never was a man so grateful as Mr. B. was; because he was brim full, and here were subjects who would talk back. He threw open a window, thrust his head out, and such an irruption fol- it was plain the darkness would overfainter and further away the scowmen's mouth. This was a great misfortune, curses drifted the higher Mr. B. lifted especially to certain of our visiting his voice and the weightier his adjectives pilots, whose boats would have to wait grew. When he closed the window he for their return, no matter how long that was empty. Presently he said to me in the gentlest way: "My boy, you must get a little memorandum-book, and every time I tell you of darkness; nothing stopped them but a thing, put it down right away. There's fog. But down-stream work was differonly one way to be a pilot, and that is to ent; a boat was too nearly helpless, with get this entire river by heart. You have a stiff current pushing behind her; so it know it just like A B C.'

were all gone, how, and the night was as nowever; if we could get through the black as ink. I could hear the wheels intricate and dangerous Hat Island intricate and dangerous Hat Island tricely certain that I could see the shore. The voice of the invisible watchman called up from the hurricane deck:

"What's this, sir?

"Very well, sir."

room in the forward end of the texas "We will lay up here all night,

The last remark I heard that night was a compliment to Mr. B., uttered in so-liloquy and with unction by one of our He said: "By the shadow of death, but he's a ghtning pilot !"

which points to the probability that an between the blows, animal afflicted with this disease is says, "I suppose you thrown into violent state at sight of an ndividual belonging to the particular obtained from a sheep, and exhibiting the most terrible symptoms of the mala-dy, showed no disquietude whatever at sight of a dog. When one was thrown to him he pushed it away with his nose; a sheep being placed in the same en-closure, he became frantic, and in a dreadful paroxysm of rige he seized it and killed it with one parameter of his and killed it with one movement of his powerful jaws. This case is in direct opposition to the usual course of things, animals suffering from rabies hav in all other known instances, been excited to madness whenever a dog showed was not customary to run down-stream There seemed to be one small hope, the to be one small hope. inflicted by a dog.

To a Science.

the rest, for we would have planer sail-ing and better water. But it would be insanity to attempt Hat Island at night. So there was a deal of looking at watches "While this stir" "Jones" plantation." Mr. B. handled the engine bells and in due time the boat's nose came to the and a store delor deloking at watches a man skipped ashore, a darky's voice on the shore said. "Ginme de carpetbag, "and he next moment we were dalayed in a bad crossing and then said_but that lained at gings of the next moment we were standing up the river again, at collar that ever happend; but it could that plantation was the luckies an acident that ever happend; but it could that plantation was the luckies and are sold as low as $11 or that is in the shade. You accident that ever happend; but it, but both remained in the pilot hous fore we reached St. Louis I had made a fore we reached St. Louis I had made a waste of water, one should know that not only must she pick her intricate way through snags and blind reefs, and then shaye the head of the idea and then "Eighteen blows; take him down, if he shave the head of the island so closely as to brush the overhanging foliage with ber dark bert and bert dark in the overhanging foliage with is ready." "Oh, yes, sir, I am ready but I have been imposed upon by these her stern, but at one place she mast pass almost within arm's reach of a sunken and invisible wreck that would snatch the hull timbers from under her if she wen, "said the prisoner, pointing to the says Bradbury; "string him up again." should strike it, and destroy a quarter of ing flesh is made to quiver again, and a million dollars' worth of steamboat the teeth are gritted together tighter and and cargo in five minutes, and maybe a hundred and fifty human lives into the bargain. tighter, though the moans caused by the scorching rawhide cannot help coming, and the face pales to a deeper pallor.

Rabies. Though the sight of a dog almost al-ways changes the passive state of hydro-phobia in any animal to the active, rag-ing condition, there is one recorded fact which, when the lash descends, heightens into a howl—the cry of a wild beast, a cry of agony, unrestrained by the feel-ings of pride that agitate most men and most convicts. "I would rather be with my mother," he piteously whines species from which the poison was re-ceived. A horse inoculated with rabies manity when it comes to a little suffering. The brave, patient follower faints before betokens a desire for eternal revenge.

Spring Calicons.

Bargains in light calicoes, says a fashion journal, are offered to those who are content with the pretty patterns of last year, as merchants have filled their counters with their present stock hoping to sell before new goods arrive.

ticing bargains are shown in delicate de-signs, like those first used in cambric, for twelve and a half cents per yard. These are white grounds with bars of color or else waved stripes, spots, days of extravagance it is not unusual to see girls of ten or twelve years dressed in black or blac velvet made by this design and bordered with chinchilla fur, or else the basque and apron are of camel's hair, with the sleeves and skirt of reliver or cilk of the same shade should be saved from a drunkard's fate. saved it all.

were operated upon in the last eighteen months, and $7,500,000 silver. The shipcharming lunch in a dress of rich black silk; Wednesday she received her callers in a navy-blue silk, piped with turquoise bones shattered and the flesh badly blue, with point lace collarette and sleeves, and diamonds for ornament; Wednesday evening, at the Bachelors' German, she wore a regal black velvet; Thursday evening, at the Ross-Ray n wine-colored satin; Friday evening, at her own reception, a pale green satin, trimmed with exqui flounces of black thread lace. is only a list for one week. Parties are ing in thick succession

I ask one little boon Of the New Year ; May I though all its days Carry some cheer To those who sit in gloom. Weeping for loss ; To hearts that slowly break Under a cross.

kuor. Dari kuor ? Mell, yuire a samat or, " said kuo protection soid black-no. 1. studied a while mal dorided turi 1. studied a while mal should be saved from a drunkard's fate.

The Punishment of Convicts,

Fashion's Exactions.
Says a Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazetle : Just think of the numerous costumes required by women in position who must live open to the public gaze and criticism year fate.
The Adair county (Iowa) Reporter in the personner, while they do not subtract the risconter, while they do not subtract to the public gaze and criticism year fate in Linear table. A shot gun in the advice out y: The family were seated at pointing room was thrown down by the gars an illustration. Monday she was out in elegantly embroidered calling costume of plum-colored silk; Tnesday she chaper roned her daughter to Miss Woodhull's silk; Wednesday she received her callers
Wednesday she received her callers
Wednesday she received her callers
Shot in the House.
The Adair county (Iowa) Reporter in the doub in the discipline confinement in a dress work has the dinner table. A shot gun in the advice gain being discharged, the contents in elegantly embroidered calling costume of plum-colored silk; Tnesday she chaper roned her daughter to Miss Woodhull's silk; Wednesday she received her callers Mented to Death.
A house in the outskirts of Cranford.

and she sank down horrified at the idea of being taken off to the station house. When they picked her up she was dead; she had died from fright. So the body was taken off to the morgue clad in its carnival finery, and there it was recog-pized the next day by the husband. house, and started in search of him. It is supposed that the children began playing with the fire, which ignited their fire. The charred remains of the un-fortunate children were found in the ruins of the cottage. house, and started in search of him. It is supposed that the children began playing with the fire, which ignited their fire. The charred remains of the un-fortunate children were found in the ruins of the cottage. house a started in search of him. It mouth like an elephant." "#Oh! oh Mr. Sully, how could you be so rude?" "Rude, ladies, rude! What do you mean ! I say she has got a mouth like 'an elephant beccuso it's full of ivory."

t, answered his royal antograph by the hand of a private secretary. d An unsuccessful effort was then imade to obtain the troops in Holland. answered his royal antograph by the sight. It ran pretty much as follows: "Erected to the memory of John Phillips, accidentally shot as a mark of affection by his brother."

In the Bank of France they have got a brick for which they paid 1,000 fro sist in preserving order. They exaspe-rate the prisoner, while they do not sub-

A house in the outskirts of Cranford, greater. Grasshoppers are now hatching out in A house in the outskirts of Cranford, Union county, N. J., was burned, to bullet passing just over her head. Their daughter, aged some ten or twelve years, received a few shot in one of her hands. Frightened to Death. A lady in Paris attended the last bal masque out of mere curiosity. She wore a pretty pink domino which made her particularly conspicuous. She supped, ond when sholeff the ball she found she a pretty pink domino which made her particularly conspicuous. She supped, and when she left the ball she found she had drank too much champagne. A po-liceman put his hand on her shoulder, and she sank down horrified at the idea is supposed that the children began it. At the spectively seven and eight years, in the house at noon for lunch. He failed to come back, and his wife, becoming un-easy, locked the little boys, aged re-spectively seven and eight years, in the house at noos for lunch. He failed to come back, and his wife, becoming un-easy, locked the little boys, aged re-spectively seven and eight years, in the house at the children began ite. "Ah !" says Sully, "she has a

The New York Assay Office furnishes some very interesting statistics in regard to the production of gold and silver. Thirty million dollars gold (bullion) were operated upon in the last eighteen The New York Assay Office furnishes the blows. Bradbury coordy says, "I suppose you would." Other prisoners are whipped, but time cannot be spent on all. The braggadocio leader in the revolt disgraces his hu-manity when it comestoa little suffering. The brave, patient follower faints before sunk into flesh and into the sensitive overing of his soal. Some come up part with a look out of their eyes that or three shades of dark brown or gray. The only real Scotch plaid used is the Forty-second Highland plaid, of mingled blue and green, and of this small bars

Our Production of Noble Metals.

ments of silver from New York to Phila

are chose