

The Autumn Song.
In spring the poet is glad,
And in summer the poet is gay;
But in autumn the poet is sad,
And has something to say.
For the wind moans in the wood,
And the leaf drops from the tree;
And a cold rain falls on the graves of the dead,
And the cold mist comes up from the sea.
And the autumn song of the poet's soul
Are set to the passionate grief
Of words that sigh and bells that toll
The dirge of the falling leaf.

FRED. KURTZ, Editor and Proprietor.
NO. 14.
CENTRE HALL, CENTRE CO., PA., THURSDAY, APRIL 8, 1875.

Baby Died To-day.
Lay the little limbs out straight;
The world will be the better for it,
Scarcely a shadow on our fate.
Baby died to-day!
Fold the hands across the breast,
So, when we look to the grave,
Leave him in his dreamless rest.
Baby died to-day!
Voice, whose prattling infant lore
Was the music of our ears,
Now is hushed forevermore.
Baby died to-day!
Sweet blue eyes, whose sunny gleams
Made our waking moments gay,
Now can slumber in our arms.
Baby died to-day!
Still a smile on his face,
But he lacks the joyous play,
Of the one we used to trace.
Baby died to-day!
Give his eyes your latest kiss;
Dry your lips and own away;
To a happier world than this
Baby lives to-day!

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
What Became of It when Lee Surrendered.
—The Gold Standard.
When David, his cabinet and general officers, agreed to divide out the money on hand, the great question was, what was to be done with the gold and silver. The Virginia bank funds were turned over, and were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

A BEAR-CATCHING GOVERNOR.
The Present Executive of California.
An enthusiastic correspondent of the San Francisco Alta gives the following description of an encounter with a grizzly bear, in which California's new governor (Pacheco) figured prominently:
Governor Pacheco has, among his accomplishments, and they are many, the credit of having been the first to capture a grizzly bear in the United States. He can boast, and get away with a bear, bristly as such, in both and silver. The Governor Pacheco has, among his accomplishments, and they are many, the credit of having been the first to capture a grizzly bear in the United States. He can boast, and get away with a bear, bristly as such, in both and silver.

THE SAD STORY OF A LIFE.
The unfortunate Wife of Maximilian, Queen Empress of Mexico.
The Belgian papers announce that the death of the unhappy Carlotta, the wife of Maximilian, once emperor of Mexico, is daily expected. The Emperor Maximilian was shot on the 19th of June, 1867, and his wife was shot on the 19th of July, 1867. She was shot in the same manner as her husband, and her death was equally sudden. She was a young and beautiful woman, and her death was a great loss to the world.

I'm Thinking of Thee.
When I'm in her beauty,
In smiling, bright and true,
And sweetly bright and true,
When sweet birds are warbling
Their soft notes of joy,
My thoughts are not roaming
I'm thinking of thee.
When softly the day-beams
Are sinking to rest,
And their gorgeous tints
Have faded in the west,
And moonlight is dancing
Over ocean and sea,
My thoughts are still, love,
I'm thinking of thee.
When wild waves are dashing
Against the shore,
And lightning is flashing
And deep thunder rolls,
And deep storms are raging
A war with the sea,
Still I'll be, so fondly,
I'm thinking of thee.

MY KING.
"Josephine! Josephine! wake up,
There is some one trying to get into the room!"
I listened, but that still fully awake,
And heard a sound as if some one
Was coming to my door.
"How—where—what, rubbing my eyes,
Josephine!"
She laid her hand on my mouth as she whispered: "Sit still; don't you hear that?"
I listened, but that still fully awake,
And heard a sound as if some one
Was coming to my door.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE SILVER MINE.
There is no denying the fact that both Mr. Matthews and his wife were tired of poverty and its attendant struggles. When he was first engaged to her, she was a young and beautiful woman, and her death was a great loss to the world.

THE SILVER MINE.
There is no denying the fact that both Mr. Matthews and his wife were tired of poverty and its attendant struggles. When he was first engaged to her, she was a young and beautiful woman, and her death was a great loss to the world.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.

THE CONFEDERATE TREASURY.
The gold and silver were all the time in charge of their own bank officers. They were carried to Washington, Wilkes county, some fifteen or twenty miles, by their officers, and there deposited for safe-keeping. I would guess that there were $400,000 of gold and silver, being a large sum for the time, and which, as I have said, were all the time in charge of their own bank officers.