The democratic statesmen mentione in connection with the nomination for the Presidency are, Mr. Tilden of New York, Thurman and Gov. Allen, of Ohio and Mr. Bayard of Delaware. All good, pure and honest, and men of ability.

Mr. John Siney has blundered mos inexcusably in advising a strike in the bituminous coal mines when it is easy to replace striking miners by others anxious to work at present prices. For the first blunder the Miner's Union should punish him by kicking him out of its employment as an incompetent meddler. For the last blunder the law, probably affords a remedy in the long list of pelife and property.
