The Week.

Lo, Monday is the "washing day, As all good housewives know, Memorable of dinners bashed And clothes as white as snow; And Tue day is the "ironing day, 'Mid cold, or feg, or heat; And Wednesday is the "sewing day," To see the clothes are neat And Thursday is a leisure day. And Friday, brooms begin 'Fore Sunday's ushered in;

To sweep away the household dirt, And Saturday is "baking day, Pies, puddings, cakes and bread, And we-may go to bed !

My son and myself were conscious of a sudden and terrific general disturbance, and he affirms that he received a severe and distinctly electrical shock in both legs. My left arm, shoulder, and throat especially suffered violent disturbance, but I did not think it was electrical. As I turned to help my wife, who was on the ground, I shouted, as I thought, that I was unhurt, and hoped they were also, but it seems I only uttered inarticulate sounds, and my son, in his first attempt to answer, did the same. This, however, was only momentary; in an instant we both spoke plainly.
