there are seventy democratic candidates Meek understands how to make, and i for office in this county. This is not making combinations and alliances wit for office in this county. This is not correct—the number does not reach one half those figures. This falsehood was put in circulation by the Bellefonte Re-publican, which knew it to be untrue. The President having accepted the in-vitation to attend the Cape May regath, the Pittsburg Dispatch does not see as clearly as it did why he declined the in-vitation to attend the Bunker Hill Cen-tenial, and intimates that the managers of future centennials should add a horse or boat race to the other attractions. A or boat race to the other attractions. A fair hit.

Grant's kitchen organ, the Washington Republican, is slashing at Vice President Wilson, and for no other reason than because he was opposed to the
